OAKLAND WOMAN SHOOTS HER SELF IN THE THIGH.

While Enacting the Role of a Highenyman in Jest, the Revolver Is Discharged, OAKLAND, Cal., Dec. 9. . (Special.) -Walle toying with a small revolver and playfully enacting the part of a nold-up man, Mrs. Nellie Gale, proprietress of the International House, Eighth street, accidentally shot nerself through the thigh and sue tained a painful although not necesarily a serious wound. She was at once removed to Providence Hospital, where the leaden missile was soon extructed and just now hopes are held out recovery is certain, although always danger from blood-there is always danger from blood-poisnning in such cases.

Mrs. Gale and a few friends were chatting in Mrs. Gale's room shortly before noon, while Mrs. Gale was han-dling a 22-caliber revolver. Presently she arose and pointing the weapon di-rectly at Mr. Mills, shouted "Money or your life." Mr. Mills, one of her friends, was startled for a moment, because the weapon was directed at him, yet playfully replied, "All right." and started to leave his seat As he did pried to leave his seat. As he did joking woman lowered the gon

Suddenly the weapon discharged and the woman screamed Mrs. Gale swooned and then remarked that she lad been shot. The police were at once notified of the accident and the injured woman was quickly removed to

Circuit Court Order Overrules Action of County Commissioners.

VALE, Or., Dec. 5.—(Special.)—The Cir-uit Judge of this district has handed own his decision in the local-option case which the State of Oregon and others in which the State of Oregon and others were plaintiffs and the County Court of Malheur County were the defendants. The same is a result of the local-option vote November 5 1998, and the prefinct under consideration in this decision was Nyssa, sithough the decision affects most of the name in the county.

dthough the decision affects most of the owns in the counts.

The County Court made an order Normber 22, 1984, intentionally and arbitrarily neglecting and refusing to make an order prohibiting the sale of intoxisating figures in Nyssa. The decision ends that County Judge Richardson, who savered the making of the order according to the vote, was overruled by the commissioners, and the Circuit Court has a war is based commanding the dehad a writ issued communding the de-fendants to make the order declaring the sale of liquor in Nyasa precinct to be void and absolutely prohibiting the same. This decision will affect the towns of Westfall, Nyssa, Vale and all other precincts in the county excepting Jordan Valley and On-
