

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

The Oregonian's Telephone.
COLUMBIA.
AMUSEMENTS.

BAKER THEATER—Harry Corson Clarke in "The Friend."
COLDRA'S THEATER—The Great Barlow.

THINKS IT WAS CHIRAP—A deed for the old Dekum which covers two lots at the northwest corner of First and Washington streets, was filed for record yesterday.

PHOTOGRAPHING IN THE TREE TOPS.—Illustrating how the best bird-photographs are secured, and giving the pictorial history of the Redtail hawk, is the title of a fascinating little article written in this month's "Country Life in America."

AFTER GRIP LOST FOUR YEARS AGO.—George Wilshusen, of Weggeland, Minn., after four years absence from Portland, writes from his home in quest of a value left in this city in 1899.

REMOVAL SALE—Graves & Co.'s Music Store, 124 Sixth street, will remove to 328 Washington street, near 12th street, shortly and until we move will sell all surplus stock and odds and ends at a reduction of from 25 to 50 per cent.

GROWING RAPIDLY.—The Order of Washington, Oregon's foremost fraternal insurance society, is growing rapidly in numbers. The plans of this society have been examined by some of the most experienced representatives of insurance in the United States and all pronounce the same to be as near perfect as can be made.

JUDGE STEARNS WILL BUILD.—Judge J. H. Stearns will begin the erection of a three-story building on the northeast corner of Sixth and Morrison streets next month.

THE ARIZONA INDEMNITY COMPANY has appointed Paul C. Bates & Co. its general agents for Oregon and Idaho for the execution of surveys, filing and court bonds and the writing of plate-glass insurance.

THE OREGONIAN INSTITUTE is now equipped to treat patients as usual. Office hours from 9 to 5, Sundays from 9 to 12.

THE O. W. P. & S. Co. will run every 20 minutes today from Oregon City, Willamette Falls and Cannonville, Ore. to leave for Greenham at 7:30 and 9:30 A. M., 12:30, 2:30 and 4:10 P. M.

OFFICE ROOMS FOR RENT.—Suite of two or four desirable rooms on 2nd floor in Oregonian building. Inquire of Supt.

DR. E. DE WITT COMB has returned. Temporary office, 252 King street. Phone South 256.

PHONES AND FURNITURE refurnished by Westland & Ludford, 243 Ash street. Phone, North 321.

To ADVERTISE PORTLAND.—Portland is to have its photograph taken and illustrated through the press. The Oregon Camera Club has conceived the novel idea of having each of its members take a dozen pictures of interesting portions of the city, on some days to be appointed in the near future.

ADDRESS UNIVERSITY CLUB.—The regular monthly dinner of the University Club was held in the club rooms in the Falling building last evening, about 40 members being present.

BASEBALL TODAY! Jack Grim's Team vs. All-Star Picked Nine, at National Park, East 25th and Hawthorne avenue.

COMMITTED TO INSANE ASYLUM.—Charles Schramm, an old resident of Portland, now 80 years of age, was committed to the insane asylum yesterday.

BATTERY A TO HOLD BANQUET.—Light Battery A, Oregon National Guard, will celebrate the 20th anniversary of its organization on Saturday evening, May 23.

DEATH OF DR. A. E. GIBBS.—The many friends of Dr. A. E. Gibbs, brother of the late Arthur S. Gibbs, of this city, will regret to hear of his death, which occurred at Chicago a few days ago.

CHARGE AGAINST HASLER DROPPED.—The charge against D. H. Hasler of recidivism and selling liquor without a license has been dismissed after an investigation by the Custom officials.

COMMENCING TODAY the steamer Sarah Dixon will leave for Oak Point on Sunday evenings at 8 o'clock; for Clatskanie Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 6 o'clock.

Famous Clothing Co. MORRISON AND SECOND STS.

To Be in Style Means to wear the very latest, and for the latest come to us. Our windows contain all the latest novelties and none escape us, as we are constantly on the lookout for new goods. We have just received a complete line of new Seal Rings in Rose and Roman Gold, for $3.50 and up; also the late effects in Seal Bracelets and Cuff Buttons. Genuine Coral Chains from $1.50 up, also the new Long Chains in Coral, Pearl, Turquoise, Black Bead, Jet and Crystal are just the thing for those large lockets. Gents' Fobs, in solid gold, gold filled and sterling, also the late effects in Gents' Double Chains. Solid Silverware and Cut Glass. We carry patterns in this line that cannot be found elsewhere in the city, and our prices may be a surprise to what you have been paying. DON'T FORGET those tired eyes and remember we charge nothing for testing and do not have to experiment, as we understand our business. JAEGER BROS. Jewelers and Opticians, 290 Morrison St., near 5th.

BE CAREFUL not to spoil your films or negatives by improper developing when you can have it done correctly by careful workmen at reasonable prices. D. M. AVERILL & CO. The Curio Store, 331 Morrison St.

VISIT STATE UNIVERSITY Regents and Legislative Committee Make Inspection Trip. C. A. Dolph and Judge R. C. Bean, regents of the University of Oregon, with Senator George T.
