SAN FRANCISCO, June 29 .- (Special.) --Oakland made it four in a row this afternoon by hammering the benders of Slim Marshall and Ote Johnson to the remote corners of the lot, while a drizzling rain caused the fans to wish they had renained at the cozy fireside. Umpire O'Conneil and the increasing rain mercifully put an end to the uneven struggle at the close of the seventh inning, with the score 9 to 0 in favor of the Com-

seemed to have everything, and Dugdale's men could not connect except occasionally. For the first five innings the youngster mowed his opponents down one-two-three. Frisk, McKune and Allen succeeded in getting singles in the last four rounds, but none of them went beyond first base, Bennett, who got a base yond first base. Hemsett, who got a base on balls and was sacrificed to second, was the only visitor to get that far around the circuit. The Tigers played superb ball behind their latest find. BREAKS POLE-VAULT RECORD S. C. Lawrence Sets New Mark for and legal lights, and for a while it looked as if they were to be the goods. Billy Banks played second like a major-leaguer at times, but when a couple of very hard chances came his way, he foozled the approach. With two down, Steadman drew a pass and Campbell dropped a three-bagger into the melee, scoring Steadman. Doble walked, and both Campbell and Doble scored on Young's single. The ollmixers and lawyers qualed one.

The pillmixers and lawyers pushed one run over in the second inning. Tures bingles brought in the lone ace. In the third, three hits, one of Fenton's two-sackers and a couple of boots, put the lawyers and doctors in the lead. Two lawyers and doctors in the least. I we more runs in the fourth made them very happy, but the balloon went up in the hanker's half of the sixth. Four runs were chased home and then just to show the ex-college cracks that the fun wasn't over, those bankers made five more in the seventh. What happened after this no-body knows.
