A Brief Description of Two Vehicles Furnished by Studebaker

Bros.' Company.

Studebaker Bros.' Company's new building, on East Morrison street, is nearing completion, and when finished it will be one of the largest buildings of its kind west of the Missouri River. One hundred thousand square feet of floor space will allow ample room to store and show the varied assortment of vehicles manufac-turned by this enterprising firm.

This firm, having captured the West by sheer merit, has now invaded the Eastern market, and is competing successfully with the best-known manufacturers of vehicles in the world. Durability and high art are combined successfully in all of the Studeback module.

Sovernor Geer Accepts His Withdrawal and Orders the Vacancy to Be Filled in June.

RESIGNED

SALEM, Or., May 10 .- State Senator R. D. Inman, of Multnomah County, in a etter to Governor Geer, received today, jus tendered his resignation as State Seditor. The letter is not the equivalent of in official resignation, but, in discussing he matter, Governor Geer said he would mompt the intention, clearly expressed in he letter, for the act,

Mr. Inman has been considering the mater of tendering his resignation ever since is received the nomination for Mayor by he fusionists of Portland. In explanation of his action, Mr. Inman sets forth that its relinquishment of the Senatorship at his time will spare the taxpayers of Multionnah County the expense of a special dection to name his successor, that would se a "possible necessity" should be defer its resignation until after the June cloc-

Mr. Inman's letter to Governor Geer onsists of but one lengthy sentence, as

"Having been nominated by the citizens of Portland to the office of Mayor, and seing a hold-over Senator from Mulinonah County, it seems to me that the best nerved by my retaining the Senatorship rutil after the campaign is closed, know-ng, as I do, that, should I be elected Mayor of this city, it would entail a cost if several thousand dollars to the tax-payers of this city to hold a special elec-tion to elect my successor, and, belleving that any probability of working a hardship upon the taxpayers should at all imes be avoided, I therefore believe that t is only right to the people that I should resign this office at this time, and give he people an opportunity to elect my mecessor at the general election, thereby avoiding the possible necessity of holding special election at additional cost to the axpayers of this city."

Governor Geer has accepted Mr. Inman's vesignation, and will within a few days of-icially notify the people of Multnomah County of the vacancy that is created in the legislative representation of that younty by the withdrawal of Senator Innan. There remains time for the naming by the different political parties of canfidates to fill the vacancy, and the placing of the names on the official ballot for the ideration of voters at the June elec ion. The time for placing names on bal-ot by this proceeding expires 15 days preeding date of election, or on Saturday,

INMAN FILES ACCEPTANCE.

Writes Letter to Fusionists on His Nomination for Mayor.

The following is a copy of Mr. Inman's ietter to the fusionists, in which he ac-septed the nomination for Mayor. The letter was written on May 8, but was not received at the Demo-Simon headquarters until vesterday:

"Portland, Or., May 8, 1902 .- Chairman and Members of the Citizens' Campaign Committee .-- Gentlemen: It is well known to the public that I have not willingly ac-quiesced to the use of my name for this office. The demands of my private busi-ness, and the hope that some other citi-sen would be found to unite better than I can the forces opposed to the city gov-srnment believed to be detrimental to the best interests of the city, have caused me heretofore to oppose your wishes, but I samet be insensible to the honors the people have conferred upon me, nor to the duties imposed upon any citizen to yield his private, business to the public ered. good

I appreciate the great responsibility of the position of Mayor, and which, during the next three years, will require a great deal of time and attention upon whomso-ever is called by the people to fill this exaited station.

"Under the proposed new charter who-ever is elected will have to accept the responsibilities of the place, and will have stand or fall by the re-to have trapeze and bar work performed, and there will also be tumbling by Ball-ley and Viggers, of the Y. M. C. A. By special request, Mesars, Cooley and Fitz-simmons, formerly of the Hy Henry min-streis, have been engaged for the occa-sion. A fine musical programme has been arranged, and among those who will make addresses will be fudge George H make addresses will be Judge George H. Williams.

