

LIEBES AND NEER BEAT FOR BATTLE

Murphy and Westerman Capture Junior Doubles.

MATCH FIVE-SET AFFAIR

Playground Tournament Comes to Close: Prizes Are Awarded to All Winners.

Ed Murphy and Isadore Westerman won the Junior doubles championship yesterday in the annual playground tennis tournament by defeating M. Liebes and Neer in a sensational five-set match, 6-4, 10-8, 8-10, 2-6, 6-2.

The match was the best of the tournament, the second and third sets going to 18 games. In the first set at the eighth game the score was 4-3. Then Westerman and Murphy broke through Liebes' serve, winning the game and with Westerman serving ran out the set, 6-4.

Shots Concentrated on Neer. Westerman and Murphy concentrated their shots on Neer, who was supposed to be the weaker of their opponents. Neer played a good defensive game. It was, however, the costly errors of both Neer and Liebes that gave Westerman and Murphy the set.

The third and fourth sets went to Neer and Liebes, who staidied and played at top form. Liebes' placements in these sets were the feature of the play. Neer supported him well.

The fifth and final set went to Murphy and Westerman. This set was not nearly so exciting as the former sets. Westerman and Murphy were the aggressors at the start and easily won the match. Neer made many double faults.

Liebes Wins Men's Singles. M. Liebes won the men's singles from R. Kendall in three straight sets, 6-1, 6-2, 6-4. Though he had participated in a five-set match a half hour previously, he had much strength in reserve and Kendall was completely outclassed. This match wound up the tournament.

A. B. McAlpin, president of the Portland Lawn Tennis association, presented the winners with trophies after making a brief speech. Those who received prizes were: Martin Liebes, men's singles and junior singles; Ed Murphy and Isadore Westerman, junior doubles; William C. Miller, boys' singles; Miss Givens and Bobby Hoega, boys' doubles; Ann Towey, women's singles; and Jane Cochran, girls' singles.

Al Goldblat won the Junior consolation singles by defeating Pete Murphy, 6-4, 6-2, 6-4. Ray Hall defeated Rex Burton in the boys consolation final, 6-2, 2-6, 6-3. The winners in the consolation received tennis racquets.

The tournament was the most successful since it was originated several years ago and had by far the largest entry list. It was in charge of Theodore J. Steffen and George Wolff.

BRADY'S CARD UNDER PAR

GOLFER AGAIN LEADS IN WESTERN OPEN TOURNEY.

Four Strokes Behind and Fighting Gently Was Jock Hutchison.

WORTHINGHAM, Mich., Aug. 24.—(Special.)—The Associated Press.—Swinging a driver that always carried the ball safely over traps and bunkers, and a mauler that repeatedly left a one-putt lie, Mike Brady, local professional, today turned in a card of 69—three strokes under par—in the second day's play of the Western Open Golf tournament over the Oakland Hills course and easily led the field of amateurs or tomorrow's final with a 26-hole score of 141.

Four strokes back of Mike and fighting so hard that he also had a less than par card was Jock Hutchison, Chicagoan, who formerly held the British open title. Dave Robertson, Detroit, and Young Johnny Farrell of Mamaroneck, N. Y., tied for third at 148. Laurie Ayton of Chicago was fifth with 150. Following in order came Pat Petrank of Nutley, N. J., a comparatively unknown, and Emmett French of Youngstown, O., 151; George Sargent, veteran, of Columbus, O., 151; Chick Evans of Chicago, leader of the amateurs, with 152 after a disastrous blow-up near the end of today's play; Tom Kerrett of Matteson, Ill., 152; and the Canadian open champion, Al Watrous of Detroit, 153.

Sixty-eight men qualified for the finals, the extra ones getting through today. These men will play 18 holes tomorrow and their qualifying scores will be added to tomorrow's cards to determine the total for the 72 holes that he also had.

Tonight there was little question that Brady was a strong favorite for the title, with Jock Hutchison as the chief man to be feared.

Bush League Notes.

