PORTLAND ONLY PLACE FOR HER

SPOKANE MAN THEREFORE LOSES HIS WIFE.

Bigelow Couldn't Endure Relatives Here and Spouse Found Life Dreary in Falls City.

SPOKANE, Wash., June 27.—(Special.)—Because Mae C. Bigelow refused to live with her husband in Spokane, saying Portland is the only city for her, a divorce was granted today. "As I interpret the law as it now stands," said Judge Sullivan in passing on the case, "the husband has the right to say where he and his family shall live. If the wife cannot adapt herself to such a situation, I see no alternative but to grant the divorce." John P. Bigelow is a bookkeeper. Mae C. Bigelow, whose maiden name was not disclosed, is said to come from a prominent Portland family. "I found it simply impossible to live with my wife and have a moment's peace in Portland on account of her family," said Bigelow. "A year ago last July she packed up her belongings and went back to Portland. No, she didn't say she would never live with me again. She just said she would never live in Spokane again. I've asked her to come back and offered to pay her way. But she can't hear me. She and I got on all right; the trouble was all with the relatives. Portland was her home and she couldn't see anything worth living for, even me, if Spokane."

Woman Had Rejected Advances for Reconciliation.

Los Angeles expert machinist follows wife here and first vainly attempts suicide—Sought possession of their child. Chester C. Holloway, an expert machinist, of Los Angeles, 50 years of age, shot and perhaps fatally wounded his pretty young wife, an operator at the central office of the Pacific States Telephone Company, last night at the home of the woman's sister, Mrs. Stella Dawson, 524 Roselawn avenue, in Highland. Mrs. Dawson and her two small children witnessed the tragedy, and her little 6-year-old son suffered a fractured arm in falling from a chair that was overturned by his aunt as she fell wounded to the floor. As the woman fell, her clothing, which was ignited by the close proximity of the weapon when it was fired, began to burn fiercely. Her sister, Mrs. Dawson, ran screaming towards the door in the hope of calling neighbors, but desisted because of the piteous pleas of her sister. "Come back, and put out the fire," said the wounded woman as the flames enveloped her body, "it hurts more than the wounds."

BELIEVE BRYAN IS SURE TO LOSE

BusinessMenConfident Taft Will Win.

COULD NOT DEFEAT JOHNSON

But Consider Bryan's Nomination Certain.

BATTLE VIRTUALLY OVER

Anti-Bryan Democrats and Many Republicans Sure Nebraska Will Lose Election—Convention to Play Republican Game.

WALTER WELLMAN IN THE RECORD-HERALD

CHICAGO, June 27.—(Special.)—Bryan will get the nomination, but Johnson could win the election. Such is the opinion of all the anti-Bryan Democrats. It is also the opinion of many Republicans. The Bryan Democrats believe the Nebraska the strongest candidate their party could name. And in this view they are supported by a few neutral, independent observers. Now that Taft has been chosen as the Republican standard-bearer, and the nomination of Bryan at Denver appears inevitable, it is interesting to take stock of the great diversity of opinions held as to the outcome of the campaign by men whose judgment is usually of value. Nomination and Defeat Sure. It is the widely prevalent belief among business men and men of affairs that Bryan is sure to be nominated, that he is as sure to be defeated at the polls, and that, with the Denver convention doing that, which it is generally expected to do, the battle for the Presidency is already virtually over, and Taft is as good as elected to sit in the high chair. To this view the business and financial worlds are already adjusting themselves and their affairs. They wait only to see if the expected happens at Denver. If it does, they will, for the most part, go about their affairs with a serene faith that nothing is likely to happen to place the result in doubt. Whether these men are or are not justified in holding that view remains to be seen. The important fact is that they do now hold it and are proceeding accordingly. And those who hold this opinion are Democrats as well as Republicans. Believe Johnson Could Win. Another phase of the public mind, so far as the men of whom we are now writing are concerned, is an equally strong belief that, if the Democratic convention should happen to name Johnson instead of Bryan, then the election of Taft would not be a certainty, and that, if the ballots are counted in November, the outcome must remain a matter of doubt. The unanimity of this opinion among men of affairs, regardless of their usual party affiliation, is certainly a most significant fact at the present hour. If the Denver convention is to nominate the man the Republicans want it to nominate, because of their confidence that they can easily beat him, it will name Bryan. If that convention is to name the man the Republicans do not want it to name, because they fear him, it will nominate the Governor of Minnesota.

HOLDS DISEASE BAR TO MARRIAGE

CONSUMPTIVE GIRL GIVES SWEETHEART PROPERTY.

Learning She Cannot Recover, She Breaks Off Match, but Proves Love by Will.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—(Special.)—Miss Maria Bernardine, of San Martin, a small town near Gilroy, Cal., renounced George C. Mangels after her trousseau had been prepared for her wedding, when she discovered that she had tuberculosis of the lungs, but as an indication of her love bequeathed him all her property in her will. On learning of the exact nature of the disease Miss Bernardine, as a matter of conscience, refused to marry, although Mr. Mangels with full knowledge of the facts, urged her to do so. She was steadfast until the end. Her will showed that all her property had been left to her betrothed as part compensation for his loss. "I would have married Mr. Mangels," she will recited, "if I had been able to recover my health. As I could not, marrying was out of the question. I have designedly left him all that I possess as the best testimonial that lies in my power to give." The story came to light today when a statement of the amount of collateral inheritance tax from the estate was filed with the County Clerk.

REBELS ADVANCE ON RICH TORREON

Swarm in Mexican State of Coahuila.

