

night, Portland will enjoy a decidedly musical week. Both of these engage-musical week. Both of these engagements have been anticipated with unusual interest.

The musical programme given at the annual tea for the Patton Home, last week, was one of unusual merit, and was deeply appreciated by the large assembly of guests, who came out in great numbers, despite the decidedly unpleasant.

MISS KATE LAWLER

F (Cadman); planoforte, "Forest Mur-(Liszt): organ (a) "Minuet" (Dethier); (b), "Barcarolla" (Tchaikow-sky); planoforte and organ, "The Harp of St. Cecilia" (Wiegand); vocal solo, Portland's favorite contralto soloists and Portland's favorite contralto soloists and director of the Westminster Presbyterian Church choir. Mrs. Miller has a full, mellow contralto, beautifully culfivated, and is a favorite wherever she appears. The announcement that she will appear at the Reed concert at the Hellig Theater, December 6, will please her many admirers. her many admirers.

Miss Kathleen Lawler, one of Portland's prominent young singers, will also be one of the soloists presented by Mrs. Reed at her invitation concert, December 6, at the Heilig Theater, Miss Lawler will sing Dell Acqua's "Chansons Provenceles," with all its difficult cadensas. She has a pure, high lyrle soprano, under splendid control, and is well known in musical circles, having been soprano soloist at St. Mary's Cathedral for five years, and at present acting in that capacity at the First Baptist Church. Miss Lawler's latest portrait is presented in today's Domain of Music.

Miss Nancy Beals, soprano, and Miss Miss Kathleen Lawler, one of Port-

Miss Nancy Beals, soprano, and Miss Francis Bingham, contraito, are to sing at the recital to be given for the Glilespie School of Expression, in the Y. M. C. A. hall, next Wednesday evening.

Richard A. Lucchesi is arranging for a musical in the near future, in which he will be assisted by the Graham String Quartet and several vocal soloists.

The second Bach programme was given by the Fortnightly Music Club, Friday, November 16. Papers on "The Instrumental Works of Bach," and "Bach's Cantatas, Oratorios and Passion Music," were read by Miss Nita Briggs and Miss Aurelia Stark. The musical programme: Aria from the cantata, "Ich hatte viel Bekummerniss," Mrs. Dearborn Schwab; bourree in G minor, Miss Eva Lillian Grayes; "My Heart Ever Faithful," Miss Petronella Connolly; prelude, gavotte and musette from third English suite, Miss Betrice Hidden, Handel will be studied at the next meeting, November 30, when selections from "The November 20, when selections from "The Messiah" will be given, Miss M. Evelyn Hurley, who has charge of the music for that day, will be assisted by Mrs. Whitehurst and Mr. John Claire Monteith, Members wishing to bring friends can secure invitations upon application to the corresponding secretary, Mrs. F. P.

The concert to be given on Monday evening, December 10, by Mr. Josef Mere-dith Rosencraniz, the violinist, promises to be one of the Winter's fashionable events of the season.

The Portland Operatic Club met at Dr. William Cumming's residence last Wednesday evening, and went through Leoncavallo's "Pagliacci." Next meet-ing will be held at Arthur Alexander's studio, Ellers Plano House, Mrs. Fred L. Olson, soprane, has been engaged to sing at the Elks' Memorial at Salem, Sunday, December 2, and Miss Elizabeth Harwas, contraite, will sing the same day at the Albany Memorial services. Miss Harwas will sing "Hear Us, O Father" and "A Prayer," the latter composed by Mrs. Edward Alden Beals and sung by Miss Harwas at the Armory several months ago when it received much favorable comment.

The musical department of St. Heion's Hall, in charge of Miss Josephine Hills, Miss Sophie Beebe and Miss Dorella Snook, gave an interesting pupil's recital in the Hall chapel last Thursday evening, which was well attended by the many friends and parents of the school's pupils. The marked advance which is being shown by many of the musical students proved most gratifying to all presented. dents proved most gratifying to all pres-