Nicolai Door, 1922 champion of the City League, will play Camas, 1922 champion of the Willamette Valley League, at Camas, Sunday. This will be the first meeting of the teams. Camas has been playing consistently better than the so-called Vancouver Barracks, 7 to 5, last Sunday, while Nicolai Door lost to Arleta, 9 to 4.

The Hibernal Bank team will play the state penitentiary this Sunday at Salem. Emmons or Galvin will pitch for the bankers and Jacobberger will catch.

Lefty Schneider will pitch and Perkins will catch for Standard. On Sunday, when the team meets Sheridan at Sheridan, the old men added another victory last Sunday by their long list by taking Fenno's team into camp, 7 to 5.

The Brotherhood of Railway Clerks has an open date Sunday, September 3, and would like to hear from any fan team regarding a game that day. The clerks were runners-up in the City League. Their record to date is 41 games won and six lost. The clerks can be reached by writing to Ted Richter, manager, at 3625 Fifth-avenue South-east, or by calling Automatic 640-03.

The Brotherhood of Railway Clerks will meet the Salem Senators Sunday in the capital city. The last time the two played the Portlanders won in 19 innings, 5 to 3.

The Woodstock Juniors would like to get an out-of-town game for Sunday. Write to A. G. Cann, in care of A. G. Spalding & Brother.

TEX RICKARD PLANS MANY TITLE BATTLES THIS FALL

New York Promoter Expects to Put On More Big Fights Than Ever Before Held in One Year.

BY ROBERT EDGREN.

TEX RICKARD says he hopes to hold more championships this fall than he ever promoted in New York before in a year. Among the bouts he is negotiating for are Kilbane-Lynch, Wilde-Deer, Criqui-Kilbane and Leonard-White. He has been busy with Wilde by cable offering him fair inducements for a flyweight championship bout.

Jimmy Wilde has been fighting a long time, but no one in his class has yet taken him seriously. He was knocked out by Pete Herman, who twice held the world's bantam weight championship. Johnny Buff is the best flyweight in America and holder of the title in this country. He held the bantam-weight title, too, for a few months after taking it from Herman, but lost it to Joe Lynch.

Little Mike Lieke and Buff may beat the best fighters in the heavier classes now, but the weight handicap is too severe when it comes to defending a title against all challengers. Wilde and Buff would make a great match and one that would hold as much public interest as any bout in either the bantam or the featherweight class.

Kilbane champion featherweight since February 22, 1921, when he beat Abe Attell at Vernon, must be the end of his career as a fighter, yet whenever Kilbane does get into the ring he surprises everyone by fighting like a youngster. He would have a great advantage over Joe Lynch in weight, although I doubt that he has anything on Lynch either in speed, skill or fighting ability. Certainly he can't equal Joe's condition. Still the difference in weight might handicap Lynch out of it unless Kilbane has sloughed up a bit.

Criqui Great Fighter. Eugene Criqui, the great little fighting Frenchman, would give Kilbane a battle for the world title and would have a great advantage over all rivals in his class and in European championship without a rival at present. He is certainly the best of his class and has a lot of good little men.

Criqui is a fighter with a great punch. He carries the scars of battle and although he has been fighting in the ring much better the last year than he ever did before. Criqui has a knockout punch.

As for Leonard-White, Benny intends to be in Europe a couple of months on this trip, and there is talk about his having promised his mother to retire with the title and not risk defeat. Leonard missed the welter-weight championship when he fought Jack Britton, and is fighting the light-weight limit, so it is possible he will not fight.

As for Leonard-White, Benny intends to be in Europe a couple of months on this trip, and there is talk about his having promised his mother to retire with the title and not risk defeat. Leonard missed the welter-weight championship when he fought Jack Britton, and is fighting the light-weight limit, so it is possible he will not fight.

As for Leonard-White, Benny intends to be in Europe a couple of months on this trip, and there is talk about his having promised his mother to retire with the title and not risk defeat. Leonard missed the welter-weight championship when he fought Jack Britton, and is fighting the light-weight limit, so it is possible he will not fight.

