GREAT ORANGE CROP

California Citrus Prices Should Be Reasonable This Season.

GROWERS' IDEAS WEAKER

Influenced by the Great Apple Yield in the Eastern States - New Navels Will Soon Be on the Local Market.

Orange prices should be reasonable this season, as California has an enermous crop. The present estimate of the yield is 40,000 cars. The last crop was estimated at this time last year at 30,000 cars, but turned out to pear at 10,000 cars, but the state of the 23,000 cars.

The ideas of California growers are a little weaker than usual at the opening of the season. This is partly herause of the big apple crop in the Eastern states. The orange crop of the West Indies is fairly large and that of locality normal.

Florida normal.

The first car of new-crop California navels will reach Portland Tuesday from Globe, in Tulare County. It will be followed by shipments from Exeter, Lindsey and Porterville. After that the Northern California crop will be ready. The southern crop is two weeks latter than it was last year, and none will be ready for market before the first of the war. Sizes in Southern the first of the year. Sizes in Southern California will be small and in Central and Northern California they will be

The grapefruit and lemon crops will be good this year. Lemon tree plant-ing in California is proceeding on a large scale. One company alone has in-creased its acreage in Ventura County 1666 acres and another company has set out 500 acres. There will be enough erchards in bearing in three or four years to make importations from Sicily

DULL WEEK IN LOCAL WHEAT MARKET Offerings at 79 Cents Are Turned Down-Truding in Barley.

Down-Truding in Barley.

The week has been a dull one in the wheat market. With the Eastern and foreign markets sagging there was naturally no disposition on the part of deniers here to take hold. The same indifference spread to the sellers, and offerings were very light. About the only buying done was by interior milliers, and it was not heavy. For club wheat 75 cents was bid yesterday, and offerings at 75 cents were turned down. No trading in bluestem was reported. No trading in bluestem was reported igh this variety was steadler than

ACTIVE HOP TRADING WITH DEALERS About 2000 Bales Change Rands on a Rising Market. Several hop sales between dealers were closed yeaterday and considerable business that was put through on Friday also came to light. It is estimated that the sales of that day aggregated about 1800 bales, about one-third of the business being with growers.

The most interesting transaction was the purchase by Henry L. Bents of 500 bales from Kola Neis at about 42 cents.

T. A. Livesley & Co. bought the Ike Yoakum lot of 78 bales at Dallas at 43% cents. Bishop & Daniels paid 43%

Case of Bishop & Daniels Against Morris Decided in Favor of Firm. Hopgrowers and dealers are much in-terested in the suit of Bishop & Daniels terested in the suft of Rishop & Daniels against Lute Morris, which was decided by Judge Kelly, of the Circuit Court, at McMinnville Friday.

The hop firm had a contract from Morris to delive: 20,000 pounds of prime 1810 hops at 16 cents, on which they advanced $2000. They claimed that Morris undertook to deliver them that Morris undertook to deliver them hops that were under-dried, and these they refused to accept. Then they brought suit for the money advanced, rogether with inherest and costs, all of which Judge Kelly awarded them.

STRICTLY CHOICE TURKEYS SCARCE Inferior Stock Promises to Be in Large

There was not much business doing in the poultry market yesterday, and prices gunerally were unchanged. From the information received from Valley points and from idaho by local dealers, it is believed the supply of turkeys will be quite large, but the general quality will not be up to the general quality will not be up to the standard. Strictly fancy turkeys promise to be scarce, but small, thin birds should be plentiful. For this reason the general range of prices may be lower than last year's.

There was no change in the egg market. Fresh Oregons were held at 44 cents and were hard to obtain.

Butter and cheese were firm at the old pulces.

surprised traders, who looked for an extensive reaction. Reading rose 1% to 188%, its highest price since August, and other active stocks rebounded from their low figures.

The list did not remain long at any given point, however, and after a series of irregular movements soid off toward the close. Some of the active issues, including United States Steel, Union Pacific, Amalgated Copper and Northern Pacific, lost a point or so on the day.

The market was steaded to some extent by increased outside buying, as indicated by the breadth of the trading. International Harvester was especially weak with a loss of 2% points. Lehigh Valley was again in prominence in the trading and touched 180.

The placing of railroad bonds, which Trading and touched 180.

The placing of railroad bonds, which has been on a much more active scale of late, was continued today. Omission of the dividend on Vandalla seemed to be without influence on Pennsy ania, which owns the major portion of the atouk.

