THE MOUNT TABOR CHURCH DEDICATED.— The Mount Tabor Presbyterian Church, built at Belmont and East Fifty-fifth streets, costing $22,000, was dedicated yesterday with appropriate services and in the presence of a large congregation.
Rev. W. H. Foulkes, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, delivered the dedicatory sermon. Rev. W. S. Hold also delivered an address, after the statement had been made by the building committee concerning the finances. Rev. George W.
Arms, Rev. W. S. Hold, Rev. C. C.
Barick, Rev. William Parsons, Rev. D. L.
Kiehn, Rev. J. E. Snyder, Rev. Henry

COLUMBIA GRANGE TO HOLD EDUCATION.— The Columbia Grange to hold an educational meeting at the Grange hall, 1200 N. Main, on Saturday, November 5.
Prof. R. F. Robinson, County School Superinthe City Library, will talk on the value Local schools will take part. Open session will begin at 1:30. All interested will be welcome. The hall is east of the Sandy River road and may be reached by way of the Base Line and Latourelle roads or by the O. R. & N. Railroad to Corbett. The hall is about two miles from Corbett.

CITY GRADING MILWAUKEE STREET.— Good progress was made during the past week on the grading of Milwaukee street south from Hawthorne avenue. The street side was graded and filled preparatory to paving and the west side was partly graded. If the rains hold off another week or two Milwaukee street will be paved at least to the Southern Pacific Railway from Hawthorne avenue before winter. Further south the improvement may not be completed this year. At the request of a committee from the Brooklyn Improvement Club the material taken from Milwaukee street is being used to help fill up the park tract at the corner of Brooklyn and Powell streets.

DR. SHERMAN ADDRESS Y. M. C. A.— Forming proper habits was taken as a subject by Dr. Lyman B. Sperry, who spoke to men at the Young Men's Christian Association yesterday. He said:
"The great men of the world are those who have, by intelligent, conscientious choice, decided on right activities, and have pursued them until they have become a habit of life, easily and almost unconsciously performed." The speaking closed by graphically narrating the story of John Maynard, a pilot, who burned to death at the wheel of a burning ship to save the 300 passengers who were aboard.

LECTURES TO MEET.—All ethical dentists of Portland are invited to attend an open meeting tomorrow night in the rooms of the County Medical Society, Medical building. The purpose of the meeting is to acquaint the dentists with the school inspection work, which will start next week. The meeting Tuesday night will begin at 8 o'clock. The school board has appropriated $1000 toward defraying the expenses of the molar inspection. The first examination reports probably will be made by November 30. All dentists in need of dental work who are not able to pay for it will be treated free.

SALOON PATROONS ROBBED.—Two saloon patrons complained to the police yesterday that they had been robbed of considerable sums while enjoying a Saturday night visit to North End resorts. D. L.
Gee, living on East Seventh street, reported that he was relieved of $25 in North End saloon at Second and Burnside streets. Charley Crandall, a guest of the West Hotel, complained of the loss of $7.20 in Abrahamson Brothers' saloon on Third street, near Couch.

dent of the East Side, who died October 28 at his home 283 Beach street, will be held today from Zeller-Byrnes Chapel, and the burial will be made in Rose City Cemetery. Mr. Campbell was 56 years of age and had been a resident of Albina

V. M. Gordon are his surviving children.

TAUGHTEN TO BE SELECTED.—The first annual meeting of the Methodist Descon-eration Association of Oregon Conference, will be held tonight (Monday) in the parloirs of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, corner Third and Taylor streets, at 7:30. A board of trustees will be elected at this meeting to serve for the coming year, so that a full attendance is desired.

CITY IMPROVING EAST TWENTY-FIRST STREET.—Taking advantage of the favorable weather a large force of men and teams were at work on East Twenty-first street, between Division and Powell streets, Saturday. Most of the grading has been finished and crushed rock is being placed on the finished portion. The street is being improved with hard-surface pavement.

TABERNACLE CHURCH CELEBRATES AN-NIVERSARY.—Tabernacle Baptist Church, East Forty-first street, near Woodstock, celebrated its first anniversary yesterday with special services. In the afternoon Rev. W. B. Hinson, of the White Temple, preached. Special music was provided. The church was dedicated a year ago. Rev. F. B. Dark is the acting pastor.

advertisement for Oregon apples is introduced by O. W. Wortman & King whereby on Tuesday next they will give away 25,000 Hood River apples put up in cartons, and packed with cotton wool in mail. The large advertisement appears elsewhere in this paper.