As for Leonard-White, Benny intends to be in Europe a couple of months on this trip, and there is talk about his having promised his mother to retire with the title and not risk defeat. Leonard missed the welter-weight championship when he fought Jack Britton, and is fighting the light-weight limit, so it is possible he will not fight.

As for Leonard-White, Benny intends to be in Europe a couple of months on this trip, and there is talk about his having promised his mother to retire with the title and not risk defeat. Leonard missed the welter-weight championship when he fought Jack Britton, and is fighting the light-weight limit, so it is possible he will not fight.

JOSEPHS BACK IN CITY

BOXER APPEARS ALL RIGHT AFTER DAVIS BATTLE.

Minneapolis Lad Thinks He Should Have Been Awarded Bout in Third on Foul.

Jack Josephs, Minneapolis junior welterweight, returned to Portland from Seattle last night apparently none the worse from his fight with Travle Davis the night before. Josephs scored a technical knockout over him in the sixth round. The bout was awarded to Davis with Josephs on his feet and fighting in his dressing room he had a rub, a manicure and a haircut.

Speaking of the fight he said: "It's all in a lifetime. Davis told me he couldn't break an egg, was blind in one eye and didn't like the rough going. I took plenty of chances in an effort to knock him over and in doing so took plenty of punches. I knocked him down twice in the second round, and I was awarded the match on a foul in the third. He caught me on the chin after the bell rang. I went down and stayed down, taking a count. The referee walked over and awarded him the fight instead of finishing the count and despite the fact that the bell had rung more than 11 seconds previous, and I was not in bad shape in the sixth.

"Davis was out of the ring in a flash and it took 30 minutes of arguing on the part of the Seattle boxing commission to get him back. While in his dressing room he had a rub, a manicure and a haircut. I sat out in the ring getting cold. The whole roughing was accepted because he was trying to stop a much underrated boxer. There aren't any in the east any better than Davis.

Davis in Sitwehghed Josephs eight pounds. He refused to weigh in at 2 o'clock when ordered to by the commission, but finally stepped on the scale at 2:15. Josephs will rest up two days and then settle down to training for his third fight with Davis at the arena at the armory next Friday night, at a boy at his own weight. All Seattle papers agreed that the Davis-Josephs fight was the greatest staged in Seattle in many moons.

VERNON PLEA OVERRULED. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—(Special.)—The Pacific Coast Baseball league, today announced he has overruled the Vernon club's protest against a game played in San Francisco between the Seals and Salt Lake, which Vernon contended should have been staged in Oakland.

McCarthy said he had the permission of the league directors to transfer games to California if the railroad directors threatened to interfere with them being played elsewhere.

With the Anglers. Willamette river and Oswego lake, Oswego-Water clear. Week-end outlook good. Good catches of croppies, mude dailly in river. Bass in lake taking live bait. Accommodations, Mill City.

Abiqu Creek, Silvanon.—Excellent catches made last week in headwaters of Abiqu creek. Fishing with grasshoppers. Fly fishing fair. Reached by auto to 12 to 15 miles. Best fishing in Miami and Kitchie rivers, Bay City. Several nice catches made, also some 12-pound salmon caught in the Kitchie with hook and line. Spinner and ashie worms combination being used.

Santiam river, City-Water clear and low. Week-end outlook good. Fair catches made. Leave train at Niagara, Hall's Ferry. Brettonbush for best fishing. Accommodations, Mill City.

Harpers river, Summit-Water clear. Week-end outlook good. Fair catches made with flies and worms. Upper section of river. Junction City-Water clear. Week-end outlook good.

Willamette river, Jasper.—Water good. Week-end outlook fair to good. Several nice catches made. Last few days. Stream within walking distance. Upper Klamath lake, Williamson and Sprague rivers, Klamath Falls—Fishing good. Nice catches being made daily.

