An exceptionally enjoyable musicale was given on Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. P. H. Flynn by young pupils of her talented daughter, Miss Mamie Helen Flynn. The affair was in the nature of a social afternoon, as Miss Flynn took the occasion to entertain the musical department of the Women's Club. Nearly 100 guests were accessed. 100 guests were present. Mrs. Flynn re-ceived with Miss Flynn and Miss Irene Flynn in the studio of their spacious residence. Mrs. Flynn was dressed in black lace net and India silk; Miss Flynn was in white Swiss trimmed with Valenciennes over pink. In the dining-room, Miss Irene Flynn presided over a quartet of pretty girls who served refreshments. The juvenille plants on the programme were asmile planists on the programme were as-sisted by Miss Helen Lytle, Miss Mabel Millis and Miss Irene Flynn. Ella Mc-Coy acted as accompaniste. The follow-ing programme was rendered, all the chil-dren doing remarkably well:

Concerto in G Minor
Sung Selected
Mable Millie.
(b) 2me Mazurk
Andante, Op. 78, No. 3
Song Oscar Closset, Selected
Helen Lytle.
Value Arabesque
(a) Andanie from Sonata, Op. 14 Beethoven (b) Second Valse
Hamel Deurknop.
(a) Obstination
Irene Flynn.
(a) "Les Sylphes"
(b) Tarantella Pieczonka Macii Hendricksen,
(a) "The Flatterer"
(b) "If I Were a Bird"

Miss Helen van Schuyver entertained informally on Wednesday evening for the Las Amigas Club, of which she is a member. This is a mandolin and guitar club, under the directorship of Professor Reba-galisti. Its personnel is as follows: Man-dolins: Miss Jeffrey, Miss Edna Jeffrey, Mrs. A. O. Lyman; mandolas, Mrs. Buf-Miss Bertha Breyman; guitars, Miss McBride, Mrs. Will C. Holman, Miss van Schuyver. Several musical numbers were played by the club during the even-ing, which were warmly applauded by the thirty-odd guests present. At the of the municipal were served. close of the musical programme refresh-

In a private letter just received in this city from Miss Alice Robbins Cole, who is so pleasantly remembered here, an in-teresting account is given of a farewell reception to Mr. and Mrs. Gericke, at which Miss Cole assisted. Mr. Gericke's departure is being mourned by Boston musicians, and the loss to the Boston Symphony Orchestra is a serious pne. Miss Cole will leave the last of June for a European trip, returning for early Sep-tember engagements. It is probable she will make a Western trip early in Octo-

The psychology department of the Women's Club was entertained by Mrs. Alice Weister on Monday evening in her studio. Mrs. Weister had proposed showing her guests a series of stereopticon views from European cities, but there was a patriotic demand for something "Made in Gregon," and she substituted local views, much to the delight of her guests. The views of Oregon's famous me were especially admired.

Mrs. James C. Luckey leaves on Tuesday for Chicago, where she will be joined by her daughter Bessie, who is now in Boston. They will attend the National Federation Woman's Congregational Home Missionary organizations, which meets in Oak Park, and later the Pacific Coast Congress in Los Angeles, returning through California about June 1.

Dr. E. DeWitt Connell, with his wife and his mother, arrived in New York on April 21, and will be in Portland about May 1. They are returning from Europe, where Dr. Connell has been doing active work in the hospitals of different European cities for the past six months.

The Portia Club will be entertained Tuesday, May 8, by Mrs. W. M. Cake, 220 Park street. So many of the ladies of the club were desirous of working at the the prize. A delicious lunch was then served, a feature of which was the beautiful hand-embroidered lunch cloths, the work of the hostess. The next meetin of the club will be with Mrs. D. P. Tillamook street, May 7.

The Ladies' Ald Society of the First Congregational Church will hold the last meeting of the season in the church parors on Wednesday, May 2, at 2:30 o'clock The following is the programme: Vocal solo (selected), Mrs. Fletcher Linn; darky stories, Miss Constance McCorkle; vocal solo (selected), Mrs. Fletcher Linn; selections, Weber Banjo Quartet. A cor-dial invitation is extended to everyone.

