DIGGING BODIES FROM THE RUINS

Forty Crushed and Burned to Death in One Flat Building.

MANY CHINESE CREMATED

Extent of Fatalities in Disaster Just Begins to Come to Light—Partial List of the Identified Dead.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—Forty bodies were taken from a building at 119 Fifth street today by the Red Cross Service. The structure, which was a four-story wooden building, containing three flats of ten rooms each, collapsed during the earthquake. At the time several persons were taken out alive from the upper stories, but it was thought that all the inmates had escaped.

The ruins took fire shortly after, and although efforts were made to extinguish the flames, the entire building was consumed. The bodies of the unfortunate imprisoned within the ruins were incinerated, only the skulls and a few bones being left.

It is known that Mrs. Henry Murray and A. J. McNear and wife lived in this building. They have not been heard of since the fire.

TWENTY-THREE DEAD CHINESE

Burned Beyond Recognition—Forty Dead in One Ruin.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—In the past three days 23 bodies of Chinese have been found and interred in Portsmouth square. But few of the bodies were identified, most of them being burned and mangled beyond recognition.

Squads searching for bodies are looking over the ruins in all sections of the city, and met with some success today. In one run 40 bodies were recovered and on the side of Nob Hill five charred bodies were found. These latter were cremated.

LIST OF IDENTIFIED DEAD

Partial List of Those Buried—Sixteen Not Identified.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—The following is a partial list of the identified who have been buried by the authorities: HARRY CHESTRO, Seventh and Mission.

N. KOSENFELD, 307 1/2 Folsom street. E. NORMANN, 409 Pacific street. ANTONIO WEBSTER, 14 Williams street.

JOHN DAY, 25 Geary street. WILLIAM VASE, 290 Sherman street. H. MYLAKKE, 42 Stevenson street.

KING, male, 223 Mission. A mother and 1-year-old baby at 152 Turk street.

Besides these, 15 unidentified persons were buried under the supervision of Dr. Gamble, two of them being Italians found in the building of the Western Fish Company.

A number of others have been buried whose names cannot at present be learned.

SHOT DEAD BY A SOLDIER

Boy Refuses to Surrender Whisky. Man Driven From Dying Wife.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—One of the younger sons of T. P. Riordan, a well-known real estate dealer, was shot and instantly killed shortly before the noon hour a few feet from his residence. He was on his way home and had a bottle of whisky in his coat pocket. The soldier on duty ordered him to stop and throw the whisky away and when Riordan refused, the soldier immediately shot him dead.

An unknown workman employed at the Gerson Tannery on Webster street, near McAllister, was on his way home this morning and was ordered to halt by a sentry. The workman explained his wife was dying and he wanted to see her, and tried to pass. The sentry took a shot at him, but missed him, and the workman ran back to the tannery.

NO EASTERNERS AMONG DEAD

Only Persons Killed Were in Tenements Wrecked by Shock.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—(Special.)—For the first time since the catastrophe General Funston and the city authorities were able today to devote a few moments to trying to learn where the casualties took place. They are unable to estimate the death list, but they ask the press associations to assure the outside world that it will be found to contain only the names of San Franciscans.

Those who met death last their lives in the poorer quarter of the city, and in nearly every case were crushed to death by the first shock of the earthquake throwing their homes down upon them like a house of cards. All the guests of the big hotels got away safely.

The ruined district, which is a mass of smoldering ruins, gray with ashes and black with smoke, is still so warm that but little can be done toward searching for victims.

Editors Are Greatly Worried.

EL PASO, Tex., April 21.—Members of the California Press Association who have been making a tour in Mexico arrived here on a special train from the City of Mexico today, and left at once over the Santa Fe for California. They expect to reach Oakland Monday afternoon. Since the disaster at San Francisco and at other places in California the correspondents have been unable to get any messages from home.
