ANNIVERSARY OF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY. The third anniversary of the founding of Columbia University, formerly known as Portland University, will be celebrated next Tuesday afternoon. This day is obportand chiversity, will be a proposed as a holiday, and this year a banquet will be tendered His Grace Arch-bishop Christie in the afternoon, and afterwards there will be a reception by the students. Three years ago Archbishop Christie secured the Portland University building and campus, and it was recopened as Columbia University, and because of his connection with it he will be honored. In the evening the band and orchestra will render a musical programme. The college is closing a prosperous year. Students are pulling hard for the medals which will be awarded next month. In order to perpetuate the memory of those attending the university, etcry. cause of his connection with it he will be honored. In the evening the band and orchestra will render a mosical programme. The college is closing a prosperous year. Students are pulling hard for the medals which will be awarded next month. In order to perpetuate the memory of those attending the university, pictures of the literary societies have been framed to adorn the corridors. Those of the graduating classes. ANNUAL TEA AT BAST HOME.—The annual ten given at the Baby Home yesterday afternoon was a highly successful function, both socially and financially, and a large number of representative Portland indies were in attendance. The decora-tions consisted of white lilacs, the tea tions consisted of white lines, the teatable being especially pretty trimmed in these Spring flowers. Mrs. W. D. Skinner and Mrs. Toomey presided over the teatable, and Mrs. William Morrison and Miss Morrison sold candy. Miss Caulkins. Miss Stuart and Miss Wentworth assisted in the dining-room. The many visitors were much interested in the 22 bables who are now in the home and who were all in are now in the home, and who were all in their Sunday array in honor of the occa-sion of so much "company." Mrs. L. W. Sitton is president of the Home; Mrs. E. P. Riley, vice-president; F. S. Akin, sec-retary; Mrs. H. B. Robertson, corresponding secretary, and A. L. Keenan, treasurer, Mrs. Norris R. Cox, H. H. Northup, Mrs. O. M. Scott, Dr J. F. Bell and Dr. G. B. Story are on the hoard of directors.

SHARCHING FOR TACOMA BOY.-Tired of life in the "City of Destiny," James E. Kilgore, a 16-year-old lad, is supposed to have run away to Portland, and the Ta-coma police have wired the local sleuths to look out for the runaway boy. The lad's father fears that the boy intends going to sea, and is extremely anxious to have him returned home before he salis away on the briny deep. The boy is quite musician, and plays the violin very well. He is described as being 5 feet 7 inches in height, weight 150 pounds, with gray eyes, and dark hair. When he left home, he wore a blick plaid suit of clothes, a sack coat and dark blue cap. He left home April 26, and the local police have been looking for the boy to no avail for the last two days.

PROPERSOR EREMAN WINS FIRST ROUND -Justice Waldemar Seton yesterday morning overruled the demurrer for nonthe case of Gustavus Eseman against the rector, vestrymen and war-dens of St. David's Episcopal Church, to recover $290 for back salary as musical director. Attorneys for the church argued for nonsult on the ground that there was not sufficient cause to send the case to a jury, and that in a case involving musical adgment the defendants alone should udge whether the services of Professor were satisfactory.

