CONGRESS VOTES TO RESTORE PEACE

Resolution to Be Sent to President Today.

VOTE IN SENATE IS 38 TO 19

Diplomatic Relations Wait Signing of Measure.

HARDING AT RARITAN, N. J.

Compromise Proposal to Be Sent to Executive There for Final Action; Democrats in Fight.

WHAT CONGRESS DID AS ITS DAYS' WORK.

Senate.
Adopted Knox-Porter peace resolution by a vote of 38 to 19, thereby sending it immediately to the president for approval.
Decision reached to bring up naval supply bill carrying Borah disarmament resolution next Tuesday.

House.
Enacted Kahn bill for completion of acquisition of real estate purchased by the war department during the war.
Chairman Fordney of ways and means committee predicted tariff bill would be of great aid to industry and labor, and Representative Chandler republican, Oklahoma, said duty on oil was a stroke at monopolistic control by Standard Oil company.
Peace resolution received from senate and signed by Speaker Pro Tem. Towner.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1.—Enactment of the compromise resolution ending the state of war with Germany and Austria finally was completed today by congress and the measure will be sent tomorrow to President Harding at Raritan, N. J., who is expected to sign it immediately.

At the White House, where the resolution was received early tonight, it was thought that a messenger would leave here at 9 o'clock tomorrow, arriving about 2 o'clock at Raritan, where President Harding is the guest of Senator Frelinghuysen over the holidays.

Vote in Senate Is 38 to 19.
The senate adopted the conference report by a vote of 38 to 19 after a day of debate in which the democratic members made a last assault on the resolution. The house acted yesterday, the vote being 263 to 99.

The signing of the measure by the president will open the way for the resumption of diplomatic relations with both Germany and Austria, but administration officers have indicated that plans for this have not been worked out.

All Opponents Resolved.
All opponents of the resolution were Democrats, but three Democrats, Shields of Tennessee, Walsh of Massachusetts and Watson of Georgia, voted with Republicans for adoption. Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri, was paired in his favor.

Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, author of the original resolution, was absent but was paired with Senator Pomeroy, Democrat, Ohio.
Senator Brandegee of Connecticut declared in the debate that there would be no more of "peace," but probably one or more of "commerce," which he said, would deal with questions arising out of the war.

Treaty Held Unnecessary.
Arguing that a peace treaty was not necessary to conclude war, Mr. Lodge said that the United States had negotiated treaties of commerce with Great Britain in 1812 and 1815, and also with Spain after the Spanish-American war.

Senator Lodge said that he knew of no plans by the administration to re-submit the treaty of Versailles to the senate.

Disclaiming to speak for the president, Senator Brandegee said he believed the peace resolution would necessitate retirement of American troops from German territory.

Property Clauses Assailed.
Closing the debate, Senator La Follette, republican, Wisconsin, expressed "dissent and denunciation" of the provisions reserving American rights to German property seized by the alien property custodian. Such action, he declared, was in violation of the treaty of 1823 with Prussia, and also of international law.

"There is no plan to re-submit the treaty of Versailles to congress of which I have any knowledge whatever," Senator Lodge told the senate.

FRENCH POPULATION CUT
Decrease of 2,500,000 Shown From Figures for 1911.

PARIS, July 1.—The population of France, 26,084,206, according to the 1921 census, shows a decrease of nearly 2,500,000 compared with 1911. An official statement today says: "The decrease was caused by the war, according to the official report.

HARDING SAYS DAWES HAS FULL AUTHORITY

PRESIDENT PREDICTS HEART-ACHES OVER BUDGET.

Government Officials Are Told That the Eyes of World Are Upon Economy Plan.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1.—President Harding called to order today a second meeting of government officials on the budget. Today's session was behind closed doors. It was attended by some 20 department heads and representatives of major government bureaus.

President Harding told the budget makers there would be many heart burnings, but that Director Dawes would have full authority of this government back of him in a fight for reduced expenditures. The world is watching this well resolved experiment.