BIKES THIEF ACTIVE.—A bicycle thief who makes the Y. M. C. A. building the objective point of his depredations is being sought by the city detectives, who have had five reports of thefts from that place in as many days. Reports of thefts have come in with great regularity since October 24.

LENTS SCHOOL TO HAVE MANUAL TRAIN-ING.—A building, 35x70 feet, is being built on the Lents school ground to be used as the manual training department. It will be finished in about one week, and afford room for classes in sewing, cooking and carpentry.

BOYS' ROCKETRY FOUND.—Two dug-outs in the banks of Sullivan's Gulch, frequented by a party of young boys, were located Saturday night by Patrolman J.
J. Murphy, who made a report of the discovery to the Chief of Police, without recommendation. Following the wild animal instinct of boyhood, the youngsters had cunningly established themselves in a lair hidden deep in the recesses of the gulch. A winding and obscure trail led down the banks of the gulch to a point where a raft was moored. This served as a drawbridge giving entrance to the dug-outs, which was dug far into the bank, with the mouth concealed by brush. Herein, says Murphy, the occupants hold forth every night, cooking huge suppers and departing themselves freely. Murphy visited the place at 10 o'clock Saturday night, but found the denizens away from home.

CONGRATULATIONS.—Like the wedding of the city and the rose was the exquisite opening of Frank L. Smith's newest market, 145 First street, between Morrison and Alder. An archway conveys the music, music, music everywhere. The green of ferns blended with white and gold furnishings. The millionaire's wife from Nob Hill, the Smith's wife from the Brooklyn district, the happy workman with his dinner-pail, all rubbed elbows and all bought Smith's meats. Why shouldn't they when Smith sells Sirloin steak for 12 1/2c and 15c per pound?
It makes the Beef Trust weep! Mr.
Smith stood for early morning until 10 o'clock at night receiving the well wishes of his friends. Come any time today and buy your meat to the sweet strains of Smith's orchestra.

SUNDAY LAW VIOLATIONS CHARGED.— For selling liquor on Sunday, John A.
Lee, an ex-policeman in the time of Captain Pat Bruin was arrested yesterday afternoon at his saloon, at 24 Russell street, by Patrolman Taft. The officer saw several men enter an upstairs room.
He followed and ordered two bottles of beer. Lee brought them up from the saloon below and Taft paid for them and then placed Lee under arrest. Gus Farroman, proprietor of a saloon at 183 Third street, was arrested at 12:15 o'clock yesterday morning for having his place open after midnight.

CRYSTAL SPRINGS NURSE ARRESTED.— A. G. Bye, a nurse at the Crystal Springs Sanitarium, was arrested Saturday night by Deputy Sheriff Leonard, but Dr. R. L.
Gillespie, who with Bye and J. G. Arnold was indicted by the grand jury for alleged brutal practices at the sanitarium, was still at liberty last night.
Bye is being held under bail of $500, which he has been unable to furnish.

man School on Corbett street will meet and the Home Rule Liquor Aid Association's "Bill of Strategy." (Paid Adv.)

President Taft
ON
HOME RULE
Nothing is more foolish, nothing more utterly at variance with sound policy than to enact a law which, by reason of conditions surrounding the community, is incapable of enforcement. Such instances are sometimes presented by assuatory laws, by which the sale of intoxicating liquors is prohibited under penalties in localities where the public sentiment in the immediate community does not and will not sustain the enforcement of the law. In such cases the legislation usually is the result of agitation by the people in the country districts who are determined to make their fellow citizens in the city better. The enactment of the law comes through the country representatives, who form a majority of the Legislature, but the enforcement of the law is among the people who are generally opposed to its enactment, and, under such circumstances, the law is a dead letter. The constant violation or neglect of any law leads to a demoralization of all laws.

Biography Told on Film Moliere and Fire Scene Are Features of Star's Bill.
The life of Moliere, the poet and playwright, was portrayed yesterday at the Star Theatre. The picture for artistic splendor and correctness in historic and scenic investiture has rarely ever been surpassed. "The Telephone," showing how that instrument saved a family from flames, proved a succession of sensational incidents, depicted with fidelity.
The other films were humorous and acceptable. Brink and Camp improved in finish and style and a late baseball song made a real hit.
At the Arcade "The Silent Message" was rightfully featured and with other clever things proved a popular entertainment. The Oh Joy's bill contained a military feature, "Under the Stars and Bars" and as an added number, Signora Concetta, an Italian songstress, singing popular ditties of her native land. Her work touched a popular chord, and her songs were gorgeous. "Indian Pet's Gratitude," was headlined at the Odéon and drew a record-breaking attendance.
