Bringing Back the Drive-in -- Thursday kicks off two weekends of drive-in movies at the Portland Expo Center, an all-ages event that allows families and friends to enjoy watching clear digital projection from the comfort of their own car or outside in lawn chairs. The series kicks off Aug. 13 with "The Day the Earth Stood Still," followed by "Ghostbusters" on Friday, Aug. 14; "American Graffiti" on Saturday, Aug. 15; "Young Frankenstein" on Thursday, Aug. 20; "Poltergeist" on Friday, Aug. 21; and "Star Trek II - Wrath of Khan" on Saturday, Aug. 22.

Vancouver's Wine & Jazz Festival -- Hot jazz, fabulous wines, and fine art comes to Esther Short Park for the 18th annual Vancouver Wine & Jazz Festival, Friday, Aug. 21 through Sunday, Aug. 23. This year's event has one of the best concert lineups from the past 10 years, everything from Jazz, Latin, Brazilian, Mambo to Pop! For tickets and more information, visit vancouverwinejazz.com.

Safe and Free at Matt Dishman -- The Matt Dishman Community Center, 77 N.E. Knott St., has opened its doors to teenagers this summer as part of a plan to provide safe and free activities for youth, age 18 and younger through Portland Parks and Recreation. Registration is required.

Summer Reading for Kids -- Kids of all ages can sign up at any neighborhood library of the Multnomah County Library system for a free summer reading program that entices kids to read for pleasure and maintain the skills they learned during the school year, while also encouraging lifelong library use.

Science of Ripley's Believe It Or Not -- What's more amazing that Robert Ripley's legendary compendium of oddities, anomalies and fantastic feats? The science that underlies them! OMSI presents "The Science of Ripley's Believe It or Not!" a 6,000 square foot interactive exhibit that explores the real science behind the unbelievable. The collection of intriguing objects and astonishing artifacts is open through Sept. 7.

Summer Kids in the Park -- Another schedule of fun and healthy activities for kids during the summer months is now underway in three of Gresham's largest parks. Free and open to all kids under 18, events are scheduled for two hours every weekday at Main City, Vance and Red Sunset parks. A free lunch will be served, and kids can just drop in. No advance registration is required.

A.J. Java Hosts Concerts -- A.J. Java, a community cafe across the street from Peninsula Park at 6425 N. Albina Ave., welcomes the public to a series of free summer concerts each Friday from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m., and featuring Cuban sandwiches and a potpourri of Latin sounds.
