

VENT THEIR SPLEEN ON ROOSEVELT

Democrats Raise Cry of Bad Faith.

"MAN OF GLAY," SAYS BAILEY

Mortified by Republican Agreement on Rate Bill.

TILLMAN TELLS OF DEAL

Says Roosevelt Arranged to Carry Bill With Democratic Aid, but Surrendered to Aldrich.

HOW ABOUT RATE BILL.

Tillman—Roosevelt and Moody negotiated through Chandler to carry bill through Senate with Long's limited court review amendment by aid of Democrats, but Roosevelt changed front and agreed with Republicans on Allison amendment, thus surrendering to Aldrich.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—In one of the most interesting attacks that have been made upon President Roosevelt during the debate in the Senate on the railroad rate bill, Bailey charged that the executive had surrendered his position advocating "an effective measure" and had abandoned his demands for tariff revision.

What Should Have Been Done.

"If the President had been the heroic fighter that the Senator from Montana would have us believe he was, you know what he would have done. He would have summoned the Republican leaders to a conference from the Senate and House and he would have said to them: 'Gentlemen, I am not talking to you as the President of the United States; I am talking to you as Theodore Roosevelt, the Republican; I am talking to you as a Republican; I want to tell you that I happen to have learned that unless you pass a good bill the President of the United States intends to veto it.'"

Resents Reflection on Judges.

An amendment was suggested by La Follette prohibiting Federal Judges who hold railroad stocks or bonds, or who use or solicit passes from presiding in cases arising under the proposed law. "I have some respect for the judiciary," said Hale, and moved to lay the amendment on the table.

Tillman Tells of Negotiations.

Tillman, in a lengthy statement, accused the President of wavering on the rate bill. He referred specifically to the Long amendment, saying he did so with the purpose of making an explanation. He said the Senators would be surprised to know he had been in conference with the President.

Cartier Stirred Up Bailey.

The speech was in reply to Cartier, who had defended the President against criticisms, saying that no one could charge him with cowardice. In the course of his remarks, Cartier referred to the Democratic party as a party of negation and nothing more.

Bailey's Assault on Roosevelt.

Taking up a statement made by Cartier that the President had, during his campaign for the Presidency, displayed matchless courage in opposing the railroad trust, Mr. Bailey said, in that respect: "Has the Senator from Montana examined the record on that question, as he did the record of the Senator from Maryland and myself? What will the Senate say when I tell the Senator from Montana that in his messages in 1902 and 1903 the President was as silent as the grave upon the question of regulating the railroads; that standing in the presence of the American people, pending the great contest of 1904, he spoke never a word in his favor either in his letter of acceptance or in his speech of acceptance?"

Cartier replied that in a public address delivered in the City of Minneapolis before his nomination the President had in clear, distinct and unequivocal terms defined his position upon the subject and likewise upon necessary anti-trust prosecutions and legislation.

In reply Bailey said he did not know the President had discussed the railroad question in his speech in Minneapolis, but he had examined the President's pub-

ALLISON'S PLAN GOES THROUGH

Senate Adopts Court Review Amendments to the Rate Bill.

REPUBLICANS ALMOST UNIT

Circuit Courts Given Jurisdiction, but Must Give Notice of Injunction Suits—Appeals Prompt, Only to Supreme Court.

PROVISIONS OF ALLISON AMENDMENTS.

Appeals from orders of Interstate Commerce Commission only to Circuit Court in district where railroad has principal operating office. Law expediting trial of rebate and trust cases applied to rate bill. No injunction against enforcement of Commission's order to be granted, except on hearing after five days' notice.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—The Senate proceedings today were devoted exclusively to the consideration of the railroad rate bill, and they included many interesting and some sensational features.

Time for Filing Complaints.

Culberson moved to amend section 5 of the bill, extending the time for the filing of complaints for overcharges from two to three years. At the suggestion of the majority, the amendment was brought within three years. The amendment was then adopted.

Farm Laborers Strike for Advance.