Mrs. Gerlinger, Mrs. Dalton, Mrs. Laid-law and Mrs. Delahunt will give a card party Wednesday, May 2, at Irvington Clubhouse, for the benefit of the Domin-

The Bridge Whist Study Club was en-tertained Wednesday, April 25, by Mrs. John E. Povey, 564 Tillamook street, Six-teen hands were played, Mrs. D. M. Mo-Lauchlan, the president, making the high-est score and Mrs. Reed the next. The club was then invited to the district club was then invited to the dining-room even the delicious refreshments k of the scheme of coloring, namely pink and white. The china used was a wedding gift from the hostess' mother, which she had kept unmarred for years. The club will meet with Mrs. B. S. Pague, it 648 East Morrison, May 11.

Milton Dyas Bailey, general manager of the North American Insurance Company, of San Francisco, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sam B. Archer on Wednesday last. Mr. Bailey is Mrs. Archer's cousin.

The friends of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Dick-son will be pleased to hear that they re-turned from California Thursday morning, bringing their niece, Miss Moss, with them.

Mrs. Walter Holman's "Political Whist" party on Friday was most interesting and enthusiastic pusies of her originality has been heard. Invitations for this had been issued prior to the San Francisco r. Decorations were political bearing the pictures of the succandidates in the recent primary n. A frieze of these posters ornation of the rooms, and festoons of small cards were strung over the windows. Each table bore the name of a candidate, from the Governor to that of the Constable, here being 12 in all. Score cards were election cards. Every player matched cards to find her place at the table. Those taking tricks received election cards as counters, which were deposited in a ballot box. The Constable's table received & votes and was therefore declared entitled to first prizes. These were awarded to Mrs. William H. Cake, Mrs. T. L. Johnson and Mrs. Alec Jeffress. Pretty sets of small silver tableware were the trophics. The "Secretary of State" table is thereat—Mrs. Joe Leonard, Mrs. Frank Zimmerman and Miss Emily Holprock—were each given a dainty handmade hankerchief. Mrs. Holman was assisted by Mrs. Frenk Watkins, Mra. Herbert Houghton and Mrs. W. W. Hazder. of small cards were strung over the win-

Mrs. Henry Hugh O'Rellly gave an in-formal tea to several of her musical friends at her home, 257 North Twenty-third street, last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. L. L. McArthur is visiting rela-

The meeting of the Women's Club on Friday afternoon proved to be one of the most interesting of the season. Lady Anna von Rydingsward lectured on sculpture and gave a practical illustration of modeling. Mrs. E. P. Frazier sai as model, and the lecturer's skill in catching her likeness was much admired. The attendance was smaller than usual, as many of the club women have been busy all the week assisting in relief work at the Armory and elsewhere. Mrs. A. H. Breyman, president of the club, is on the depot committee, and has rendered valuable service to the refugees. Mrs. Robert Lutke has been in charge of one of the supply departments at the Armory.

Robert J. O'Neill, T. A. O'Gorman, Dan J. O'Neill, A. F. Petnel, Florance A. Sul-livan, Geo. E. Sharkey, W. C. Saunders, J. E. Wliey, Wolf.

Mrs. L. M. Davis entertained the Tuesday Afternoon Club last week. This was the last study programme of This was the last study programme of the year, and was in charge of the hostesn. The subject was "Political, Social and Intellectual Conditions in England Compared with Those in Other European Nations at the Close of the Sixtoenth Century." Mrs. Hayes read a paper on the "Reformation and the Armada." Mrs. Boynton read a paper on conditions in Germany. Mrs. Baily spoke of Italy, and Mrs. Eshelman of France, comparing their stage of development with that of England. Mrs. Gilnes summed up the comparisons, speaking particularly of conditions in Engand. The quotations were from likeness was much admired. The attendance was smaller than usual, as many of the club women have been busy all the week assisting in relief work at the Armory and elsewhere. Mrs. A. H. Breyman, president of the club, is on the depot committee, and has rendered valuable service to the refugees. Mrs. Robert Lutke has been in charge of one of the supply departments at the Armory.