Deer Reported Plentiful. GRANT, Pass, Or., Aug. 24.—(Special.)—Deer hunters in the mountains of southern Oregon have met with decided success this fall and numerous bucks have been brought to the city. Among those who have reported kills are Dr. W. Walker, Dr. R. W. Stearns, County Judge Eclus Pollock, Sam Baker, Cedric Field and Harold Esham. Several of the deer are being killed within a few miles of Grants Pass. Does are reported to be much more plentiful than the bucks.

Scott, Mitchell and May Are Best Pitchers. No Other Slabmen Even Press This Star Trio for Honors in Pacific Coast League.

JIM SCOTT, Oliver Mitchell and Jackie May, the two former big leaguers with the San Francisco Seals and Jackie May with Vernon, stand in that order for coast league pitching honors. Scott made last week's record, with the race a mighty close one.

Old Jim Scott, pitching his best ball in many seasons, tops the list, with 23 victories, more than any other hurler in the circuit, and eight defeats. These three are not even passed by any other pitcher. Jimmy of Sacramento, who was way up toward the top at this time last year, is far down the list now, with 12 wins and 17 defeats. His pitching averages, including games of last Sunday, follow:

Table with columns: Pitcher and Team, W, L, Pct, Rfr. Lists names like Scott, S, Mitchell, M, May, Y, etc.

WANTY BAG GULER UNTIL HUNTING SEEMS BEST IN CURRY AND DOUGLAS.

Leo Shaver One of First Nimrods to Get Two Bucks; Animals Killed Near Molalla.

Although the deer season opened only last Sunday, several Portlanders have killed the limit—two bucks each—on the game warden's rifle.

Leo Shaver was one of the first Portlanders to get two bucks. He bagged his game at the Tabor ranch near Molalla. The combined weight of the bucks was 250 pounds. Shaver was accompanied by Walter O. Walberg and Bruce Bray, who were with him when he shot the first buck.

Although the deer season opened only last Sunday, several Portlanders have killed the limit—two bucks each—on the game warden's rifle. Leo Shaver was one of the first Portlanders to get two bucks. He bagged his game at the Tabor ranch near Molalla. The combined weight of the bucks was 250 pounds. Shaver was accompanied by Walter O. Walberg and Bruce Bray, who were with him when he shot the first buck.

The proposed Dempsey-Willard match depends entirely on what condition Willard can show. It will have to be better than he was when half a dozen punches sent him floundering around the ring. He is a hard-headed, hard-boiled public is weary of paying big prices to see jock fights, and isn't so ready to see Dempsey and Willard fight for charity as they were when they were training a couple of months ago. Willard has been training a couple of months and has taken on the ring, but as yet, shows little speed.

Willard ought to fight Brennan. He'd be a good card with Willard. He'd be a good card with Willard. He'd be a good card with Willard. He'd be a good card with Willard.

A little group of Yale millionaire sportsmen headed by Payne Whitney endeavored to put Yale on the rowing map by importing English rowing material. Nickalls was the first brought over and he was an expensive failure. After several other foreign rowing material was imported, Yale rowing and went to the Pacific coast for a new coach in Ed Lederer of Washington.

This was a startling innovation, for the far west has been ridiculed for eastern rowing authorities for having a lack of all rowing knowledge and technique—western rowing success being attributed solely to the physical power of the rowers.

Pacific coast crews have made a fine showing on the Hudson and, if it holds, make it at Yale. It will be more than another western victory. It will be a sign that American originality is better than anything we can get from Europe. (Copyright, 1922, by Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—George Sleser, the St. Louis batting star, cracked out four hits in five times at bat today, which brought his average from .416 to .417. He is now leading the hitters in the American league.

Cobb, the Detroit pilot, knocked out a double and a triple in four times at bat, and was able to gain on the league leader, The Georgia pinch is trailing in second place, with an average of .400.

DEAUVILLE, France, Aug. 24.—A. K. Macomber, the American horseman, today paid the record price reached by any of the 1922 colts, $100,000, for a yearling colt named Persimmon. The purchase price of 175 per cent on the purchase price of Sardanapale, the winner of the 1914 grand prix. In round numbers 200,000 francs were paid by Mr. Macomber. King, Australian expert, 3 and 2, in an 18-hole match at the Charles River Country club today.