VIENNA, May 12.—(Special.)—The strike of agricultural laborers is spreading throughout the Province of Galicia. Laborers are demanding better pay. The wages paid on the estate of Count Potocki, which may be regarded as about the average pay of laborers in the province, is 10 cents a day for men and 7 cents for women. The strikers demand four times as much. In some localities disorders have occurred and there have been several collisions between strikers and the military.

PEOPLE UNITED AGAINST TYRANNY

Democrats Joined by Peasants in Russia's First Parliament.

AMNESTY THEIR DEMAND

Hope for Peace From Czar's Conciliatory Mood, but Ready to Strike.

PEASANTS' ELOQUENT AND EARNEST ORDERS.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 12.—With the new Parliament finally under way, there is a distinct relief from the tremendous strain of the past few months. But both sides anticipate a great struggle between the crown and the people—they realize that the real issue will not be joined until the answer of the lower house to the speech from the throne at the opening of Parliament is presented. Then the Emperor must choose between war and peace.

THE WEATHER.

YESTERDAY'S—Maximum temperature, 81 deg. Fahrenheit, 48° precipitation, trace. TODAY'S—Probably fair, warmer. Northwesterly winds. Foreign.

RUSSIAN PARLIAMENT DEMANDS AMNESTY FOR PRISONERS AND WILL TRY TO CONCILIATE CAESAR.

Sultan troops defeat Zulu rebels and scatter them. National. Russian Parliament demands amnesty for prisoners and will try to conciliate Caesar. Sultan troops defeat Zulu rebels and scatter them. National.

BAILEY AND TILLMAN MAKE VIOLENT ATTACKS ON ROOSEVELT IN REGARD TO RATE BILL.

Roosevelt charged that the executive had surrendered his position advocating "an effective measure" and had abandoned his demands for tariff revision. The Texas Senator charged that the President's arraignment of trusts had been made after his election and that before that time he had been as "silent as the grave" on the subject of regulating the railroads.

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

PEOPLE UNITED AGAINST TYRANNY

Democrats Joined by Peasants in Russia's First Parliament.

AMNESTY THEIR DEMAND

Hope for Peace From Czar's Conciliatory Mood, but Ready to Strike.

PEASANTS' ELOQUENT AND EARNEST ORDERS.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 12.—With the new Parliament finally under way, there is a distinct relief from the tremendous strain of the past few months. But both sides anticipate a great struggle between the crown and the people—they realize that the real issue will not be joined until the answer of the lower house to the speech from the throne at the opening of Parliament is presented. Then the Emperor must choose between war and peace.

THE WEATHER.

YESTERDAY'S—Maximum temperature, 81 deg. Fahrenheit, 48° precipitation, trace. TODAY'S—Probably fair, warmer. Northwesterly winds. Foreign.

RUSSIAN PARLIAMENT DEMANDS AMNESTY FOR PRISONERS AND WILL TRY TO CONCILIATE CAESAR.

Sultan troops defeat Zulu rebels and scatter them. National. Russian Parliament demands amnesty for prisoners and will try to conciliate Caesar. Sultan troops defeat Zulu rebels and scatter them. National.

BAILEY AND TILLMAN MAKE VIOLENT ATTACKS ON ROOSEVELT IN REGARD TO RATE BILL.

Roosevelt charged that the executive had surrendered his position advocating "an effective measure" and had abandoned his demands for tariff revision. The Texas Senator charged that the President's arraignment of trusts had been made after his election and that before that time he had been as "silent as the grave" on the subject of regulating the railroads.

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

THE DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, May 7, 1906.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 1st instant inclosing clipping from the Register, published in your county, containing the following statement, alleged to have been made by the President: "I have no very exalted opinion of the Oregon wing of the Republican party. I believe the re-election of Oregon's present Governor will be a good thing for the people of your state, and that eventually it will not injure the Republican party in Oregon."

PEOPLE UNITED AGAINST TYRANNY

Democrats Joined by Peasants in Russia's First Parliament.

AMNESTY THEIR DEMAND

Hope for Peace From Czar's Conciliatory Mood, but Ready to Strike.