Mrs. H. C. Wortman has returned from Senside, where she has been spending a few days with her children in shore recreation.

Mr. and Mrs. William Russell Sewall and Dr. and Mrs. Chester Sewall, who were in San Francisco during the earth-

DR. MEDERNACH

A heautiful welding of the Easter season was that of Dr. H. Medernack, late of Chicago, Iil., to Miss Furtins Cabnels, solemnized by Rev. J. C. Hughes at St. Lawrence Church, on Wednesday, April 25, at 4 o'clock. The bride was charmingly attired in a Princess gown of white silk with point lace. Her vell was caught with a pearl and diamond brooch, the gift of the groom. She was attended by Miss Molly Melring as bridesmaid, attired in blue silk mult and carrying a large bouquet of carnations. Miss Emily Coleman, as maid of honor, looked charming in white voile over Nile green silk. Little Miss DeGrandpre, dressed in white granadine over pink silk, was ring-bearer. The groom was accompanied by Eugene DeGrandpre. During the ceremony Miss Lizzle Harwas sang "Ave Maria" from "Cavalleria Rusticana. To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. Ida Erdman, the bridal party wended its way down the giale to the awaiting carriages. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's sixter, Mrs. T. G. Coleman, 551 Seventh street. Dr. and Mrs. Medernack will be at home to their friends at 422 Second street after May 1.

quake, have reached Portland. The former are with the Rossell E. Sewalls and the latter with the doctor's brother Clarence B. Sewall, in East Main street.

Watson were Mrs. Andrew and Mrs. Watson were guests. Mrs. Lawrence was the recipient of a handsome Portland souvenir spoon and of a large bunch of Portland roses, as this was her first visit here. Oregon wall flowers were used for decorating the room these showing the P. E. O. colors, yellow and white. Narcissus, white illacs and maidenhair fern ornamented the table, which was in a T shape, so that all other guests could sit facing the last of honor. Twenty covers were laid. Mrs. Andrew and Mrs. all other guests could sit facing the guest of honor. Twenty covers were laid.

Invitations for a card party for Thurs-day afternoon, sent out week before last by Mrs. H. S. Gile, were recalled early

Mrs. F. M. Branch has issued invita tions for an afternoon of military whist on Tuesday next in honor of Mrs. J. Steadman, wife of Major Steadman, U.S. A., who has recently been ordered to a post abroad. It will be in the nature of

Mrs. Ernest Laidlaw entertained informally during the past week with two tables of bridge for Miss Boschke, of San

LAURA LEONARD.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

One of the most enjoyable Easter parties this season was the dance given by Portland Council No. 678, Knights of Columbus. The affair was given at the irvington Tennis Club House Monday evening, April 16, and was well attended. Parsons' orchestra furnished the music and fruit punch was served on the porch of the clubhouse. The dancing programmes were in the shape of the emblem of the order and were printed in 'colors making a pretty souvenir of the occasion. Among those present were: Dr. and Mrs F. J. Barr. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Casey, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Coffey, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Comerford, Mr and Mrs. M. Poelahunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. Foeller, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Hulme, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kavanaugh, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Moser, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Murpny, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Prudhomme, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Sharkey, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Sharkey, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Sharkey, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. R. Zellar; Mesdames Jos E. Cronan, M. M. Gearin, Jennings, Harwas; Misses Bucheit, R. Bucheit, Emma Batman, Gertrude Cahalin, Kate Cahalin, E. M. Carner, Petronella Connolly, Dresser, Agnes Duffy, Alice Dougherty, Faber, Ladies' night at the Multnomah Club on Friday was a pronounced success, and the young athletes who were "put the young athletes who were "put tain and Mrs. Andrew Hoben, in honor through" their exercises certainly reflected great credit upon their director. There was as usual a crowded house.

