Harding Makes Closing Campaign Statement.

PARIS LEAGUE IS OPPOSED

Democratic Reply Held 'Yes,' Republican, 'No.'

WILSON 'FOLLIES' CITED

Choice of G. O. P. Senate Would Be Contribution to Achievements, Is Declaration.

PARSON, O., Oct. 31.—In a final campaign statement tonight to the American people, Senator Harding declared Tuesday's election would be on two clearly drawn issues—Paris league of nations and a constructive domestic policy.

League Issue Held Twisted

The republican candidate asserted that the country already had answered "no" and that in consequence the democrats had sought to deceive the people as to the real nature of the league issue by making it appear that the republicans were opposed to any international association at all.

Republican Senate Wanted

Senator Harding also made public statement to all republican headquarters, saying that the republican party everywhere must understand that the choice of a republican senate is a contribution to a united America ready to go forward to new horizons and new achievements.

Issues Held Clearly Drawn

Between our democratic opponent and the American people who are supporting the republican party these issues are clearly drawn. There has been a steady attempt to deceive the people as to the issue of foreign policy.

Republican Answer Is 'No'

The answer to the democratic question is "Yes." The answer of the republican party and its candidates is "No." The reason for answering "No" to the question drawn by our opponents is that America has already answered "Yes" to the old world engagement to send her boys to war to win an old European controversy.
