THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY

FINAL DISTRIBUTION OF THE Mammoth Bankrupt Purchase

It Will Be the Crowning Event of the Big Store

When our doors open tomorrow morning you will find I. Gevurtz & Sons' big store a vast eldorado of furniture treasures. We especially invite the buying public to come fully expecting

The Greatest Number of Attractive Offerings Ever Seen Under One Roof in Portland

Because of the tremendous scope and astonishing variety of the offerings, it is impossible at this time to enumerate any of them. To do so would be slighting others of equal merit and prominence. Such worthy, desirable high-grade goods at such ridiculously low prices will not be offered again, simply because we cannot always buy goods for half. Here's a list—put a check mark on your wants and come at once while the profit is all yours. Bedroom Suits, Dining Tables and Chairs, Settees, Couches, Rockers, Sideboards, Bookcases, Chiffoniers, Stands, Carpets, Rugs, Linoleum, Matting, Portieres, Lace Curtains, Shades, Sewing Machines, Dishes, Granite-ware, Tinware, Lamps, etc., and also the great stove sale just at a needed time.

$3.50, $4.50, $5.50 for Finest Russia Iron Airtight Heaters

The very same ones you'll be glad to get next month at $5, $6 and $8. All the better ones, too, at same great saving. But here we are going into details. We never can do justice to all the fine things and the saving, so we'll let the values speak for themselves, and this is positively the last week of cut prices.

I. GEVURTZ & SONS HOMEFURNISHERS

173-175 First St. 219-227 Yamhill

present at the ceremony, which was performed by Dr. Edgar P. Hill, D. D.

Miss Cutts is a niece of Colonel R. C. Judson of the O. R. & N. Company. The groom is a veteran of the Spanish-American War. Entering the Army as a private in the Thirtieth Minnesota Volunteers, he rose to the rank of First Lieutenant in the regular service, afterward resigning and engaging in business in the Philippines until his return to the United States. He is the son of the late Colonel J. Madison Cutts, of Washington, D. C., a distinguished soldier and lawyer, and is a nephew of Stephen A. Douglas, who was the Democratic candidate for the Presidency in 1860.

Mr. and Mrs. Cutts will reside in Portland.

Miss Rosa Timmis, daughter of Mrs. Willis of Willburg, was married last week to Mr. C. R. Mills. The wedding was a pretty home affair, at which Rev. D. B. Gray, of Portland, officiated. Only the relatives and most intimate friends were present.

Miss Gertrude Rockwell, of Portland, played the wedding march from Lohengrin as the bride party entered the parlor. The bride was beautiful in an exquisite gown of white organdie and carried a bouquet of bride roses. The maid of honor, Miss Mamie Hyde, wore a dainty gown of blue organdie and carried carnations. The groom was attended by Mr. Frank Mills, of Cedar Mills. The rooms were handsomely decorated with potted palms, sweet peas, ferns and asters. The ceremony was performed under an arch of trailing smilax and white asters. Mr. and Mrs. Mills will be at home after October 1 in Sellwood.

Stipe-Sawtelle. The marriage of Miss Myrtle S. Sawtelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Sawtelle, to Mr. Harry E. Stipe, was solemnized on Wednesday evening, September 16, at the Mt. Tabor M. E. church. Rev. S. E. Meminger officiating. The bride, attired in a becoming gown of white organdie and carrying a bouquet of bride roses, was given away by her father, Mr. C. B. Sawtelle. Miss Daisy Sawtelle, the bride's sister, was a dainty bridesmaid. Mr. Hiram Stipe, cousin of the groom, acted as best man. After the ceremony the bride party was driven to the home of the bride's parents on West avenue, where an informal reception was held. The church and home were both beautifully decorated. Mr. and Mrs. Stipe will reside on Francis avenue, Mt. Tabor, and will be at home to their friends after October 1.

Lanning-Kiernan. A pretty home wedding, attended only by the relatives of the bride and groom, occurred on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kiernan on Columbia street, when their only daughter, Miss Mayme Kiernan, was married to Mr. Lanning of Los Angeles. Rev. D. McClelland performed the marriage ceremony, preceding which Mrs. W. E. Kiernan played the wedding march from "Lohengrin." Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Florence Taylor and Miss Elvira Lanning.

Mr. and Mrs. Lanning will be at home after the 1st of October at 211 Hooker street.

Cole-Kinsman. At the residence of Mr. L. D. Cole, No. 466 Main street, Wednesday evening, Miss Bertha Kinsman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kinsman, of Lumbton, was married to Mr. J. Sam Cole, of this city. The home was handsomely decorated with flowers, ferns, evergreen and ivy. Rev. E. D. Chambers performed the ceremony. Miss Julia F. Cole was bridesmaid and Mr. Floren Talbeau was best man. A few intimate friends and relatives were present at the wedding. The young couple left the same evening for San Francisco.

Bradt-Hagan. A happy company of young people were present at the wedding of Joseph A. Bradt and Elsie F. Hagan last Wednesday evening, at 97 Thurman street. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Moran, while the bridegroom and bride, preceded by E. S. McKoon, groomsmen, and Miss A. F. Walker, bridesmaid, entered and took their positions under a tastefully decorated arch, where the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. B. Gray. The couple received the hearty congratulations of many friends.

Johnson-Craig. Deamond Johnson and Bertha Craig were married September 15, Rev. William E. Randall, of Central Church officiating. The ceremony took place at the family home, 32 East Division street, in the presence of a company of relatives and intimate friends. Their new home will be established in Portland.

Cully-Shaner. James Cully and Gertrude Shaner were united in marriage, September 14, Rev. William E. Randall, of the Central Church, officiating at the parsonage. Following a brief wedding trip, the young people will be at home to their friends in this city.

Maison-Pugh. Commodore W. Maison, of this city, and Miss S. Lura Pugh, of Seaside, were married on the evening of September 16, at the parsonage of Sunnyside M. E. Church, 1035 East Morrison street, by Rev. W. H. Sellick.

Engagement. Mrs. E. J. Dougherty announces the engagement of her daughter, Lucy Rosalind, to Mr. Henry Villard Kiel. The marriage will take place in October.

Coming Events. Mrs. W. A. Meers will entertain the members of Multnomah Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, on next Wednesday at 3 o'clock at her home on Twenty-second street, in honor of Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, State Regent, who will leave early in October for the East.

The members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club will continue their study of Greek and Roman history during the Winter and are planning to hold their first meeting early in October.

The members of the Progressive Club will hold their first meeting after the Summer vacation on Monday, September 22.