A distinguished diplomat told me that his own country had already cabled him to keep close watch on every step of our budget enterprise. The rules to be promulgated this morning by General Dawes have been given over deliberately, and he comes with full authority," President Harding said that he felt the success of the budget undertaking lay "in a more intimate touch between those who are responsible for details and those who must report to the president."

Budget regulations made public today provided for a compilation, by the budget bureau of balances intended to be saved in each department or bureau which would go into a special "general reserve fund."

The amounts approved by the president for expenditure under an appropriation title "will be considered as the maximum available for obligations during the fiscal year. Estimates of minimum expenditure made by the budget bureau in that survey are to be subject to revision."

McNARY TO SEE FIGHT
Dozen Senators and 90 Representatives Leave for Ringside.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1.—A magnetic influence having its center in New Jersey, where tomorrow's championship bout between Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier is to be staged, penetrated the capitol and busy representatives from their seats. Adjournment of the senate and house late in the day saw about 100 members turning toward the railroad station with tickets to New York.

Senators who planned to attend the bout included McNary, Oregon; Poinceter, Washington, and Shortridge, California.

FAIR FOURTH IS PROBABLE
Weather Outlook "Pretty Good," Is Forecaster's Word.

"Conditions are somewhat unsettled, but the outlook is pretty good," said Weatherman Wells last night, when interviewed concerning his views on weather for July 4. "That is as strong as I care to go at present."

When Mr. Wells says "pretty good," the general public has a right to be encouraged, for he means just that and has some good reasons for so believing. Moreover, he is influenced only by what his instruments tell him, not by any massing which, the psychologists say, is the weatherman's coveting to the weatherman the general desire for a forecast of fair weather on the Fourth.

PLANES TO INFORM PARIS
Lights Will Tell Whether Dempsey or Carpentier Is Victor.

PARIS, July 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—Six high-powered airplanes tomorrow night will fly over the boulevards and throw strong red light on the Parisian crowds if Georges Carpentier succeeds in knocking out Jack Dempsey. Soft white rays will be flashed if the Frenchman falls.

Frenchmen demanded 2 to 1 and offered little money today even at that price. At the bourse, it was said, the odds probably would not go below 3 to 1 in favor of Dempsey and that extensive betting on the result of the contest was not expected.

OFFICIAL PAPERS VANISH
Postal Department Investigates Disappearance of Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1.—At the request of the state department, postal authorities have begun investigating the disappearance from three diplomatic mail pouches of official papers addressed to American representatives in Europe.

The inquiry followed the report of the American consul at Stockholm that upon the arrival of the pouches there the documents were missing.

MINING BILL IS URGED
Sinnott Asks Favorable Report on War Mineral Relief Act.

THE OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, D. C., July 1.—Representative Sinnott appealed to the house committee on mines and mining today to report favorably on the Shortridge bill, amending the war mineral relief act.

Many chrome miners in southern and eastern Oregon would benefit by the bill.

FIGHTERS PRIMED FOR GREAT BATTLE

Morale of Champion Is Declared Unshaken.

POILU DETERMINED TO WIN

Dempsey Victory Within Two Rounds Predicted.

SEAT SALE IS $1,250,000

Society Folk, Bankers, Doctors and Pickpockets Await Gong; Crowds Jam Hotels.

BY HARRY M. GRAYSON.

NEW YORK, July 1.—(Special.)—William Harrison Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world, was sleeping peacefully tonight at the home of Mayor Frank Hague in Jersey City. Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock he will sidle through the hemp to answer Georges Carpentier's challenge. The so-called "battle of the century" is nothing more than another physical encounter. In what he calls the "home corner" of the old Mathews farmhouse at Manhasset, Long Island, the polu is getting his final hours of rest before attempting the attainment of his life's ambition. He feels confident of turning what every smart boxing man declares will be his Waterloo, and as courageously as he did at Verdun and against even greater odds than did his brave countrymen in that memorable and crucial trial.

