PRIMARY CALLED ON PRESIDENCY

California Republican Voters Will Declare Their Choice.

TAFT MEN ARE HEADED OFF

State Committee Avoids Indorsement by Calling Primary-Battle Between Taft and Foraker Extends to Coast.

SAN TRANCISCO, Jan. 18.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the California State Central Committee of the Republican party. tral Committee of the Republican party, held in the St. Francis Hotel today, a decision was reached to allow the people in unofficial primaries to express their choice for the Presidency. The candidate indorsed by the people at these primaries will be the choice of the Republican delegation to the National convention. This method was chosen as a compromise between the element demanding an indorsement for Secretary Taff and the anti-Taff element.

Heads Off Taft Resolution.

The Lincoln-Roosevelt League had one member on the committee. Colonel Forbes, of Marysville, and he was prepared to force the Taft Indorsement over the heads of the machine men. To block this plan. George Stone, the state chairman, introduced the resolution providing for the unofficial primaries. These viding fors the unofficial primaries, I ness primaries will take place on May 2, to be followed on May 5 by the selection of delegates to the state convention. The machine, however, refrained from an out-and-out indorsement of President

Roosevell, confining itself to a declara-tion of faith. "in the policies of the ad-ministration."

Glad to Compromise.

The Lincoln-Roosevelt League has aldency. Golonel Forbes went to the meeting of the State Central Committee today prepared to force the committee to go on record in regard to Mr. Taft.
When the time came, he drew out of his pocket his Taft resolution and was about to spring it, when Mr. Stone left the chair abrupily and took the floor. Mr.

When Colonel Forbes asked for a better indersement of Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Stone ruled that the President had "already been indersed."

Fight of Taft and Anti-Taft.

The Lincoln-Roosevelt League will now make a fight throughout the state for the indorsement of Mr. Taft. The machine will flight Mr. Taft, but has kept to itself the name of the candidate it desires to indorse, although it is reported that Foraker influences are at work.

Stories that have been published during the week about the resignation of the Secretary have been wide of the mark. He has had no thought of resigning. He has spoken his mind freely to the President, and the President likes a man who comes up to the mark and shoots

There is not any doubt at all that Mr. Cortelyou has told the President that he is at outs with him on the proposition of nominal indorsement of one member of his cabinet for the Presidency, Mr. Roosevelt, without doubt, has told Mr. Cortelyon he admires him for the opinion he has expressed. To a certain extent these men are reckoning on the choice by the Republicans of a candidate dictated by President Roosevelt, and so committed to a continuation of his policies.

If the moving spirits of this conference can have their way, there will be adopted on Thursday or at subsequent meetings resolutions pledging all the conferees to work for a platform ab-solutely "safe and same" and a candi-date who would stand on such a plat-form without reserve.

Organizing for Bryan.

OMAHA, Jan. 18.-Mayor James C. OMAHA, Jan. 18.—Mayor James C. Dahiman, Democratic National Committeeman for Nebraska, will have active control of the movement to organize the Bryan voters. He said today that steps were being taken to organize the Bryan voters in every precinct in the United States. He believes that by the middle of July, the organization will be ready to take up the campaign all over the country and make an active canvass in every state of the Union. The Mayor stated that the Bryan managers would depend to a large extent on this organization to provide a campaign fund to be used by the National Committee the coming Fall.

Mrs. Williams came to Washington December 24, and soon afterward instituted suit against her husband, who is a legal resident of Salem. Williams, in his answer, denies the charge that he has refused to aid in supporting his wife, but admits that they have had differences. admits that they have had differences arising from financial matters of a trivial nature. He says he receives $1600 from his position in the Government service and owes considerable money. He alleges he is now confronted with $300 worth of debts contracted by Mrs. Williams and for which he is held liable.

Mr. Heney proposed to show by the letter that the sending of a special agent to Fossil by the Interior Department was brought about through the efforts of E. A. Putnam and other settlers, and not by the application of Hall, which counsel for the defense in their opening address to the jury announced they would prove.

The Hitchcock-Greene letter, in all probability, will be offered by the Government later in the trial following any attempt of the defense to claim for Hall the credit for finally securing an investigation of the alleged illegal fencing of the Butte Creek grazing lands.

More Letters Discovered.

Putnam resumed the stand yesterday morning and concluded his story by telling of the visit to Fossil in July, 1903, of Special Agent Dixon, who inspected the enclosed land and ordered the owners to remove the fences. Other letters that passed between Putnam and Hall in April, 1999, which had been found since Friday, were offered during the foreneon session, showing that Putnam had described to Hall the line of fence by which the Government property had been filegally enclosed. One of these letters also enclosed the names of the incorporators of the Butte Creek Land, Lumber & Livestock Company.

At 11 o'clock Putnam was turned over to the defense for cross-examination, but questioning by Judge Webster developed nothing of importance except the admission of the witness that when he called on Hall personally in July, 1902. Hall appeared interested in assisting the settlers in their fight against the Butte Creek Walton Corroborates Putnam.

D. M. Walton, a settler residing near Fossil, was the next witness called by the Sovernment. In the main his testimony was corroborative of that offered by Putnam, and consisted largely of a descrip tion of the alleged fraudulent homesteads that had been filed by various persons pany. Witness also identified the petition, addressed to Secretary Hitche of the Interior Department, which he had circulated. Walton said Putnam sent a similar petition to Binger Hermann, Commissioner of the General Land Office, in 1902, but had heard nothing from it. Therefore he forwarded the pe tition to Hitchcock a year later. Under date of May 4, 1904, Walton testified that he wrote to Hall saying that he had heard nothing from Special Agent Dixon and his report. He also informed Hall in this letter that the Butte Creek Company had not opened any of the en-closed range and had not removed any of the alleged illegal fences. He further complained that because of a fence on William Townsend's claim, which adtoined land owned by Stelwer's company the enclosure had been completed, and he and his neighbors were shut off from the grazing lands. Understanding With Hall.

Walton further alleged in his letter that Townsend had told a neighbor, Ed Morcan that he had an understanding with Hall by which it "would not cost him s cent if he did not remove the fence on his

This letter was introduced, together with the reply from Hall, written May 19, 1904. In it Hall said that he proposed to prosecute the Butte Creek Company as soon as he could secure the presence of Special Agent Dixon, who had made the investigation of the alleged illegal fencing. Hall further declared that he would also endeavor to take up the criminal case against Townsend, and requested Walton to tell Townsend that he had never told Townsend that it would not cost him a cent, or that he would not be prosecuted. Hall insisted that he had fence down, and keep it down, it would be better for him.

Ordered Off of Ranch.

The witness testified that he was ordered out of the enclosed pasture on February 7, 1968, by Clarence B. Zachary, foreman for the Butte Creek Company. He explained that he was riding through the pasture on his way to Fossii when ordered off the premises. The reason he selected that route, he said, was that it was the shorter way from his ranch to Fossil. Court here adjourned until 19 o'clock tomorrow morning.