Miss Elizabeth Hoben entertained a number of her young friends last Priday evening at the house of her parents, Captain Frederick Davies and officers of the steamship Oceano. The evening There was as usual a crowded house. The Portia Club will be entertained Tussday, May 8, by Mrs. W. M. Cake, 250 Park street. So many of the ladies of the club were destrous of working at the Armory that the meeting on the 24th was Jeferred.

Mrs. Fred A. Daly entertained the Theodora 500 Club in a charming manner at her home. 49 East Twelfth street, April 2. Eighteen hands were played. The custom of the club is to give the hostess.

Mrs. Andrew and Mrs. Watson were week appear contributing to the musical programme were (Laptain Frederick Davies, Eugene Loftus, Miss Mamie O'Neill, Dr. Emil Ausplund and Mr. Materia, April 21. Mrs. Lawrence was taken on a sight-seeing trip over the clip in the morning, and at 1 o'clock a delightful supper was served at the home of Mrs. E. R. Albee, 527 Hancock street. In the afternoon Mrs. Lawrence inspected the work of the chapter, departing at 8.20 for Los Angeles.

Mars. Fred A. Daly entertained the Theodora 500 Club in a charming manner at the home of Mrs. E. R. Albee, 527 Hancock street. In the afternoon Mrs. Josephine Andrew Andrew Andrew and Mrs. Watson were wee sma' hours, when guests all joined. supper, dancing was indulged in till the wee sma' hours, when guests all joined hands and sang "Auld Lang Syne" and "We Won't Go Home Till Morning." Those present were: Captain Andrew Hoben, Captain Frederick Davies, Eugene Loftus, Mr. Rylance, Mr. Mayor, Captain F. Hagermann, -Francis Clar-no, Dr. Emil Ausplund, Jack Peak Hoben, Mrs. A. Hoben, Mrs. Prancis Clarno, Miss Mamle O'Neill, Miss Margaret Protzman, Miss Mamie Hagermann, Miss Katie Protzman, Miss Jossie Hagermann, Misses Edna and Lucila Haight, Misses Edinabeth and Josephine Andreta Hoben and Baby

> One of the pretty parties given during the past week was a handkerchief shower tendered in honor of Miss Mabel Wilson, who is to be a June bride. It was a merry crowd of 16 that gathered around the table, elaborately decorated in green and white, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Knapp. After they had participated in the delicious luncheon Miss Wilson headed the procession which repaired to the front parlor, passing beneath a canopy formed by festoous of hearts leading from the chandeller to the four corners of the room. In the center of the room was an room. In the center of the room was an immense poinsetta made of red crepe paper. Four young ladies held ribbons attached to the flower which opened and Miss Wilson unexpectedly found herself completely showered by a fall of dainty lace and linen, the handlwork of her many friends. The handkerchiefs were accompanied by briginal poems suited to the occasion. In the progressive game of "Tops," honors were won by Miss Ayers and Mrs. F. E. Errington. The color scheme of green and white was carried out throughout the house, the flowers being white illacs and narcissus blooms.

> "Married Ladies' Day" at Milwaukie Grange proved to be a most interesting occasion. It was under the direction of Mrs. J. H. Reid. The meeting was an open one after 1 o'clock. The articles were all sold, netting $12.16. At 2 P. M. an entertainment programme was rendered, as follows: Opening song, chorus; address of welcome. Mrs. Costro; reading. Mrs. Driscoll: duet. "Childhood's Home," Mesdames Roberts and Getchell: reading. Mrs. Johnson; solo and chorus, "Do Not Mortgage the Farm," Mrs. Roberts; reading. Mrs. Hammond; solo, "Keep Polities Off the Farm," Mrs. Reed: address. "Our Order," Mrs. Getchell: chorus, "Beautiful Grange." The meeting was then addressed by Pather Eaton, of Oswego; J. J. Johnson, of the Evening Star; Captain Apperson, of Abernethy, and other visiting members.