Mrs. Reed will sing a solo at the even-ing services of the White Temple today,

An informal musicale was given at the home of Mrs. Edward Alden Beats last Saturday evening, which was enjoyed so-cially as well as musically. The pro-gramme rendered included vocal solos by Madame D'Auria, whose singing was much enjoyed by the Portlanders present. The programme was: Vocal duet, "Cradle Song," (Vincent), Misses Nancy Beal; and Frances Bingham; song, "The Sweetest Flower" (Vander Stucken), Miss Suza Jones; aria from Figlia del Regi-mento (Donizetti), "Conveen Parter" Miss of guests, who came out in great numbers which were originally written for the piano and organ, "The Harp ony (Haydn), Miss Joeelyn Foulkes and will include two numbers which were originally written for the piano and organ, "The Harp ony (Haydn), Miss Joeelyn Foulkes and will include two numbers which were originally written for the piano and organ, "Business to be especially (Wegand); vocal solo, "Hark, What Mean These Holy Volces" (Hawley); pianoforte (a) "La Flieuse" (Hawley); pia Elizabeth Harwas; piano duet, 7th Symphony (Haydo), Miss Jocelyn Foulkes and Mrs. H. E. Colman; song, "Love in Southland" (Caufield), Miss Frances Bing-

Established 1879

Established 1879

H.B. LITT-Ladies' and Misses' Outergarments-Announce for MONDAY and TUESDAY many exceptional inducements in

Cloaks and Suits

Short Pony Models, mad? in checks or mannish materials and broadeloth; value $25,00 to $37.50; for Monday and Tues-value $17.50 to $22.50. For Monday and day......$15.00 to $23.50

Broadcloth Suits, or braided Eton models, Large variety of materials and styles; very dressy; trimmed with wide braid and fancy vestee. "Distinctive and exclusive." Value, $50.00 to $75.00; for Monday and Tuesday .. $35.00 to $55.00

Tuesday $10.50

A Superb Showing of Choice Model Gowns and Evening Wraps for the Opera

351 Washington St.] H. B. LITT [Opp. Grand Theater Bet. Park and 7th] H. B. LITT [Mail Orders Filled

(Arditi), Madam D'Auria; "Drink to Me Only" (Anon), Miss Harwas.

The feast of St. Cecelia, Patroness of Music, was celebrated at St. Francis Academy, Twelfth and East Oak streets, last Thursday afternoon by a pupil recital in which the Leschetizky pupils and violin club members participated. The very creditable performances indicated a bright musical future for the academy.

Frederick W. Goodrich has arranged the following programme of organ music for today's services at St. David's Episcopai Church:

Morning—Prelude, "Morning Thought" (Wrightson): offertory, "Largo" (New World Symphony) (Dvorak); postlude, "Fuzue in C Major" (Bach).

Ysaye has bestowed upon Cesar Thom-Ysaye has bestowed upon Cesar Inon-son this graceful eulogium: "I have never known the moment when I did not appreciate the transcendent genius of Cesar Thomson. To the public his match-less technic is his greatest recommenda-tion; to me his musical intensity, ripe musicianship and intellectuality claim my adoration." Thomson comes to America

A proud father took his young tyearold hopeful to church last Sunday, the mother not being able to attend. The small boy, as is usual with this species, asked questions galore, among them being queries about the quartet choir.
The father explained about the tenor being high and the bass low, and "the two ladles the same way—one high and the other low." On arriving home the mother asked laddle how he enjoyed the service, and what pleased him most.
"Well I didn't like much of it, 'ceptin'
the singin," he replied. "That she-bass
was awful nice; wasn't she, papa?"

(Elgar); "Te Deum" and "Jubilate"
(Stanford), and anthem. "The Lord Is Loving Unto Every Man' (Garrett).

The studio of Marie Soule was taxed
to its capacity last Saturday by musical
to its capacity last Saturday by musical for inembers of the piano and harmony class. Mrs. Olsen, soprano, assisted, and was accompanied by Miss Goulet, a member of the class. After the following programme, English tea
was served by Miss Chalmers and Miss Service, and what pleased him most.
"Well I didn't like much of it, 'ceptin'
the singin," he replied. "That she-bass
was awful nice; wasn't she papa?"

(Elgar); "Te Deum" and "Jubilate"
(Stanford), and anthem. "The Lord Is
Loving Unto Every Man' (Garrett).

Johnson's songs were die' (Thayer); (b) 'ary' (Fisher); (c) 'In of May' (Newton). sang 'Amid the Flov song verte by Miss Chalmers and Miss Coulet, a member of the class. After the following programme, English tea
was served by Miss Chalmers and Miss
Service, and what pleased him most.

"Well I didn't like much of it, 'ceptin'
the singin, 'he replied. "That she-bass
was awful nice; wasn't she papa?"

(Newton). Levery Man' (Garrett).