Dempsey stands at 322. Carpentier will leave Manhasset at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Crossing the river in a private motorboat, he will proceed directly to his dressing room in the arena to remain until before 3. Harry Ettie is ready to start the epochal battle. The Lens larapper will tip the scales at around 172 pounds.

The Salt Lake slugger is stronger, younger and pounds heavier. Bronzed John's record compares with Carpentier's like the American eagle compares with the glow-worm. In the writer's humble opinion.

DEMPEY'S FIANCEE TO SEE PRIZEFIGHT

WEDDING RIGHT AFTER BOUT RUMORED IN NEW YORK.

Sylvia Jocelyn of Los Angeles to Have Ringside Seat at Battle Today.

NEW YORK, July 1.—(Special.)—Seated in a ringside box while Jack Dempsey is defending his title at Tex Rickard's Jersey City arena tomorrow afternoon will be Miss Sylvia Jocelyn, pretty, 23, a brunette and a very well-known scenario writer who lives with her mother in Hollywood, Cal.

Reports around the lobby of the hotel Belmont had it that the champion will wed Miss Jocelyn immediately after the contest.

Indeed, one story was that they have already been married. Neither John nor Bernard Dempsey, brother of the champion, nor Miss Jocelyn, all registered at the Belmont, will confirm or deny the report.

Miss Jocelyn, now being entertained by John and Bernard Dempsey, with a young woman friend, spent the last ten weeks at Atlantic City where the champion did his conditioning.

It was said that Dempsey and his bride would leave for Salt Lake and Los Angeles right after the fight, and would reside in Jack's beautiful new home in Hollywood. They met one year ago.

Dempsey is 28 years old and was divorced from Maxine Dempsey, in 1917.

BIG TIMBER DEAL CLOSED

Crown Willamette Paper Co. Buys Tracts in Douglas County.

ASTORIA, Or., July 1.—(Special.)—Announcement was made tonight by W. F. McGregor of the closing of the largest timber deal consummated in western Oregon for several months. By it the Crown Willamette Paper company acquired the holdings of Lake Timber company, and of the Takkenitck Timber company in Douglas county. The tracts, which are in the southern part of Douglas county, near Lake Takkenitck, comprise 6000 and 7000 acres of timber, averaging about 100,000 feet to the acre, about 80 per cent of which is spruce.

The sale was based on a valuation of $3 per 1000 feet and the total consideration was more than $1,500,000.

AMERICAN SHIPS FAVORED

Millers' Federation Insists on Shipments on Home Vessels.

CHICAGO, July 1.—The Millers' National Federation has adopted a resolution providing that the products of its members should be shipped abroad only in American vessels, rates being equal. The federation, it was said, represents a capitalization of approximately two billion dollars, and its exports about one-third of the cargoes shipped from American ports. The action was taken to supply the American merchant marine.

PORTLAND FIGHT FANS SAY DEMPEY'LL WIN

SOME FEW FOR CARPENTIER, BUT MOST AGAINST.

Not One Out of Ten Give Chance to Polu to Stick 12 Rounds.

NEW YORK, July 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—Pugilistic history will be made in a huge pine board arena in Jersey City tomorrow afternoon, when Jack Dempsey defends his heavyweight championship against the fist challenge of Georges Carpentier. It will be an international glove contest in the broadest application of the term. Every section of the globe will await with keen interest the outcome of the battle between the American holder of a long record of ring victories and the Frenchman, noted equally for his prowess in the square arena and on the sterner battlefield of the world war.

The last legal obstacle to the match was removed today when the Hudson county grand jury refused to return an indictment charging the principals and promoters with conspiracy to hold a prizefight in violation of the New Jersey law.

Seats Provided for 91,000.
Seats have been provided for more than 91,000 spectators and a majority of them have been sold. A purse of $500,000 has been given by Promoter Rickard. Of this huge sum, an amount far in excess of any financial combination ever offered pugilists in the past, Dempsey will receive $300,000 and Carpentier $200,000, regardless of the outcome.