The final dance of the Orranco Club for this season was given in New Woodmen hall last Monday evening and was the most enjoyable of their series. It was a "shirtwaist" party, and the club members were most effectively costumed in purple and white, the club colors. They wore white shirtwaists and duck trousers, with purple neckties, watch fobs and streamers. The hall was decorated with purple and white streamers and dogwood and wild currant blossoms. Purple and white crepe paper shades softened the electric lights. One hundred and sixty couples were present.

Parsons' orchestra furnished music. Punch was served in the rooms up-stairs. It is probable that the Or-rancos will give some trolley parties during the Summer.

The last social event of the season under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary of Multmomah Typographical Union was given last Tuesday evening in Mulkey Hall, corner Second and Morrison streets. Miss Eastabrooks delighted her hearers with several selections on the violin, and Mrs. Hornsey captivated the audience with her performance upon the plano. The winners in the game of prize whist were: Ladies' first prize, Mrs. Monger; ladies' second prize, Mrs. Monger; ladies' second, W. Pitschke. After the game Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Shaw furnished some excellent music upon a guitar and mandolin, to which the guests whiled away an hour & more in dancing. A lunch was furnished and dispensed by members of the auxiliary.

A most delightful surprise party was given Mrs. S. A. Ryman Thursday evening at her home. We hast Ninth street, North, it being her birthday anniversary. Friends all met and proceeded to the home together. Mrs. Ryman received many beautiful flowers and also some handsome china in honor of the occasion. All spent a pleasant social evening, after which refreshments were served. Those present were: Mrs. Bata Fraser, Mrs. H. A. Meiner, Mrs. Sarah Ryman, Mrs. El-wood Miles, Mrs. C. C. Quine, Miss Janette Meiner, Mrs. James Perry, Mrs. John Poole, Mrs. D. T. Wadtkins, Mrs. C. C. McDonald, Mrs. H. W. Scherr and Mrs. Dayton Ryman. McDenana Dayton Ryman

Last Tuesday evening a very unique party was given by Mrs. Maurice Buford, at her new home, G East Seventeenth street north. Everything was decorated with shrubbery and Oregon grape, the decorations being composed of Indian pictures and relics. The guests were Misses Lillian Wyman, Jennie Cauchte, Hazel Lee, Edna Munro, Bessie Munro, James W. Ansly, Allie Grant, William Gordon, Chancy Tiffany, Charles Krantz, Elton Conoway, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Satteries and Mr. and Mrs. Layton Sebolt. The evening's entertainment was music and games, after which refreshments were served.

The Bible Club of the First Congrega-The Bible Club of the First Congregational Church, was pleasantly entertained on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. H. Alliston. Mrs. E. C. Durham
acted as leader. The work of the previous two weeks was reviewed by Mrs.
Frank Gilbert, Mrs. Wilkie Dunniway,
Mrs. M. M. Ringler, Mrs. Alliston. Mrs.
Durham, Mrs. B. D. Sigler, Mrs. Roberts,
Mrs. Harlan Miller and Mrs. G. W. Nothnagle. At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served and a social half hour enjoyed. The next meeting will be held on May 10 with Mrs. Frank Gilbert.

Mrs. T. V. Young entertained Thursday evening in honor of her son Guy Harris, who arrived recently from Gloversville, New York, to make his home with her. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. F. Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. W. Kerron, Mr. and Mrs. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Flack, Mr. and Mrs. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Eleck, Mr. and Mrs. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Eleck, Mr. and Mrs. Mason, Mg. and Mrs. Elech, Mrs. W. Albee, Pive hundred was played, after which a fine luncheon was served. The score cards were handpainted Easter designs. The first prizes were won by Miss Eva Rose and Mr. W. Herron.

Mrs. W. M. Zimmer and sister, Mrs.

Mrs. W. M. Zimmer and sister, Mrs. Vaughn, delightfully entertained the Illinois Study Club on Wednesday, April 25, at the home of Mrs. Zimmer on Killingsworth avenue. The tople of the day, "Lawyers of Illinois," was dwelt upon in an interesting manner by Miss Lida M. O'Brien, a young woman lawyer of Portland. Mrs. Nina Larowe contributed to the pleasure of the members by reading. "A Reverte in Church" and "A School Girl's Composition." Dainty refreshments were served during the social hour, which closed the meeting.