The studio of Marie Soule was taxed
to its capacity last Saturday by musical
to its capacity l

The New England Conservatory Club met last week at the residence of Mrs. Edgar B. Piper. The programme in-cluded a timely sketch of Leoncavallo and his opera, "Pagliacci," which was much enjoyed by the members present. The musical numbers and the account of current musical events were all unof current musical events water insually good, and included:

"Musical Events." Mrs. E. B. Piper;
(a) "Rendi L'Sereno al Ciglio" (Handel).
(b) "Obstination" (Fontenzilles). (c)
"Good Morning" (Grieg), Miss Watt; sketch of Leoncavallo and the opera
"Pagliacei," Mrs. R. F. Praci; "Am (Bendel), Mrs. D. B. Mackle: "Belover It Is Morn" (Aylward), Mrs. E. B. Piper; reading, "Selection From Shelly," Mrs. Grace Watt Ross.

The Clifford Concert Company will en tertain all callers at the Y. M. C. A. Thanksgiving evening, a delightful pro-gramme having been arranged for that occasion. The concert programme will be given between 8:30 and 9:30 o'clock, and from 7:30 until 8:30 there will be an orchestral programme by a well-selected body of musicians. The following numbers will be given in the concept programme:

ing numbers will be given in the concert programme:
Piano solo, "Fifth Nocturne" (Chopin),
Miss Lucia Caffall: selection, Y. M. C.
A. Glee Club, Professor J. W. Cowen leader; readings, Miss Arits Pearcy; songs, "Miss Ethel M. Lytle; corner solo, Fred English; song, "Holy City" (Adams), Master Harry Parsons, A large orchestrs will render selections from orchestra will renden selections from "King Dodo," "Royal Chef" and "Bohemian Girl": waitz, "Eternelle Ivasse"; medley overture, and popular marches.

The junior students of Miss Grace Wilton's plano school will give a recital next Saturday afternoon, when the following young people will play: Grace Crowe, Estella Kleinsmith, Helen Mc-Faul, Marie Brady, Edmund Luithle, Anna Townsend, Helen Pearce, Aagot Lassen, Ray Brandes, Marie Sandercock, Level, Oliver, Eunice Townsend, Eva Jewel Oliver, Eunice Townsend, Eva Vore, Mary Townsend, Nann Mann, Esther Tatham, Irene Brandes, Elsie Quilliam, Florence Crowe, Louise Quilliam, Beryl Litherland and Marian Gould.

Claire Monteith will be the soloist at the organ recital at Calavry Presbyterian Church this evening at 7:30. Mr. Monteith will sing "Gloria," by Buzzi-Peccia, and the organ numbers will include "Magnificat in F" (Claussman) and "Andantino" (Chauvet). The choir numbers are "O Give Thanks" (Huntington Woodman) and "Light of the World" (Parer Starnes). (Percy Starnes).

The First Congregational Church choir The First Congregational Church choir will give this musical programme today: Organ, "Allegretto" (Wolstenholme); quartet, "While the Earth Remaineth" (Tours): soprano and alto duet, "Lead Kindly Light" (Bledermann): postlude "Finale," sonata op. 55-5 (Mendelssohn): organ "Nocturne" (Russell King Miffer) quartet, "Sing Praises Unto the Lord" (Cruickshank): quartet, "There Is a Blessed Home" (Marks); postlude, 'March in G" (Smart).

The musical programme arranged for Grace Church today by William M. Wilder, organist and choirmaster, will be a very attractive one and contains as a a very attractive one and contains as a request number the organ preludium of last Sunday evening.

Morning-Organ, "Dream of Heaven" (Meyer): anthem, "Like as the Heart" (Spencer): solo, "Nearer, Still Nearer" (Morris), G. H. Street; organ, "Processional in C" (Batisto).

Francisco Organ, "Lenio Macsteso"

Frederick W. Goodrich has arranged

pal Church:

Morning Prelude, "Morning Thought" (Wrightson): offertory, "Largo" (New World Symphony) (Dvorak); postlude,
"Fugue in C Major" (Bach), Evening-Prelude, "Vespers" (Wrightson); offertory, "Berceuse (Jocelyn)
(Godard); postlude, "Grand Chocur in D" (Godinart).