SAINTA CLARA, Cal. Aug. 24.—Practice for the 1923 football season opened at the University of Santa Clara here today. It is believed Santa Clara is the first school in the west to start the basketball program officially. The mission eleven plays the University of Southern California team Sept. 15. The University of California team Sept. 15.

NEWTON, Mass., Aug. 24.—Gene Sazen, national open golf champion, and Francis Oumet, ex-national amateur and open champion, defeated Walter Hagen, British open champion, and Joe Kirkwood, Australian expert, 3 and 2, in an 18-hole match at the Charles River Country club today.

PORT WORTH, Tex., Aug. 24.—Lynch, outstanding high jumper, knocked out Ben Levy of Chicago in the fourth round here tonight in a scheduled 12-round bout.

Swimming Splashes. Swimming, or rather trying to swim, the English channel is not being attempted for the sake of the exercise. Some way to be made of it. Bobb and Burgess having accomplished the feat, the prize of $5000 offered by the London "Sketch" is the real incentive.

Johnny Weismuller and Miss Sybil Bauer took another tumble out of the world's records today at the Metropolitan Athletic Club, when they swam 1500 yards in a pool of the length, Miss Bauer brought down time for 20 years, 23 minutes and 39.3 seconds. While Johnny has to his credit a performance of 1 minute 37.3 seconds for the distance, it was only with five turns, while the recent swim afforded only two. The latter actually may be considered the greater feat.

Louis Babcock, of the New York Athletic Club, former national diving champion and member of the Metropolitan Athletic Club, won the Metropolitan Amateur Athletic union 10-foot springboard title by a splash at Travers Island, New York, the other day. Weismuller hung up a new record in a pool of the length, Miss Bauer brought down time for 20 years, 23 minutes and 39.3 seconds. While Johnny has to his credit a performance of 1 minute 37.3 seconds for the distance, it was only with five turns, while the recent swim afforded only two. The latter actually may be considered the greater feat.

Miss Lois Barry, of the athletic club of Milwaukee, Wis., won the annual swimming record for women at the Metropolitan Athletic Club, when she swam the distance in 11 minutes and 52.4 seconds. The record was held by Miss Helen Vernon, both of the Los Angeles Athletic club, who finished second and third, respectively.

Vincent Galaburda, captain of the Annapolis swimming team last year, has taken residence in San Francisco and will be in the city for the Olympic trials in the future. While at the Naval academy he was credited with sprinting 100 yards in 23.5 seconds.

The Dallas Dentists Robbed. THE DALLAS, Or., Aug. 24.—(Special.)—Three dental offices were broken into here last night by burglars. The dentists' tools, including gold and narcotics, Dr. A. S. Essoff, Dr. Walter Hart and Dr. R. C. Olin, were the victims. About $500 worth of dental gold and two tubes of drugs comprised the loot.

Moving Picture News

TODAY'S FILM FEATURES. Columbia—House Peters in "Human Hearts." Majestic—Ganda Hawley in "The Black Panther of Paris." Liberty—Charlie Chaplin, "Ashamed of Parents." Also "Happened to Me." Third week. Hippodrome—Tom Moore in "From the Ground Up." Circle—Mary Miles Minter, "South of Suva."

As a diplomatic agent, the motion picture industry is America's greatest ambassador. In the opinion of Thomas H. Ince, the producer, cordial relations between the great nations of the world in the future will be decidedly influenced by the trend of the "movies," states Ince, who adds that Charlie Chaplin, Will Rogers, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford have done more towards establishing firm and friendly relations between America and Europe than political conferences.

Our greatest unaccrued ambassadors to foreign countries are picture stars who are winning millions of dollars for their work. Will Rogers alone is worth a league of nations, and I account as one of the proudest triumphs of the screen the fact that Charlie Chaplin was worshipped by all the weary soldiers in the trenches, Hindus, Mohammedans and all the nations of the world. He has won more long years in the great war were united in the brotherhood of his universal humor.