Last Sunday afternoon a "Bishop Morris Mememorial service" was held in St. Mary's Church, Woodburn. Rev. Wm. Leech, of the Methodist church, and Rev. Louis Andersen, of the Presbyterian church, took part with Dr. Hone in the stretch.

byterian church, took part with Dr. Hope in the service. The church at Woodburn was of great interest to Bishop Morris, and his work is appre-ciated by all the city.

nesday evening by the members of St. Ann's Charitable Society was a financial success. The prizes were souvenir pictures of San Francisco, won by A. Bross and Mr. Mankin. Seven dozen pairs of stockings, men's and misses' and children's shoes, were bought and sent to the The benefit whist party given last Wed

Last Sunday, at Trinity Episcopal church, Orris Carleton Rowlee, the lemonths-old child of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Rowlee, was christened by Rev. Dr. Morrison. Mrs. Ida Shumway and Miss Holbrook stood as godmothers. After the christening, luncheon was served to members of the party at 206 Park street, the home of the parents.

Miss Zeller entertained the 1968 Whist Club in a charming manner on Thursday

Club in a charming manner on Thursday last. The first prize was won by Mrs. Mathiot, the second by Mrs. Planch, the consolation fell to Miss Gregory, * After

The Geranium Whist Club was charmingly entertained by Mrs. Kline Wednesday afternoon, the 5th inst. After 38 hands of whist had been played, a delicious lunch was served by the hostess. Mrs. Minor carried off first prise. Mrs. Howe won second. On May 3 the club will mast with Mrs. Phillips.

The Lincoln, Garfield, Sewing Club met with Mrs. Samuel Downey at St. John's Tuesday, April M. The usual good time is reported. Lanch was served and, al-though the weather was very inclement, there was a good attendance.

WEDDINGS.

Kennedy-McVlcker.

Kennedy-McVicker.

One of the prettiest events of the season in Sumpter, Oregon, occurred at the home of the bride's parents, J. W. and Mra McVicker, when their daughter Zeola was married to Fred R. Kennedy. The bride looked charming in cream crepe de chine, her only ornament a gold and pearl necklace, the gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. Margaret Knapp acted as bridesmald. She wore pink sifk and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mr. R. N. Graves was best man. The bride was given away by her father. Rev. Mr. Ellis, of Athena, Oregon, performed the wedding ceremony, the ring service being used. The house was tastefully decorated with Oregon grape and red and white carnations. Many beautiful presents were received. After the ceremony the guests repaired to the dining room, where an elaborate supper was served. The bride and groom departed amid showers of rice and old shoes. They will tour the Sound cities and roturn to Columbia mines.

Leroy Hankins.

MADE IN OREGON

New Spring Arrivals

For Stylish Women

BURSON

INDUSTRIAL SHOW, MAY 19-20

All the newest fads and fancies of fashion as they are to be found in the most stylish Tailor-made Suits, Skirts, Waists and Silk Petticoats are contained in those shown here Monday and Tuesday. Are you familiar with the essential qualities of a good tailor-made suit, skirt, waist or wrap—style, material and make? If you are not, the knowledge will lead you here as the only place to satisfy your pocketbook. You should come here anyway—if only for protection. You cannot get a bad suit, coat, skirt or waist of us—we don't keep them—only the best suits that fine tailoring and honest materials will produce—nothing else. Compare our prices with anybody's. Great Special Sale Monday and Tuesday. Gilt-edged goods—gilt-edged values. Every garment exclusive with us. See our Morrison-street windows. Country orders carefully and promptly filled.

SPECIALS FOR MONDAY AND TUESDAY

LADIES' $1.00 GOWN, 78c.

Made of good quality muslin, square and V-shaped neck, lace and embroidery trimmed; a dozen different styles; worth $1.00. Mon-

$2.50 ARABIAN CURTAINS, $1.47.

