Best Minds to Be Summoned for Revision.

DEMOCRATIC WASTE CITED

Republican Nominee in Indiana Speech Says Objectionable League Features to Be Ousted.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 15 .-Senator Harding, asserting that America must do "everything she can" to prevent future wars, tonight renewed his declaration that in organizing the sentiment of the world for peace he favors taking all that good in the Versailles league of nations.

Quoting from his league speech of August 28, he pointed out that he declared then that the league might be "amended or revised" if its preservation were found necessary to the peace of Europe.

"When elected," he said tonight, "I will immediately summon the best minds of America to consult and advise as to America's relationship to the present association of nations or modifications of it, or substitutes have recognized much good in a new world fellowship and co-operation, but we insistently reject all that menaces America. We must separate the wheat from the chaff."

The senator's speech here concludes a day of hard campaigning through the southern half of Indiana.

In all his speeches he argued fo preserved nationalism and urged the election of a republican congress. making a special appeal for Senator James E. Watson, who accompanied bym on bis train.