The motion picture industry is America's greatest ambassador. In the opinion of Thomas H. Ince, the producer, cordial relations between the great nations of the world in the future will be decidedly influenced by the trend of the "movies," states Ince, who adds that Charlie Chaplin, Will Rogers, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford have done more towards establishing firm and friendly relations between America and Europe than political conferences.

Our greatest unaccrued ambassadors to foreign countries are picture stars who are winning millions of dollars for their work. Will Rogers alone is worth a league of nations, and I account as one of the proudest triumphs of the screen the fact that Charlie Chaplin was worshipped by all the weary soldiers in the trenches, Hindus, Mohammedans and all the nations of the world. He has won more long years in the great war were united in the brotherhood of his universal humor.

The motion picture industry is America's greatest ambassador. In the opinion of Thomas H. Ince, the producer, cordial relations between the great nations of the world in the future will be decidedly influenced by the trend of the "movies," states Ince, who adds that Charlie Chaplin, Will Rogers, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford have done more towards establishing firm and friendly relations between America and Europe than political conferences.

Our greatest unaccrued ambassadors to foreign countries are picture stars who are winning millions of dollars for their work. Will Rogers alone is worth a league of nations, and I account as one of the proudest triumphs of the screen the fact that Charlie Chaplin was worshipped by all the weary soldiers in the trenches, Hindus, Mohammedans and all the nations of the world. He has won more long years in the great war were united in the brotherhood of his universal humor.

The motion picture industry is America's greatest ambassador. In the opinion of Thomas H. Ince, the producer, cordial relations between the great nations of the world in the future will be decidedly influenced by the trend of the "movies," states Ince, who adds that Charlie Chaplin, Will Rogers, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford have done more towards establishing firm and friendly relations between America and Europe than political conferences.

Our greatest unaccrued ambassadors to foreign countries are picture stars who are winning millions of dollars for their work. Will Rogers alone is worth a league of nations, and I account as one of the proudest triumphs of the screen the fact that Charlie Chaplin was worshipped by all the weary soldiers in the trenches, Hindus, Mohammedans and all the nations of the world. He has won more long years in the great war were united in the brotherhood of his universal humor.

The motion picture industry is America's greatest ambassador. In the opinion of Thomas H. Ince, the producer, cordial relations between the great nations of the world in the future will be decidedly influenced by the trend of the "movies," states Ince, who adds that Charlie Chaplin, Will Rogers, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford have done more towards establishing firm and friendly relations between America and Europe than political conferences.

Our greatest unaccrued ambassadors to foreign countries are picture stars who are winning millions of dollars for their work. Will Rogers alone is worth a league of nations, and I account as one of the proudest triumphs of the screen the fact that Charlie Chaplin was worshipped by all the weary soldiers in the trenches, Hindus, Mohammedans and all the nations of the world. He has won more long years in the great war were united in the brotherhood of his universal humor.

The motion picture industry is America's greatest ambassador. In the opinion of Thomas H. Ince, the producer, cordial relations between the great nations of the world in the future will be decidedly influenced by the trend of the "movies," states Ince, who adds that Charlie Chaplin, Will Rogers, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford have done more towards establishing firm and friendly relations between America and Europe than political conferences.

Our greatest unaccrued ambassadors to foreign countries are picture stars who are winning millions of dollars for their work. Will Rogers alone is worth a league of nations, and I account as one of the proudest triumphs of the screen the fact that Charlie Chaplin was worshipped by all the weary soldiers in the trenches, Hindus, Mohammedans and all the nations of the world. He has won more long years in the great war were united in the brotherhood of his universal humor.

The motion picture industry is America's greatest ambassador. In the opinion of Thomas H. Ince, the producer, cordial relations between the great nations of the world in the future will be decidedly influenced by the trend of the "movies," states Ince, who adds that Charlie Chaplin, Will Rogers, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford have done more towards establishing firm and friendly relations between America and Europe than political conferences.