Just 65 pairs in the lot; several different patterns to choose from; 21/2 yards long, 45 inches wide, patterns outlined with heavy cord; Monday and Tuesday, pair ... $1.47

MEN'S 75c UNDERWEAR, 48c.

Best quality French Balbriggan Underwear for men, all colors and all sizes; this is a stand-ard 75e value. Monday and Tuesday only, 18c FRENCH ORGANDIES, 121/2c.

50 pieces fine French Organdies; choice patterns; very latest colorings; 30 in. wide and worth every bit of 18e; Monday and Tuesday, per yard12146

LADIES' 25c KNIT VESTS, 15c.

Take a look at our Third-street window for the greatest bargain of the season in Knit Vests. They are real 25e values. Monday

$1.35 CHIPFON VEILING, $1.00.

The swellest dress fabric of the season, 44 inches wide, Alice blue, gray, champagne and cream; bought to sell at $1.35 a yard; Monday and Tuesday, yard$1.00

$1.00 CORSET COVERS, 67c.

Made of finest quality, nainsook, 3 rows lace insertion, extra full in front, lace and ribbon trimmed. You can't beat it in town for

$1.00 BLUE-BLACK VOILE, 56c.

Another shipment of these famous Voiles reached us yesterday; full 45 inches wide, a fine, lustrous dye and worth all of $1.00 a yard. Monday and Tuesday 56¢

$1.00 SUMMER CORSETS, 47c.

About 10 dozen Corsets in this lot, and nearly all sizes. Among them is a swell little Em-

75c TABLE DAMASK, 47c.

Fine Satin Damask, 60 inches wide, several new designs to pick from-we think this the best bargain we have ever yet offered; 75e

$1.50 TO $3.00 CORSETS, 95c.

Included in this lot are some of our best sellers in Warner's and Thomson's makes; drab, black and white only; Monday and Tuesday, your choice at95¢

LADIES' 35c HOSIERY, 25c.

100 dozen Ladies' plain and fancy Hose go on the bargain table Monday morning at 25e pair. None worth less than 35e and very soon. We have a liberal supply on hand and are willing to shave the price a little for Monday and Tuesday's buyers;

INDIAN HEAD SUITING, 121/2Q. This cloth is bound to be much in demand

$1.50 MOUNT HOOD SHIRTS, 75c.

Now on display in our Third-street window; made of best quality madras, soft front, de-tachable cuffs, sizes 141/2 to 16 only. Mon-

INDUSTRIAL SHOW, MAY 19-26

MADE IN OREGON

The class at the School of Domestic Science on Tenth street, between Alder and Washington, for the ensuing week will be as follows: Tuesday, 10 A. M., Salads; Wednesday, 5:30 A. M. Cornmeal Dishes; Thursday, 5:30 A. M. and 2:30 P. M., Meats; Friday, 9:30 A. M. Training Class; 6:30 P. M., Candy (school-girl class); Saturday, 9:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Meats.

Hankins, 25 East Couch street, on Tuesday and Mr. Seater is a valued employe of Cohn Brothers, and Miss Works was, untitl recently, a teacher in the public schools of her native county of Eau Clairs, Wis. Mr. and Mrs. Seater wish to announce that they will be at home to friends after May 1 at 504 blossoms, carrying a bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmald, a cousin of the bride. Miss Bertha Hankey, looked Bidwell avenue, Seilwood.

