STEAMER IONE GOES ON THE CASCADES RUN.

The steamer lone goes on the Cascades run tomorrow (Monday). This well-known boat, formerly owned by the Hosfords, and now in the Western Transportation Company's fleet, has been on the Washougal rus, leaving Portland in the morning. Owing to the many requests by residents above Washougal who have no morning boat, the owners have decided to run between Moffitt's Springs, opposite Bonneville and Portland, making a round trip by Eavlight, leaving Moffitt's Springs at 6 A. M., returning leaving Portland at 2:30 P. M. This will certainly be a great conventence to upper river people, enabling them to do in one day what formerly required two. The lone has always been considered one of the fastest boats on the river, and when on The Dalles run, in the frequent races between the different crack boats, always gave a good account of herself.

It is believed that this excellent service will tend to make Moffitt's Springs a splendid place for an end-week stay, the lone making it possible to leave at 2:30 Saturdays and arrive back Monday morning.

one-half of its present value. The tample will cost a little more than $100,000. Fand the interior furnishings will add about $20,000 to that amount. All except about $25,000 of the stock has now been subscribed, and it is expected that this will be met by the grand lodge at its coming meeting. All of the stock is held by Masons.

The building will be five stories in height and will be exceedingly attractive in appearance. The lower floor, will be divided into rooms for five stores. The divided into rooms for five stores. The grand lodge room will be on the second floor, and the ceiling will be even with the fourth floor of the building. The remainder of the third floor will contain a banquet hall and offices of the sacretary. Two lodgerooms, committee-rooms and other apartments adapted to Masonic rites will be on the fourth floor, and the grand commandery rooms and hall of the Eastern Star will occupy the upper story.

TWO MUSICAL EVENTS.

Mendelssohn Numbers and Meritorious Pupils Recital.

At a meeting of the music committee of the First Congregational Church, by an unanimous vote the present quartet of the church was engaged for the ensuing year: Mrs. Rose Bloch-Bauer, soprano; Mrs. W. A. T. Bushong, contralic; W. A. Montgomery, baritone, and Miss Leenorus Fisher, organist and director. The quartet will also sing barttone, and Mine Leonora Fisher, organist and director. The quariet will also sing during June and July services. These musicians are doing faithful and meritorious work, and their friends are giad to hear of their reappointment. At the First Congregational Church the musical programme this evening will be selected from Mendelssohn and as the quariet members have faithfully rehearsed for the event, an unusually good musical rendition may be looked for. Mise Edwina Mastick will on this occasion assist the quariet.

A very successful recital was given last Thursday evening at Allen & Gilbert-Ramaker Company's by S. H. Allen-Goodwyn, assisted by several of his students. It was well attended and Mr. Goodwyn received many congratulations upon the good work accomplished. He has under alls instruction several the student volces, notably those of Miss Mamie Curran, a lyric soprano of great compass and richness of quality, and James C. Rathbone, a tenor who is already becoming well known in the city. Tom Ordemann, Mrs. Viola Gilbert-Ferneyhough, Miss Clara Hatt. R. Adams and H. E. Northup, Mr. Allen-Goodwyn sang with admirable effect several Greek love lyrics. H. V. Milligan was accompanist.

The last day of the contest, which is unique in the history of similar contests conducted by other newspapers and during which more than $20,000 was taken in brought many surprises which will gladden the hearts of some of the candidates and bring disappointment to some. More money was taken in by The Oregonian during the last day of the contest, which is newspapers in metropolitan cities took in during the entire duration of similar

Call on Contest Managers.

Many of the candidates called upon the contest manager yesterday to inquire as to the outcome. Several of them told of vivid experiences they had passed through while canvaxsing for votes. Remarkable energy and perseverance was shown by the young ladies and all of the candidates worked nobly, and it is to be regretted that they cannot all be taken on the delightful trip that has been ar-

one business concern in this city. She is going to the Yellowstone. The manager of this particular business concern was very anxious to have the young lady win out. He inquired among the employes and found that nearly all of them were subscribers to The Oregonian. Most of them had the paper delivered at their homes and paid by the month.

The manager went to them and told them that he would pay all of their sub-scriptions a year in advance and deduct so much a menth from their wages, the same amount they would have to pay the carrier. Then upon the last day all of these subscriptions were turned in to The Oregonian. The advancing of this large sum of money and the extra clerical work caused by the arrangement is evidence of the extraordinary interest taken in the contest.

"If I were compelled to go out and make a living for myself, I believe I would take up soliciting," said one of the young lady candidates yesterday afternoon who is probably one of the winners. "Obtaining subscriptions has become second-nature to me, you might say, and I have got so that I like the work very much.

Experience in Getting Votes.

"When I was first urged by my friends to enter the contest I had but little idea of its magnitude and of the immense number of votes I would have to secure to win out. I first began by outting out coupons from the daily issues of The Oregonian, but I soon found myself at the hottom of the list. I heard that my competitors were out soliciting subscriptions, and I decided to adopt similar tactics. I first talked to my friends and got them and I decided to adopt similar tactics. "The fact that my competitors were ahead of me caused me to muster up sufficient courage to solicit among strangers. At first I felt very much embarrassed and I would approach them in a very timid and half-hearted way. But all of them treated me with the utmost courselver, and I soon felt at home in my new. TROUBLESOME PAINS AND ACHES

While Rheumatism is usually worse in Winter because of the cold and dampness of a changing atmosphere, it is by no means a Winter disease entirely. Persons in whose blood the uric acid, which produces the disease, has collected, feel its troublesome pains and aches all the year round. The cause of Rheumatism is a sour, acid condition of the blood, brought about by the accumulation in the system of refuse matter, which the natural avenues of bodily waste have failed to carry off. This refuse matter coming in contact with the different acids of the body, forms uric acid which is absorbed by the blood and distributed to all parts of the body, and Rheumatism gets ssession of the system. Rheumatic persons are almost constant sufferers; the nagging pains in joints and muscles, are ever present under the most favorable climatic conditions, while exposure to dampness or an attack of indigestion will often bring on the severer symptoms even in warm, pleasant weather. Liniments, plasters, lotions, etc., relieve the pain and give the sufferer temporary comfort, but are in no sense curative; because Rheumatism is not a disease that can be rubbed away or drawn out with a plaster. S. S. S. is the best treatment for Rheumatism; it goes down into the blood and attacks the disease at its head, PURELY VEGETABLE. and building up the thin, sour blood, cures
