

VOL. XXVI.

PORTLAND, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 3, 1907.

NO. 5.

New Spring 1907 Goods Are Being Opened and Displayed Daily in Every Department

"The Far Horizon" By Lucas Malet. The author's first novel since "The History of Sir Richard Calmady..."

FEBRUARY BUTTERICK PATTERNS 10c AND 15c—NO HIGHER. Lipman, Wolfe & Co. Good Merchandise Only—Quality Considered Our Prices Are Always the Lowest.

Valentines. St. Valentine's day will soon be here. Lipman-Wolfe's are showing the prettiest Valentines in town.

A WORD REGARDING OUR PRICES

A STORE which carries high-grade goods is often known as "high-priced" without in any way deserving the term. It is the penalty for keeping the best. We have now and then noticed this in our own case, although any shopper who has occasion to make comparison knows that "quality considered, our prices are always the lowest."

$1.25 New Spring Silks, 98c Yd.

5000 yards of New Silks that will be most popular for spring wear—in checks, black stripes, blocked with swivel effects, plaids, silver grays and jaspers; regular $1.25 value 98c in new silks, only.

$1.50 "Gold Standard" Black Taffeta $1.19 Yard

Black Taffetas are going to be very popular for outer garments this season. A dependable silk is the famous "Gold Standard" Black Taffeta for which we are sole Portland agents—full yard wide, soft chiffon finish; just what you want for shirtwaist suits and jumpers; a taffeta most stores would ask $1.50 a yard for; $1.19 introductory sale.

Long Coats, Vals. to $20 for $7.85

The Lipman-Wolfe School of Style offers at special sale 37 Women's Long Coats in the styles that have sold at $20.00 and even higher; new and perfect in every respect; $7.85 extraordinary value at.

Just 24 Exquisite Silk Dresses

$22.50-$25 Values

$14.89

For Monday Sale the Lipman-Wolfe School of Style offers a special lot of exquisite Silk Dresses for street and afternoon wear, in black, navy and brown, made of finest chiffon taffeta silks, with short sleeves, in tucked, plaited and lace-trimmed styles, with fancy yoke effects; Skirts made in the new plaited styles. A beautiful, stylish and exclusive dress at an extraordinary bargain. Sold regularly at $22.50 and $25.00. Special for Monday $14.89. Hundreds of Odd Suits, Coats, Petticoats, Waists, Furs, Etc., reduced from 10 to 75 per cent for clearance.

Annual Sale of Dress Goods Remnants

A yearly event that prudent shoppers wait for eagerly, knowing full well that in scope and magnitude no remnants sale can begin to compare with it. The greatest stock of remnants to choose from, because we do the largest dress goods business in Portland. There are 4000 remnants of Black, Cream and Colored Dress Goods, all wool and silk and wool; all lengths up to six yards in broadcloths, serges, chevots, mohairs, Panamas, voiles, crepe de Paris, Henriettas, shadow and Scotch plaids, challies, batistes, albatross, brilliantines, cravenettes, tailor suitings, poplins and imported novelties. Marked for clearance at...

HALF PRICE

Real Waterproof Auto Coats

Reg. $17.50 Values for $4.95

Special for Monday, 25 genuine Hodgman Rainproof Automobile Coats, which can also be used for street wear, made in silk and linen finish, with trimmed belts and turned cuffs, ornamented with buttons. Regular $17.50 values, reduced to $4.95.

Cipman, Wolfe & Co.

Good Merchandise Only—Quality Considered Our Prices Are Always the Lowest.

Sale of High Class Embroideries

VALUES TO $1.25 AT 25c YARD

10,000 yards of beautiful Nansook and Swiss Embroidery and Flouncing, 10 to 18 inches wide, in a great variety of the very newest designs imported direct from St. Gall. Values to $1.25 a yard. Actually the greatest embroidery bargain in years. Extra clerks to wait on you. We advise you to be early 25c

Values to $2.50 at 87c yd.

Swiss and Nansook Flouncing, 18 and 20 inches wide, value to $2.50 a yard. An extraordinary bargain in this great 87c Embroidery sale at.

VERY SPECIAL SALE

To $2.25 Waists, $1.39

The new Spring and Summer Lingerie Waists are now here in all their dainty and fresh beauty. Very special for Monday we offer seven distinct styles, selling regularly to $2.25.