Our greatest unaccrued ambassadors to foreign countries are picture stars who are winning millions of dollars for their work. Will Rogers alone is worth a league of nations, and I account as one of the proudest triumphs of the screen the fact that Charlie Chaplin was worshipped by all the weary soldiers in the trenches, Hindus, Mohammedans and all the nations of the world. He has won more long years in the great war were united in the brotherhood of his universal humor.

The motion picture industry is America's greatest ambassador. In the opinion of Thomas H. Ince, the producer, cordial relations between the great nations of the world in the future will be decidedly influenced by the trend of the "movies," states Ince, who adds that Charlie Chaplin, Will Rogers, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford have done more towards establishing firm and friendly relations between America and Europe than political conferences.

Our greatest unaccrued ambassadors to foreign countries are picture stars who are winning millions of dollars for their work. Will Rogers alone is worth a league of nations, and I account as one of the proudest triumphs of the screen the fact that Charlie Chaplin was worshipped by all the weary soldiers in the trenches, Hindus, Mohammedans and all the nations of the world. He has won more long years in the great war were united in the brotherhood of his universal humor.

The motion picture industry is America's greatest ambassador. In the opinion of Thomas H. Ince, the producer, cordial relations between the great nations of the world in the future will be decidedly influenced by the trend of the "movies," states Ince, who adds that Charlie Chaplin, Will Rogers, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford have done more towards establishing firm and friendly relations between America and Europe than political conferences.

Our greatest unaccrued ambassadors to foreign countries are picture stars who are winning millions of dollars for their work. Will Rogers alone is worth a league of nations, and I account as one of the proudest triumphs of the screen the fact that Charlie Chaplin was worshipped by all the weary soldiers in the trenches, Hindus, Mohammedans and all the nations of the world. He has won more long years in the great war were united in the brotherhood of his universal humor.

The motion picture industry is America's greatest ambassador. In the opinion of Thomas H. Ince, the producer, cordial relations between the great nations of the world in the future will be decidedly influenced by the trend of the "movies," states Ince, who adds that Charlie Chaplin, Will Rogers, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford have done more towards establishing firm and friendly relations between America and Europe than political conferences.

Our greatest unaccrued ambassadors to foreign countries are picture stars who are winning millions of dollars for their work. Will Rogers alone is worth a league of nations, and I account as one of the proudest triumphs of the screen the fact that Charlie Chaplin was worshipped by all the weary soldiers in the trenches, Hindus, Mohammedans and all the nations of the world. He has won more long years in the great war were united in the brotherhood of his universal humor.

The motion picture industry is America's greatest ambassador. In the opinion of Thomas H. Ince, the producer, cordial relations between the great nations of the world in the future will be decidedly influenced by the trend of the "movies," states Ince, who adds that Charlie Chaplin, Will Rogers, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford have done more towards establishing firm and friendly relations between America and Europe than political conferences.

Our greatest unaccrued ambassadors to foreign countries are picture stars who are winning millions of dollars for their work. Will Rogers alone is worth a league of nations, and I account as one of the proudest triumphs of the screen the fact that Charlie Chaplin was worshipped by all the weary soldiers in the trenches, Hindus, Mohammedans and all the nations of the world. He has won more long years in the great war were united in the brotherhood of his universal humor.

The motion picture industry is America's greatest ambassador. In the opinion of Thomas H. Ince, the producer, cordial relations between the great nations of the world in the future will be decidedly influenced by the trend of the "movies," states Ince, who adds that Charlie Chaplin, Will Rogers, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford have done more towards establishing firm and friendly relations between America and Europe than political conferences.

Our greatest unaccrued ambassadors to foreign countries are picture stars who are winning millions of dollars for their work. Will Rogers alone is worth a league of nations, and I account as one of the proudest triumphs of the screen the fact that Charlie Chaplin was worshipped by all the weary soldiers in the trenches, Hindus, Mohammedans and all the nations of the world. He has won more long years in the great war were united in the brotherhood of his universal humor.