ARMY OF 4000 TO 7000 MEN

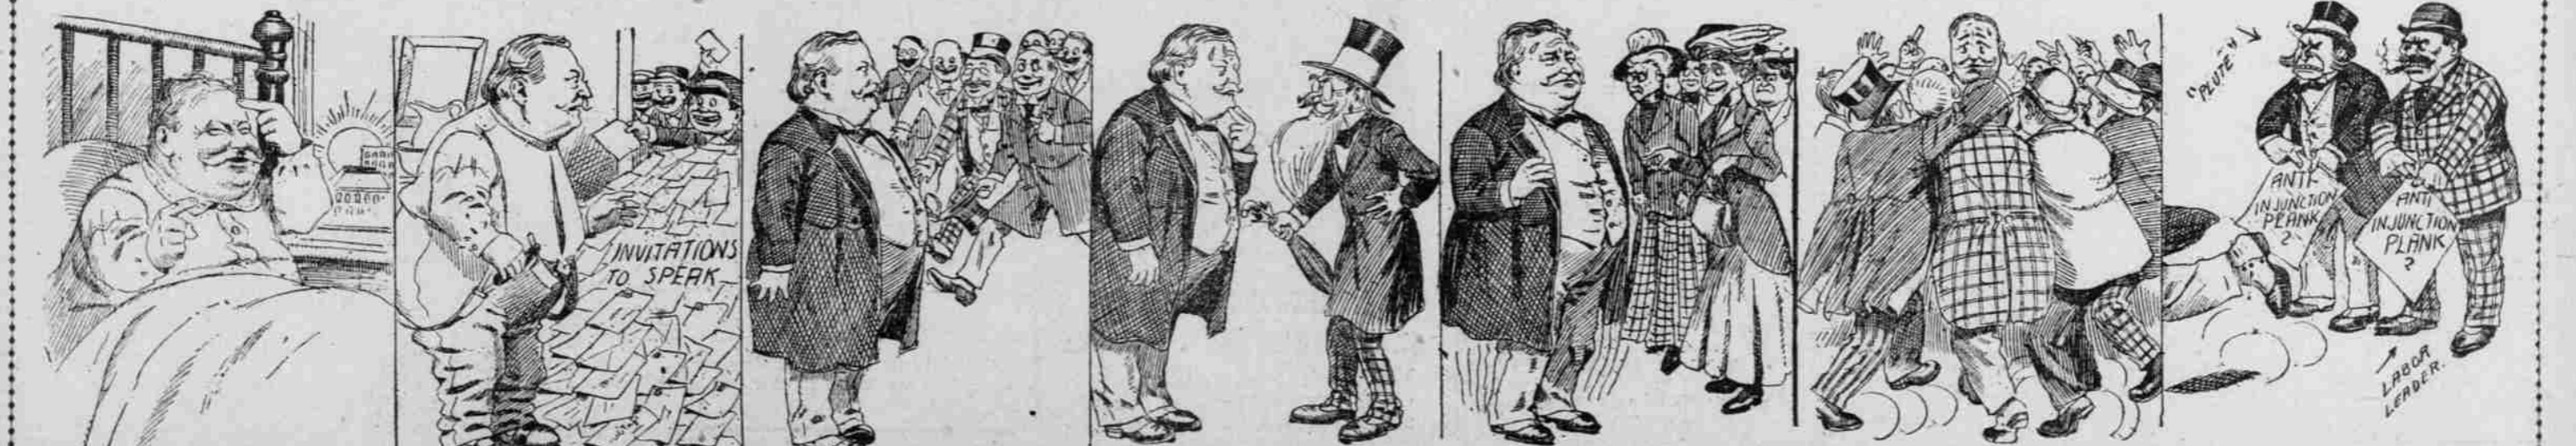

Purpose Is to Loot City, Which Has Six Banks.

OVERTHROW RULE OF DIAZ

Supposed Purpose of Outbreak, Though Governor of Coahuila May Be Target—Railroad Bridges Are Burned.

EL PASO, June 27.—El Correo, the conservative daily Mexican newspaper of Chihuahua, in its issue this morning, which arrived here tonight, has a story that an army of a strength variously estimated at from 4000 to 7000 men is marching on Torreon, one of the richest cities in the State of Coahuila. The story, after reviewing the attack on Venosa, tells of reported attempts to rob the pay train of the Mexican Central Railroad, and says that the country around Torreon, which is so closely settled that there are stations about every four kilometers, is swarming with armed men, who appear at the railroad stations with guns and cartridge belts. Thousands Take Up Arms. "These same reports," says El Correo, "say that three bridges on the railroad between Parana and Torreon have been burned, probably with the object of impeding the passage of troops into Torreon. The incendiaries also probably selected Torreon for invasion because they considered it a rich city to loot. Among the reports that we have heard is one which says that about 6000 armed men, nearly all of whom are inhabitants of ranches, are said to have passed Hornos, in the State of Coahuila, on the Coahuila & Pacific Railroad about 65 kilometers from Torreon. Object of Revolution. "Whether the movement is directed against the government of Coahuila or against the federal government, no one is able to say. It is generally supposed the movement is not against the state but against the federal government. One version says the revolution is wholly against the State of Coahuila, that the Governor is not acceptable to the people of that state and that he was forced upon them by the President of the Republic. "It is also said that a train of infantry has been sent to Torreon from Monterey and a small detachment of cavalry." Six Banks to Loot. Torreon the town named by El Correo as the object of attack, is one of the richest towns in the State of Coahuila. There are six banks: The Banco Mierco de Chihuahua, meaning a branch there, a branch of Banco Nacional de Mexico; the Banco de Coahuila; the Banco de Nueva Leon and the Banco de Durango. The Banco Laguna, recently organized, has a capitalization of $5,000,000. There are about 25,000 inhabitants. MEXICO WANTS REBELS BACK Says Uncle Sam Shelters Chief Plotters Against Republic.