SPRING 1907 EMBROIDERED LINGERIE WAISTS

Made with the new three-quarter sleeves, in unique embroidery patterns, the very newest and daintiest creations, sold at the very opening of the season at this special sale.

$1.39

Odd Lot Corsets

$4.50 Val., $1.49

Odd lot of famous La Vida and Nemo Corsets; broken styles and sizes; values $4.50; choice $1.49

ODD LOT OF GIRDLERS

VALUES TO $1.25 AT 50c

Odd lots of famous La Vida and Girdles, in three styles—dip hip and girdle bust; medium bust and short hip, and nursing corsets; sizes 18 to 26; values to $1.25; clearance 50c Monday at

HOSE SUPPORTERS

35c VALUES FOR 19c

Military straight-front Hose Supporters, made of extra strong elastic; regular 35c value; special for only 19c

$1.50 ROLLED GOLD BRACELET 70c

Bracelets of fine rolled gold plate, plain bands, some with signet top for engraving; $1.50 values. 75c

BARGAINS

$1.25 Hair Brushes, 50c

1000 Imported Hair Brushes, with hand-drawn bristles; either bleached or unbleached; rose-wood or ebony backs.

Tooth Powder 12 1-2c

Dr. Sheffield's Antiseptic Tooth Powder, made to sell at 25c.

35c Tooth Brushes, 18c

1000 Imported Tooth Brushes, regular 35c values, well made.

85c Corset Covers, 49c

Odd lot of nansook and cambric Corset Covers, with lace, insertion, heading and ribbon trimming.

$1.35 Nightgowns, 98c

All our $1.35 and $1.25 Women's Flannel Gowns, Japanese and square yoke effect, turndown and military collars, in fancy pink, blue and gray stripes.

25c Nail Brushes, 11c

Imported Nail Brushes, with hand-drawn bristles.

Toilet Articles: Sale

Zeet Toilet Paper, dozen... 45c
35c Shaving Brushes... 12c
Borated Talcum Powder... 5c
French Perfumes, all colors, oz... 25c
Hygienic Liquid Tooth Wash... 16c
White, Rose, Iris, Turkish Bath, Glycerine, Oatmeal and Violet Soap, dozen... 45c

ODD LOTS INFANTS' SKIRTS, Vals. to $3.50 at $1.49

Odd lot of Infants' long Embroidered Flannel and White Skirts, lace and insertion trimmings; values to $3.50; special $1.49

HUGHES GOVERNS WITHOUT A BOSS

Ignores Leaders in Appointments.

KEEPS HIS CAMPAIGN PLEDGE

Acts as Governor of All the People of the State.

WOODRUFF HAS GIVEN UP

Seeing Uselessness of Trying to Dictate Appointments, He Goes to Europe—Parsons Jarred by Leary's Success.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—(Special.)—That Governor Hughes is running an absolutely bossless administration was emphasized today when Timothy L. Woodruff, chairman of the Republican state committee, officially announced that he was going to Europe.

"There does not seem to be anything here that requires my personal attention at the present time," he said, and he never smiled. Woodruff realizes that his word carries absolutely no weight at Albany and, like a prudent man, he is going away, dreading nothing that "absence will make the heart grow fonder."

It was a political secret, carefully and obtrusively circulated, that Woodruff only took the state chairmanship after having been assured that the first vacancy in the United States Senate would belong to him. But should Thomas C. Platt or Chauncey M. Depew die nobody in the state now believes that Mr. Hughes would name Mr. Woodruff as his successor. For Mr. Hughes does not like Mr. Woodruff personally, nor does he trust him politically, and he is thoroughly convinced that he would have carried Brooklyn last Fall had it not been for the fact that the former Lieutenant-Governor is mighty unpopular among his neighbors. In which opinion, it might be added, the rank and file of his party heartily agree with the Governor.

Runs Machine Himself.

Ever since Mr. Hughes took office the uninformed press has written more or less about the "private wire" between the Governor at Albany and the President at the White House. The truth of the matter is, as one State Senator confessed today, "the Governor is running the whole blamed machine himself and nobody can stop him with a red light or an ax."

County Chairman Herbert Parsons, leader of New York County, was told by the Governor that he would not appoint Lewis Swazey as Superintendent of Elections. Mr. Parsons scurried to Washington, and then hastily backtracked to Albany.