How Eastra Oregon Will Go. W. P. Kendy, the well-known miner and politician of Crook County, is spending a few days in the city. Since the State Con-vention Mr. Kendy has been in the Mal-heur County off fields, and has not been playing the fascinating political game to any great extent. He says, however, that the Republican ticket is a winner, and will carry nearly every county in Eastern Oregon. Harney County is con-sidered by Mr. Keady as in the doubtful int, but the appearance of Hon. J. N. Williamson and other Republican speak-ers in that section will revive the enthusi-arm and swing the county into the Repubasm and swing the county into the Reput lican column. Southern Oregon is all right. To tell you the truth, I was surprised to see the in-terest the people are taking and the crowds that came out to our meetings. The audiences were larger and more en-thusiastic than I have ever seen before in that part of the State, with the possible exception of the first McKinley campaign. At several of the valley towns we were told that the crowds were the largest ever gathered at a political meeting, not ex-

This was while the meetings were in progress, but also by the way the people crowded around after adjournment to shake hands and talk with him. Sometimes it would be an hour before he could get out of the crowd to go to the hotel and get some rest. Mr. Furnish has made a favorable impression upon the people by his frank, open, dignified manner. COL. HODGES IS HERE.

With His Wife, He Makes a Visit to Portiand.

Colonel Henry Clay Hodges, a survivor of the War of the Rebellion, and a son-in-law of Provisional Governor George Abernethy, of Oregon, is spending a few days in Portland. He is accompanied by his wife, formerly Miss Annie Abernethy, to whom he was married at Oregon City, June 8, 1859. Colonel and Mrs. Hodges are guests of the Misses Falling, and during their short stay in the city have renewed old-time friendships with many pioneer friends. Colonel Hodges was graduated from West Point in 1851, and a year later was ordered to Fort Vancouver, where he served as a Lieutenant in Captain George B. McCiellan's company. In 1852 he was placed in charge of a party that made the original Northern Pacific Railroad survey as far east as Colville, returning to Vancouver in the Fall." In 1855 he served in the Yakima campaign, and took an active part in-a number of the flercest battles. After these hostillties were concluded he was stationed at The Dalles for a number of years, and when the Civil War broke out in 1861 was ordered to the front with the Army of the Cumberland. He saw active service all through the war, and was in the thickest of the fight at Chickainauga. Colonel Hodges served in the regular Army until 1895, when he retired. He now lives at Buffalo, N. Y. Lieutenant Hodges, in company with Captain George B. McCiellan, was made a Mason in Willamette Lodge in 1853. Despite his age, the Colonel is an active vigorous man, and manifests a keen interest in public affairs. He was closely associated with numerous Oregon plo-neers, and is deeply attached to the great Northwest.

AN APRIL BRACER.

Grape-Nuts Food Gives Spring in the Spring.

Teachers require nourishing food more than the average person, for their work is nerve destroying, and unless the food taken will surely rebuild they lost gray matter nervous prostration will set in. A lady teacher writes: "For the benefit of my fellow teachers and all brain workers who expend daily an amount of nerve energy I want to tell just what I know personally about Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food.

"When I as teaching in a boardingshow storm set in here today. Only once school at P---- in '98 one of the day before, since the local weather bureau teachers ate Grape-Nuts regularly for breakfast and supper, and appeared so well and strong in all her work.

"Miss R- used to beg me to join her and give the food a trial, but for some reason I never would try it until the Spring of the present year. Then one day in April when I was very much in need of something bracing and was on the point of buying the usual tonic, she pre-valled upon, me to begin using Grape-Nuts. So we ate Grape-Nuts together from then until June. "Previous to that, every Spring I had been compelled to take bottle after bottle of tonics, and then go home much run down, but this year June found me well and strong after a most trying month of work, with never a thought about tonics