Becker-Reed. cream crepe Egyptia, with veil and orange blossoms, carrying a bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid, a cousin of the bride, Miss Bertha Hanley, looked the bride, Miss Bertha Hanley, looked very preetty in pink organdie. James Nickerson was best man. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Pearey, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Shearer, Mrs. Elizabeth Cramer, Mrs. Frank Chalmers, Mr. and Mrs. John Hanley, Mrs. Emily Hankins, Miss Elizabeth Davis, Miss Madge Cramer, Miss Dell Fleury, Miss Elizabeth Chalmers, Francis Hanley, Albert Hanley Elizabeth Chalmers, Francis Hanley, Albert Hanley Elizabeth Chalmers, Francis Hanley, Chalmers, Francis Chalmers, Elizabeth Chalmers, Mrs. Elizabeth Cha home of Mrs. M. E. Reed, 4il Third street, when her daughter Margaret Reed, was united in marriage by Dr. E. L. House to Nicholas Becker. The immediate families and a number of intimate friends were present. Many beautiful gifts were given. After a short honeymoon trip the happy couple will reside at 4il Third street. Chalmers, Francts Hanley, Albert Han-ley, Edgar Shearer, Francis Chalmers, Charles Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy have taken up their residence at 325 East Couch street. Harmon-Mangold.

Richards-Stewart.

Richards-Stewart.

George E. Richards of Hammond, Or., and Miss Grace L. Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Stewart of that city, were married at St. Luke's Church, the rector, Rev. W. C. Sheppard, officiating. The groom was attended by William E. Mapes of Hammond, and the bride by Miss Retta White. Mrs. J. C. Huston played the wedding march. The church presented a most attractive appearance, the altar being decorated with Easter lilles, with a profusion of dogwood, liliac and ferns in the chancel, the effect being enhanced by numerous candles. The bride was charmingly attired in white, and carried bride roses. The ceremony at the church was followed by a reception at St. Luke's hall. The guests included members of the two Rebekah lodges and the Order of Pendo. Mr. and Mrs. Richards left late in the evening for Hammond, where they will make their home.

Watson-Jenesen.

A pretty wedding occurred Wednesday evening April 25, when Waiter Irvin Watson and Miss Helen Caroline Jenesen were united in marriage by Rev. D. A. Thompson at the home of the bride's parents, 294 Tenino avenue Seliwood. The rooms were prettily decorated with lilacs and cut flowers, giving a very charming effect. The bridal couple entered the pariors to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Nellie Wills. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white organdy and carried bride's roses. After the happy couple received the congratulations of the wedding party, dainty refreshments were served, only relatives and near friends being present. Many costly presents were received Mr. and Mrs. Watsen will be at home to their friends after May 5 at 820 Vaughn street.

Miller-Ankeny.

A quiet home wedding was solemnized in Eugene last Wednesday evening, when Miss Dollie Ann Ankeny became the wife of Alfred Harmer Miller. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry El Ank-eny and is a graduate of the University of Oregon. The groom is a popular young eny and is a graduate of the University of Oregon. The groom is a popular young business man of Medford. The wedding service was conducted by Dr. D. E. Loverlidge of the Episcopal Church, and was witnessed by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. After a brief honeymoon the newly-married couple will go to their home at Medford.

Seater-Works.

Arthur H. Hertz, of San Francisco, and May E. Van Alstine, of Portland, were united in marriage in Oakland, Cal., April 20, Rev. Mowhay, of the First Congregational church, officiat-A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mrs. M. E. Reed, 411 Third street, when her daughter Margaret Reed, was Frank Rhodes and Miss Lottle J. Fox were united in marriage at the United Brethren Church manse, Sunday, April 15, Rev. H. C. Shaffer, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes will reside at 555 East Fifteenth street

Invitations are out for the annual May party of the Gazette Club, which is to be given in New Woodmen hall, is to be given in New Wooding on Thursday evening next. Patron-(Concluded on Page 32.)

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL At the Hotel Eaton, on April 24, Dr Clarence True Wilson, of Grace Metho-odist Episcopal Church, united in mat-CREAM OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIED BEST ENGRAVED

WEDDING AND VISITING CARDS

W.G.SMITH & CO WASHINGTON BUILDING. FOURTH AND WASHINGTON

Miss Bertha Mangold was married to

Elmer A. Harmon on Wednesday even-ing, the Eth inst, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Mangold, Rev. D. B. Gray officiating

Miss Pearl Matschek acted as bridesmai and Paul Thing as best man, mediate relatives were present.

FERD. T. HOPKINS, Prop., 27 Great Jones Street, How York FOR SALE BY W