Advance ticket sales up to an early hour tonight amounted to nearly $1,500,000. Regardless of the enormous expense attendant upon the venture, Rickard is certain to clear a net profit several times larger than from any of his previous efforts. It is estimated that the purse, cost of arena and numerous other expenses will amount close to $1,000,000.

Uncle Sam to Profit.
Rickard, Dempsey and Carpentier will not be the only persons to profit by the "battle of the century," as the contest has been aptly named. Uncle Sam will take close to $500,000 under the income tax laws. In the last 48 hours virtually every incoming train has brought its quota of fight fans from all sections of the United States, Canada and Mexico. Trans-Atlantic and coastwise steamships have added hundreds more to the crowds that will descend upon Jersey City tomorrow.

France, the home of the challenger, England, where he is almost equally popular; Spain and other continental countries, South America and the far east will be represented by a multitude of present scenes. Reno with its gathering for the Johnson-Jeffries clash; Havana, the site of the Willard-Johnson battle, and Toledo, where Dempsey created his present title and ring honors from Jess Willard, offered nothing that compares with the night-before scenes on the eve of the Dempsey-Carpentier battle.

Sentiment Favors Carpentier.
The outcome of the battle appears to be the only topic of discussion among millions of persons who normally take only slightest interest in matters pugilistic.

Sentiment seems to lean strongly in favor of Carpentier, probably because of the halo of heroism which has given him. However, but a very small percentage of the Frenchman's well wishers care to carry their enthusiasm to the point of betting on him to win. Dempsey is a 2 to 1 favorite in the wagering, and there are thousands of dollars of uncovered wagers here tonight, although betting by the Frenchman's supporters has increased noticeably within the last few days.

Polu Still Mystery.
Many expert followers of pugilism express surprise that the difference in odds is not greater, as Carpentier is as much a "man of mystery" to the eye of battle as he was the day he landed on the Isle of Manhattan to train for the clash. After weeks of the closest application and effort on the part of boxing writers and authorities very little is known of the real ability of the French challenger.

His few public training exhibitions in his camp have shown little that was not generally known before. Lightning fast foot, possessing a powerful right-hand punch which he can shoot from various angles and a well muscled body, except around the mid-section, he appears to be at best a middleweight with the legs of a heavyweight. Of his ability to take punishment from a terrific hitter of Dempsey's caliber, little is known and much is doubted.

No question arises regarding Carpentier's ability to win.

KATE O'HARE SEIZED BY PARTY OF MEN

SOCIALIST WRITER AND LECTURER IS ABDUCTED.

Woman, Recently Released From Prison as Espionage Violator, Kidnaped at Twin Falls.

TWIN FALLS, Idaho, July 1.—Mrs. Kate Richards O'Hare, socialist writer and lecturer who was released from federal prison by President Wilson after she had served 14 months of a sentence for violation of the espionage law, this afternoon was taken from the Twin Falls home of H. H. Freidheim, her sponsor, by a party of a dozen or more unidentified men.

Inadequate descriptions of her abductors have been furnished to the authorities, but no trace of them had come to light late tonight.

Mrs. O'Hare arrived at Twin Falls at noon today with her daughter, coming from Vale, Or., where she spoke Thursday night. At Vale she received a telegram from Freidheim to the effect that the county and city authorities had warned him that Mrs. O'Hare's coming here would be likely to result in dangerous consequences and advised him to prevail upon her to cancel the engagement. Mrs. O'Hare's reply as given by Freidheim this morning was to the effect that she would stand upon her constitutional rights, that she had been threatened before and nothing had ever come of it and that "barking dogs don't bite."

Feeling in Twin Falls against Mrs. O'Hare, who has spoken here on two different occasions, has been high, according to the authorities. Resolutions in opposition to her intended appearance were adopted by numerous patriotic and civic organizations. Mrs. O'Hare's coming here was scheduled to address an audience here at 8 o'clock tonight.