"The President," he said to the Governor, "does not think William Leary is a good man for the job." Mr. Hughes smiled, that sadly frank smile that has already worried and mystified the politicians.

"I am so sorry," he said. "That was in the morning. The same evening he sent Mr. Leary's nomination to the Senate. Mr. Leary was confirmed and is now hard at work."

Perhaps young Mr. Parsons, who is a Congressman, misinterpreted the President. Perhaps he did not. Anyway Mr. Hughes clearly indicated that, as he is the man who is responsible for appointments, he intends to be the "court of final resort" himself.

Governor for All the People.

Though the office of Superintendent of State Elections is not one of the larger state positions, and its occupancy by any particular man is not regarded as of great importance, the flat, though polite, refusal of the Governor to accept dictation from the fountain-head of Republican authority, is believed to be of superlative interest and significance. The few men who have learned of the episode say that it proves beyond question or cavil many things and it disproves with equal certainty many other things. They say that among the things proved are, first, that Charles Evans Hughes has taken the word of the people of New York State that they wish him to be Governor, and that his own judgment, and not that of another or group of others, is his court of last resort. Second, that he does not intend his appointments to be humiliating for Mr. Woodruff or Mr. Parsons or the Wadsworths, or anybody else; and, third, that he is not intentionally building a machine for himself or strengthening the machine of another. In other words, he is literally carrying out the programme which he laid out for himself during the campaign, to be the Governor, not of a faction or a party, but of all the people of the Empire State.

Machine Men Can't Believe.

Of course you cannot make Mr. Woodruff or Mr. Aldridge or Mr. Hendricks or Lou Payn or any of the other powerful leaders believe this. They are one and all confident that the Governor is building a political machine of his own and each and everyone of them wants to get on the band wagon. So they have paid many visits to Albany and devoted hours to explaining to the Governor how the appointment of John

HUGHES GOVERNS WITHOUT A BOSS

Ignores Leaders in Appointments.

KEEPS HIS CAMPAIGN PLEDGE

Acts as Governor of All the People of the State.

WOODRUFF HAS GIVEN UP

Seeing Uselessness of Trying to Dictate Appointments, He Goes to Europe—Parsons Jarred by Leary's Success.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—(Special.)—That Governor Hughes is running an absolutely bossless administration was emphasized today when Timothy L. Woodruff, chairman of the Republican state committee, officially announced that he was going to Europe.

"There does not seem to be anything here that requires my personal attention at the present time," he said, and he never smiled. Woodruff realizes that his word carries absolutely no weight at Albany and, like a prudent man, he is going away, dreading nothing that "absence will make the heart grow fonder."

It was a political secret, carefully and obtrusively circulated, that Woodruff only took the state chairmanship after having been assured that the first vacancy in the United States Senate would belong to him. But should Thomas C. Platt or Chauncey M. Depew die nobody in the state now believes that Mr. Hughes would name Mr. Woodruff as his successor. For Mr. Hughes does not like Mr. Woodruff personally, nor does he trust him politically, and he is thoroughly convinced that he would have carried Brooklyn last Fall had it not been for the fact that the former Lieutenant-Governor is mighty unpopular among his neighbors. In which opinion, it might be added, the rank and file of his party heartily agree with the Governor.

Runs Machine Himself.

Ever since Mr. Hughes took office the uninformed press has written more or less about the "private wire" between the Governor at Albany and the President at the White House. The truth of the matter is, as one State Senator confessed today, "the Governor is running the whole blamed machine himself and nobody can stop him with a red light or an ax."

County Chairman Herbert Parsons, leader of New York County, was told by the Governor that he would not appoint Lewis Swazey as Superintendent of Elections. Mr. Parsons scurried to Washington, and then hastily backtracked to Albany.

"The President," he said to the Governor, "does not think William Leary is a good man for the job." Mr. Hughes smiled, that sadly frank smile that has already worried and mystified the politicians.

"I am so sorry," he said. "That was in the morning. The same evening he sent Mr. Leary's nomination to the Senate. Mr. Leary was confirmed and is now hard at work."

Perhaps young Mr. Parsons, who is a Congressman, misinterpreted the President. Perhaps he did not. Anyway Mr. Hughes clearly indicated that, as he is the man who is responsible for appointments, he intends to be the "court of final resort" himself.

Governor for All the People.