The Thanksgiving Day service at St. The Thanksgiving Day service at St. David's Episcopal Church will include the following music:
Introduction to "A Flat Sonata" (Rheinberger); "Pomp and Circumstance" (Elgar); "Te Deum" and "Jubilate" (Stanford), and anthem, "The Lord Is Loving Unto Every Man" (Garrett).

was awful nice; wasn't she, papa?"

Miss Eva Graves entertained last week with a plane recital at Miss Grace Wilton's studio. Her most ambitious numbers were the "Moonlight Senata" (Beethoven): noethrine No. 3 (Liszt); polonalse op 26, No. 1 (Chopin), and "The Carnival" (Schutt). Louise Guillam, a child planiste, added much to the pleasure of the afternoon by playing four Chopin numbers, including the difficult military polonalse in A major.

The New England Conservatory Club

(Godard), Ethel Barksdale: "Tarantelle" (Demee), Eola Richard; valse (Godard), Beatrice Doty; "Cavalier" (Heller), Lorna Ganong: "Voglein" (Grieg), Thora Larsen; "Zivi Klavier Stucko" (Grieg), Daisy Chalmers; "Portrait" (Rubinstein), Mrs. Silas Soule: "Swing" (Pierette), Miss Walker; "Madrigal" (Dack), Vera Kaufmann; "To Spring" (Grieg), Beatrice Evelyn Wilson: "Bon Amie" (Schultz), Alda Broughton; vocal, "Abide With Ma" (Liddle), Mrs. Olsen.

the services: Morning: Organ volunters food to Thee; offertory, "Ye tary, "Prelude and Fugue in F" (Bach); anthem, "The Comforter Came to My recessional, "Praise to God, Immortal Soul One Day" (Nevin); selection, by Praise; postlude, "Processional in A" Temple Girls' Chorus, solo, "Be Thou (Gullmant).

Open Door" (Kuntze), Grace Church Male Chorus; gospel solo (Anon), Miss Ethel Lytle; organ, march (Placke). Our Light," arranged from "Simon-ette," Mrs. Walter Reed; postluce, "Chorus" (Kreutzer). Evening — Or-"Chorus" (Krentzer). Evening — Or-gan selections (a) "Festal Of-fertory" (Griscon); (b) "Intermezzo" fertory" (Bizet); chorus, "Ten Thousand Times Ten Thousand" (Schnecker), direction of Mr. Belcher; quartet, "There Is an Hour of Hallowed Peace" (Barnby).

> Miss Emma Harlow, whose portralt appears on this page today, was re-cently appointed soloist of the Second Baptist Churen. She has a very sympathetic contraits voice, particularly adapted to church music.

Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer's class took up the beautiful three part song, "The Wanderer's Night Song," by Mendelssohn on Tuesday last, Miss Rose Coffee sang "On the Shore" (Neidlinger), and "Robin" (Gerald Lane). Miss Efficients Johnson's songs were: (a) "My Laddie" (Thayer); (b) "Sweet Is Tiperary" (Fisher); (c) "In the Merry Month of May" (Newton). Miss Carrie May sang "Amid the Flowers I Wander," by Meyer-Hellmund. The class is saverly looking forward to the rew assisted, and was accompanied by Miss cagerly looking forward to the new Goulet, a member of the class. After song cycle by Liza Lehman to be given in the near future by Mrs. George

Carl Denton has arranged the follow-Carl Denton has arranged the following organ music to be included in the services at Trinity Church today: Morning, 11 o'cleck, "Allegretto in B." (Guilmant): "Moderato, A-minor" (Rinck): evening at 7:36, "Prelude in C" (Oliver King): "Postlude in Gminor" (Oliver King): F. T. Crowther, baritone, will sing the offertory at both services: Thanksgiving day there will be a special service at 10:30 A. M. The programme follows: Prelude, "Spring Song" (Mendelssohn): processional, "Come, Ye Thankful People, sional, "Come, Ye Thankful I Come"; "Thanksgiving Chant" ley); "Te Deum in C" (Lutkin); At the White Temple Sunday the following is the musical programme for the services: Morning: Organ voluntary, "Prefude and Fugue in F" (Bach); anthem, "The Comforter Came to My Soul One Day" (Newscare of the Services) of the Services of t

Gabrilowitsch Rival of Paderewski Eastern Critics Declare Young Russian Surpasses His Older Countryman.

GABRILOWITSCH, THE EMINENT RUSSIAN PIANIST.

query, "Does Gabrilowitsch Surpass all." Paderewski?"

request number the organ preludium of last Sunday evening.