The motion picture industry is America's greatest ambassador. In the opinion of Thomas H. Ince, the producer, cordial relations between the great nations of the world in the future will be decidedly influenced by the trend of the "movies," states Ince, who adds that Charlie Chaplin, Will Rogers, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford have done more towards establishing firm and friendly relations between America and Europe than political conferences.

Our greatest unaccrued ambassadors to foreign countries are picture stars who are winning millions of dollars for their work. Will Rogers alone is worth a league of nations, and I account as one of the proudest triumphs of the screen the fact that Charlie Chaplin was worshipped by all the weary soldiers in the trenches, Hindus, Mohammedans and all the nations of the world. He has won more long years in the great war were united in the brotherhood of his universal humor.

The motion picture industry is America's greatest ambassador. In the opinion of Thomas H. Ince, the producer, cordial relations between the great nations of the world in the future will be decidedly influenced by the trend of the "movies," states Ince, who adds that Charlie Chaplin, Will Rogers, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford have done more towards establishing firm and friendly relations between America and Europe than political conferences.

Our greatest unaccrued ambassadors to foreign countries are picture stars who are winning millions of dollars for their work. Will Rogers alone is worth a league of nations, and I account as one of the proudest triumphs of the screen the fact that Charlie Chaplin was worshipped by all the weary soldiers in the trenches, Hindus, Mohammedans and all the nations of the world. He has won more long years in the great war were united in the brotherhood of his universal humor.

The motion picture industry is America's greatest ambassador. In the opinion of Thomas H. Ince, the producer, cordial relations between the great nations of the world in the future will be decidedly influenced by the trend of the "movies," states Ince, who adds that Charlie Chaplin, Will Rogers, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford have done more towards establishing firm and friendly relations between America and Europe than political conferences.

Our greatest unaccrued ambassadors to foreign countries are picture stars who are winning millions of dollars for their work. Will Rogers alone is worth a league of nations, and I account as one of the proudest triumphs of the screen the fact that Charlie Chaplin was worshipped by all the weary soldiers in the trenches, Hindus, Mohammedans and all the nations of the world. He has won more long years in the great war were united in the brotherhood of his universal humor.

$80,000 THIEF IS TAKEN

SALEM, N. J., ABSCONDER IS HELD AT LOS ANGELES.

Ex-City Treasurer Confesses His Guilt, According to Sheriff's Announcement.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 24.—The sheriff's office here announced today that it had in custody a man who admitted his identity as A. D. Mitchell, absconding treasurer of Salem, N. J. The prisoner in a statement to the sheriff, in a police officer and three newspaper men, admitted not only his identity, but all the details of a theft of $80,000 in securities charged against him, and said he would waive extradition. Mitchell told the officers that he was treasurer of Salem from 1912 to 1914, exclusive. He said that in 1913 the city voted a bond issue of $80,000 and entrusted the securities to him to sell. Later a duplicate series was authorized for exchange for the first issue. He said he had legally exchanged a few of the bonds when his term of office expired and that he kept the balance of the exchange issue for his own use.

He then entered business at Philadelphia, but failed to prosper and pledged the bonds with various banks as collateral. Long time he says, he left his family in Merchantville, near Philadelphia, and came to Los Angeles. Mitchell told the officers he was tired of being a fugitive and that he was actually relieved when a deputy sheriff came to his room and took him into custody.

William Russell has started work on "Mixed Faces," from the novel by Roy Norton. Dave Keefe is directing and Rene Adoree is his leading woman. Harvey Clarke and Elizabeth Garrison will play character roles.

Shirley Mason, always at home in the water, has turned actress in a recent water carnival at Los Angeles. The Fox star won the 100-yard swim and the fancy diving contest.

morning, which broke up in a quarrel, one of the feminine participants attempted to burn the house by setting fire to the curtains. Alarm calls from frightened neighbors brought officers, who arrested Irene and Edith Lamb, aged 18 and 22, of Salem. The other members of the social affair left in haste when the fire started.

Mining Company Projected. EUGENE, Or