Though the office of Superintendent of State Elections is not one of the larger state positions, and its occupancy by any particular man is not regarded as of great importance, the flat, though polite, refusal of the Governor to accept dictation from the fountain-head of Republican authority, is believed to be of superlative interest and significance. The few men who have learned of the episode say that it proves beyond question or cavil many things and it disproves with equal certainty many other things. They say that among the things proved are, first, that Charles Evans Hughes has taken the word of the people of New York State that they wish him to be Governor, and that his own judgment, and not that of another or group of others, is his court of last resort. Second, that he does not intend his appointments to be humiliating for Mr. Woodruff or Mr. Parsons or the Wadsworths, or anybody else; and, third, that he is not intentionally building a machine for himself or strengthening the machine of another. In other words, he is literally carrying out the programme which he laid out for himself during the campaign, to be the Governor, not of a faction or a party, but of all the people of the Empire State.

Machine Men Can't Believe.

Of course you cannot make Mr. Woodruff or Mr. Aldridge or Mr. Hendricks or Lou Payn or any of the other powerful leaders believe this. They are one and all confident that the Governor is building a political machine of his own and each and everyone of them wants to get on the band wagon. So they have paid many visits to Albany and devoted hours to explaining to the Governor how the appointment of John

OMAHA AFTER COAST TRADE

Trainload of Business Men Will Visit Portland in June.

OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 2.—(Special.)—Omaha manufacturers and jobbers have determined to make special effort to increase their trade territory in the Northwest. For the past several years the members of the Manufacturers' and Jobbers' Association, commonly known as the Commercial Club, have been making trade-booming excursions throughout the territory within a few hundred miles of Omaha. At a recent meeting of the trade extension committee of the association, it was decided to make but one excursion this year, and that to cover the territory reached by the Burlington and the Northern Pacific railroads in the Northwest. Two weeks will be required to make the trip, and every town of consequence on the route as far West as Portland will be visited. The outgoing trip will be made over the Burlington and Northern Pacific, and the return over the Union Pacific and Oregon Short Line. The difference in distance from Omaha to points on the Northern Pacific and from St. Paul to same points is less than a mile. Omaha business men believe that if the right methods be adopted much business can be gained that now goes to St. Paul, Minneapolis, and other commercial centers. For some years a number of Omaha houses have been regularly supplying goods to merchants of the Northwest, and some of the large dry-goods houses have branches in Pacific Coast cities.

The trip will be made in June, and about 100 of the business men, the managers of houses, will accompany the train, which will consist of a number of palatial Pullman cars.

JUDGE UPBRAIDS PRISONER

In Passing Sentence on Murderer, He Denounces His Character.

HELENA, Mont., Feb. 2.—Edward P. Mason, a dishonorably discharged soldier, was found guilty this afternoon in the Federal court of killing Riley L. Huff, September 11 last, at Fort Assiniboine, and was sentenced to 10 years in the penitentiary at Deer Lodge. Judge Hunt said in part:

"I wish to say I never, during the time I have been sitting on the bench, saw a more depraved individual while on trial than you. You are a rambler. Your associates have been law-breakers and thieves. You are a perjurer and confessed to committing larceny."

Huff was found dead in his quarters at the post four days after the commission of the crime, with his head crushed in. Later his watch was found on Mason. The evidence was purely circumstantial.

Mason's father is a prominent commission merchant in New York.

HERETIC IS FORCED OUT

Cincinnati Preacher Too Liberal in His Views to Suit Bishop.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 2.—Rev. George Clark Cox, rector of Calvary Church of this city, last night resigned. His resignation is due to the recent letter of Bishop Boyd Vincent, in which the latter condemns the utterances of Mr. Cox as heretical. After the appearance of the letter of the bishop, Mr. Cox's supporters advised him to resign.

The Cox case came to public notice through an open letter from the clergyman to Bishop Vincent, which was published in the Living Church, in which Mr. Cox avowed his disbelief in the immaculate conception, bodily resurrection and other vital doctrines of the church. Shortly afterward an information against Mr. Cox, charging him with heresy, was filed with the standing committee of the diocese.

Witness in Townsend Case.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Samuel Bell and Floyd Flood were arrested here today to act as witnesses to the murder of Dr. Charles W. Townsend, who was shot and mortally wounded at his home in New Brighton, Staten Island, a week ago. Bell is a step-brother of John Bell, the streetcar conductor who is held without bail in the case. Flood is a friend of Samuel Bell.