Morning—Organ, "Dream of Heaven"

Signora Hissin' Signora Bashain!

Morris, G. H. Sireet; organ, "Procession that keys up characteristic Chopin compositions.

"With perfection of technique and brilliancy of execution he has been granted that gift of the gods which distinguishes the artist from him that is only technically correct and nothing more. This is the gift of compelling sympathy from those to whom he plays; Gabrilowitsch is at once master of his instrument and his plano lovers will be promiply looked after.

THREE years ago when Gabrilowitsch. audience, and holds the latter tense as the does the vibrant strings of the former. Europe today grants the young Russian a place in the front rank and concedes that in many phases of his art he is leader of the control of th

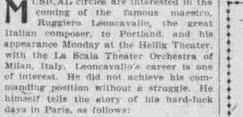

Cabrilowitsch is rapidly widening his Paderewski?"

This present season they rearrange the sentence and leave the question out. They now announce without hesitation that the young Russian does surpass his older countryman. This is a wonderful triumph for Gabrilowitsch for he is only 25 and Paderewski is past 46.

Gabrilowitsch is rapidly widening his former reputation as a special interpreter of Chopin, and those numbers with which he favored his first audiences in the East were played with immense art and insince professional that ultra—almost morbid—refinement of expression that keys up characteristic Leoncavallo, With Famous Musicians of Milan, Italy, Will Appear at Heilig Tomorrow.

"I was born in Naples in March, 1858," Leoncavallo begins. "My father was the distinguished Cavaller Vincent Leoncavallo, a presiding magistrate. My mother was Virginia d'Aurio, the daughter of the celebrated Neapolitan painter, who has left many canvases in the Royal palace at Naples. I made my first studies at Naples and entered the conservatory as an outside pupil at the age of 8 years. I received my diploma as master at the

"I had not done my military service because at the moment when I should have begun it my older brother was still in the service, and I commenced my tours as concert planist by going to Egypt, where at that time my uncle resided-M. Leoncavallo-Bey, who was director of the press bureau in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. In Egypt I played at court and the brother of the Viceroy, Tewfik-Mahmoud-Hamdy, appointed me his chamber musician. Unfortunately the chamber musician. Unfortunately the position did not last long. I was driven out of Egypt by the war with the English. After the battle of Tel-el-Kebir, I disguised myself as an Arab, and fled on horseback for 24 hours as far as ismailia. There I resumed European garments, but having no money, I was obliged to give a concert at Port Said. It brought me 500 or 600 francs, with which I was able to take passage on an English ship for Marsellies.

"Arriving there, I went on to Parls in profound discouragement. I had to begin by accompanying singers at the cafe con-certs. I recall one occasion in particular, when I went to Corell for eight francs, besides a dinner, my railroad fare and a supper. When they brought me into the concert-room imagine my surprise! There was no plane, but a little harmonium, and the singers had no music, except the litthe street, with the melody alone, without accompaniment. Nevertheless this did not hinder them from commanding me: 'Master, a tone and a half lower, please.' It appears that I did astonishing things at these accompaniments, because the next these accompaniments, because the next these accompaniments. day one of the little agencies of the cafe concerts in the suburbs wanted the little lows: italian who was very strong, according to the recommendation of the singers to the recommendation of the singers whom I had accompanied.

"After I had had enough of this I broke out of the circle of cafe concerts, and began to accompany singers in their practices for serious opera."

The programme for the two perform-ances Monday at the Hellig are as fol-Matinge, 2:15.

This almost, but not quite, ended the hard-inch days which had their columns.

Pope Plus X. Signora Farrabini Maza—Walfzer.

"Ave Maria" (dedicated to his Holiness Pope Plus X. Signoria Rizzini and artists ties for serious opera."

This almost, but not quite, ended the hard-luck days, which had their culmination in Milan, where "Pagliacel" was finally produced in a frenzy of desperation

Pope Pius X. Signoria Rizzini and artist PART II.
Suite Ancienne (two movements). Orchestra
Boheme—Duo Mimi, and Musette.
Signorias Rizzini and Ferrabini
Pagliacci—Duo Silvio and Nedda.
Signoria (talvi and Sig. de Ferran
Signoria (talvi and Sig. de Ferran)

Night, 8:15 o'Clock. PART I.

"Ave Maria" (dedicated to his Holiness Pope Pins X), Signorina Rizzini and artists

Macchi.