Fine Portrait of Cartain Lawis.—A highly interesting and little-known portrait of Meriwether Lewis at the age of II, while he was private secretary to President Jefferson (1801), is a conspicuous feature of the Lewis and Clark Journal for May. This handsome, clear-cut profile gives a very different view of Captain Lewis from the one the public is familiar with. The original, which is in the possesson of Dr. Charles W. Dahney, president of the University of Tennessee, was made by the visiting French artist, St. made by the visiting French artist, St. made by the visiting French artist, St. Memin, who has left us portraits of several famous Americans of that day—Paul Revere, Ineodosia Burr, and the last profile of George Washington. (See "The Conquest," by Mra, Dye, page 199.) Dr. Dabney had the portrait photographed for Mrs. Dye, and through her courtesy it is now published in the Lewis and Clark Journal for the first time. Dr. Dabney told Mrs. Dye that Meriwether Lewis raye the original to his (Dr. Dabney's) gave the original to his (Dr. Dabney's) grandmother, soon after it was taken. The autograph letter from Thomas Jeffer-son to George Rogers Clark, December 4, 1783, containing the first intimation of Jefferson's plan to explore the West, is also reproduced in full. Both of these are valuable historical relics, well worth the most careful preservation by those who are interested in this great expedition. FUNERAL OF MRS. LAURA V. MUTCH TO-DAY.—Mrs. Laura V. Mutch, who died at her home, 14 Union avenue North, on the norming of May 5, was the oldest daugh-er of Josiah and Virginia Howell, of naremah She was 46 years, 7 months and days old, and had resided in East Port-5 days old, and had resided in East Port-land for more than 25 years. Her first husband, George Fimple, died 17 years ago, leaving two sons, one of whom sur-vives. She was married a few years later to S. M. McDonald, a well-known pioneer. Two daughters were born of this thar-riage, both of whom are living. Mr. Mc-Donald died in March, 1898. In August, 1899, she was married to Edison Mutch, who survives her. The childhood and girl-hood of Mrs. Mutch were spent in Cane-ing Star Grange, No. 27, Patrons of Husbandry, held its farewell meeting in Multnomah Hall, on the Section Line road, yes-terday. There was a large attendance, and a fine dinner was served. In the afternoon a programme was rendered under the direction of Mrs. N. W. Bowland, lec-turer, which included an address by State the direction of Mrs. N. W. Bowland, lec-turer, which included an address by State Superintendent J. H. Ackerman on the "Public School System," touching partic-uiarly on the rural schools and their bet-terment. Remarks were made on the same subject by J. W. Brock, Mrs. M. E. Shafford, J. J. Johnson, A. F. Miller, Mrs. Plympton Kelly and Thomas Paulsen. The next meeting will be held in the new hall, which will be finished June 4.

Loses Two Fingers in the Press.-W. C. Campbell, of the Campbell, Smith & Turner Printing Company, suffered a painful accident, resulting in the loss of the first and second fingers on his left hand while feeding a roller press at his place of business early yesterday evening. Campbell tried to catch a small piece of paper that had slipped between the rollers, and his fingers were caught and mashed before the press could be stopped. He was taken to St Vincent's Hospital, where Dr. A. E. Rockey found it necessary to ampu-tate the two injured digits.

MUST PAT FOR THE WAGON.-In the case of Mitchell, Staver & Lewis against Jacob Erdt to recover a balance of $5.25, due on a promissory note given in payment for a vagon, together with $10 attorney's fees, Justice Waldemar Seton yesterday gave plaintiff judgment for the amsunt asked for, $51.25. The original cost of the wagon was $67. Erdt paid down $20 and gave his ote for the balance. He claimed offsets or breakage and damages from defective interial exceeding the amount of the ote by $19.

ODD FISH FOR CITY PARK.—Colonel L. L. Hawkins is in receipt of a couple of strange additions to the aquatic residents of the City Park. The new arrivals are a couple of fish of a kind that no one thus far has been able to determine. The fish were caught at Warrendale by T. F. Levins, who took them to the park yesterday, where they were consigned to a pool in the upper part of the park. Five fine thrushes were also received yesterday from Mrs. Z. F. Moody. They are all fine appearing birds, and were consigned to the aviary, where they seemed very much at home.

SERIOUSLY INJURED BY RUNAWAY .- H. W. Fries was severely injured in a run-away accident on Portland Heights, last ovening, while driving. His howse took fright, overturning the vehicle and throwing Mr. Fries out. He fell with great force, sustaining a fracture of the nose and numerous bad bruises. An ambulance

"THE SHOPKEEPERS."

Fixtures Dear and Fixtures Cheap, but All Are Artistic.

The cheap store is sometimes the dearest. "The Shopkeepers." as Barrett's man-tel and fixtures warerooms are called, is often wrongfully thought a high-priced store, because of its large trade in highstore, because of its large trade in high-grade goods. The fact should be remem-bered that this unique establishment sells all grades of goods, from inexpensive to costilest, and, line for line, cannot be competed with in Portland. Also, it gives art along with the goods—that is, the fixtures, or what not, you buy is reliably artistic, and gotten at the same, or a lower price than would be charged for an artistic, and gotten at the same, or a lower price than would be charged for an inferior article elsewhere. If you are looking into these matters, it is safe for you to visit "The Shopkeepers" before you to visit "The Shopkeepers" before fixing your selections. It is unsafe for your packetbook if you don't. THE JOHN BARRETT CO., ("The Shopkeepers") Sixth and Alder. Established 1868.