It was known here that Mrs. O'Hare was carried so far that three hours later the kidnappers had not returned. "Agents" against the appearance of the woman had been growing rapidly and steadily since the first announcement was made a month ago that the head of the socialist party here, H. H. Freidheim, had contracted with her to make a public address. The Legion first took cognizance of the plan and openly denounced the leaders of the movement. Since then half a dozen fraternal orders, the Kiwanis, Rotary and City clubs, as well as Boy Scouts, have adopted resolutions denouncing the scheme.

Submarine Chaser Arrives to Take Part in Celebration.

They left the Kiwanis, Rotary and City clubs, as well as Boy Scouts, have adopted resolutions denouncing the scheme.

The chaser will participate in the Knights of Pythias celebration here and at Nehalem on July 2, 3 and 4. The first of the celebration train has brought its quota of fight fans from all sections of the United States, Canada and Mexico. Trans-Atlantic and coastwise steamships have added hundreds more to the crowds that will descend upon Jersey City tomorrow.

CORB ORIENTALS, LEGION DEMANDS

State Convention Urges Land Limitations.

FEDERAL ACTION IS WANTED

Wishes for Dempsey Defeat Sent to Carpentier.

STIRRING SPEECHES GIVEN

National Adjutant and National Chaplain Get Ovarious; The Dalles Wins Next Meet.

EUGENE, Or., July 1.

(Special.)—Oregon's ex-service men will not rest until a check is placed upon the oriental. Such was the pledge taken today by 250 ex-service men sitting in their third annual convention of the Oregon department of the American Legion.

Recommendations to the government to take positive action by "treaty or otherwise" and an added provision whereby an anti-oriental measure, forbidding ownership of real property by members of the race, be placed upon the ballot at the next general election, should no results be forthcoming from the government, were made to an accompaniment of cheers.

Slated to come before the body tomorrow morning is a mountain of convention business, including recommendations in the Albers case, state-aid matter, an expression on activities of certain Germans, German-made propagandist films and election of officers.

The Dalles Gets Convention.
The Dalles was chosen today as next year's convention city. Stirring addresses were made at the convention opening by Lemuel C. Bolles, national legion adjutant, and John W. Inzer, national chaplain.

Baron's resolutions denouncing the Legion. Following the opening exercises and the convention parade arranged by the local convention committee in cooperation with the business houses, the chamber of commerce and the citizens of Eugene, the body again went into session and in the first few hours of the afternoon disposed of a mass of routine matter.

After a ringing address by Francis Galloway, The Dalles was chosen as the next convention city. A fight was put up by the Baker post, but swung by Galloway's address and propaganda previously spread by The Dalles delegation, the convention unanimously selected the city on the Columbia, "where the jalls in the bag of a legion man cannot break by or steal into them," according to Mr. Galloway.

Gratitude Is Expressed.
Oregon's service men are grateful for the state-aid measure recently passed and their feelings were expressed in a resolution introduced by Lyman Hile of Medford, Clatsop, member of the state bonus committee. J. A. Beckwith of Portland was chairman of the committee which favored the resolution. Service men were warned against accepting advances on their compensation.

Baron's Leonard of Portland, heading the committee on the Japanese question, made his report with ease, the convention delegates responding with a serious attentiveness to such phrases as "this menace to our posterity and our form of government" which were interspersed in the resolution.

Recommendations Are Expected.
Other members of the committee were L. W. Geitchell of Bend, Ben Hamilton of Medford, Clarence Keblor of North Bend and Dr. E. H. Abraham of Hood River.

From the Americanization committee, headed by Jerrold Owen of Portland, is expected to come several recommendations at the morning session. The orientals again will be the objective in an attack which would prohibit native-born children of alien parentage from automatically becoming citizens.

The committee report as completed and awaiting presentation to the convention suppression of the foreign language press as the nucleus of radical, and revolutionary movements is recommended; informal admittance of aliens into citizenship is deplored; employment in public works of any man not a citizen opposed, and the office of Attorney-General Dougherty condemned for his action in the Albers case.

Political Pot Brewing.
The political pot was brewing tonight. In crowded rooms in the Hotel Ogburn, convention headquarters, there seemed no danger of its boiling over, but indications were that one office at least would be kept; continued.