The actual bank statement showed an increase in cash of well above $3,000,900, despite preliminary estimates of a small cash loss. Although loans increased more than $5,000,000, there was a net gain in surplus reserve of $1,000,000. In the average table, however, a $2,000,000 loss in surplus was recorded.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value $1,935,000. United States threes advanced 1/2 on call on the Jump at the Opening, Due to Blizzard Reports, Brings About a Deluge of Profit-Taking Sales.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11 .- Wheat reacted

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—Wheat reacted more than two cents today after a sudden upward jump of a cent. Shorts, in a stampede over sensational damage said to have been caused by the blizzard in the Northwest, forced the bulge until a deluge of profit-taking saies on spreads between Minneapolls and Chicago sent prices down with a crash. The close was comparatively steady, but at a loss of 1/2 1/2 to 1c net. Assertions that millions of bushels of wheat on Canadian prairies had been frozen and burtled by the blizzard were at first received with incredulity, but when apparently backed up by the action of the Northwestern markets, put short sellers here into such a action of the Northwestern and action of the Northwestern such a flurry that everything else for the moment was lost sight of. Later Minneapolis dispatches rold of certain Chloago houses being heavy sellers. At the same time it developed that one of the principal holders of cash wheat here had been unloading busily through the medium of December contracts. All the advance and much more in addition quickly meited away. December fluctuated from $3@93%c and $5%c, closing at $3%c, a full centunder last night.

who stole Fred B. Grinnell's automobile at Spokane Thursday were captured today near Endicott. 20 miles west of Colfax. The car cost $6000 and was one of the best in Spokane.

Deputy Sheriff William Cole, en route from Spokane on an electric line, saw the car crossing the country and on reaching Colfax telaphoned all the towns in Western Whitman County and his brother, James Cole, arrested the men as they neared Endicott. The men are Joe Fritsck, of Ritzville, and W. R. Hindman, who also had hotel keys from the Empire Hotel, Spokane. Both were well-dressed young men and said from the Empire Hotel, Spekane. Both were well-dressed young men and said they were on a hurry-up trip to Walla Walla to meet a friend. Cole remarked that the friend would no doubt find them at the Penitentiary at Walla Walla. They were hurried to a train and placed in the Colfax jall tonight. Spekane officers are en route for the car and the men. The car was stolen from Riverside avenue while Mrs. Grinnell was shopping and the chauffeur had left the car to telephone.

One of the society's most interesting developments is a scheme of affiliation with the principal universities of the United States, a plan which Princers Marie Louise of Schleswig-Holstein is doing all in her power to foster, for she knows how numerous and ardent are the American Schakespeareans. In spite of the distractions in political and social life, the cult of Shakespeare gathers force daily. Another example of the profound appeal the bard of Avon makes to modern audiences is to be seen nightly at His Majesty's Theater, where Sir Herbert Beerbohm Tree is playing "Macbeth' to crowded and enthusastic audiences. Meanwhile, the Shakespeare Mem-

Beerbohm Tree is playing "Macbeth" to crowded and enthusiastic audiences. Meanwhile, the Shakespeare Memorial Theater committee is hard at work elaborating dollar raising schemes. An option has already been obtained upon a site in Spring Gardens, near Trafaigar Square, but no less than $2,500,000 is required to carry the scheme through to a successful issue. No big financial effort has been made since the Shakespeare costume ball, in the Albert Hall, last July, which Mrs. Cornwallis West was largely responsible for making such a success, but the committee is now considering ways and means of once more coaxing big checks from wealthy people.

Local societies affiliated to the parent London body will be running entertainments and lectures of their own during the Fall and Winter. Such cities as Nottingham, Leeds and Sheffeld are expected to add materially to the treasury.

POLITICIANS DEVOTE SALARIES TO "CONSCIENCE FUND."

Bishops Find They Have $2000 a Year for Pet Charlties-Others Give Coin to Constituents.

LONDON, Nov. 11 .- (Special.) -- Indigant at being paid for Parliamentary services, rich legislators at Westminster are rousing mingled amusement and criticism by their schemes to avoid being placed on the level of their less wealthy colleagues. One hundred and fifty of them voted against payment of members, so some think payment of memoers, so they should repay the amount as "con-science money" to Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd-George.

As so little is heard about the "con-science money" fund, even well-in-formed Britishers are rather in the science money" fund, even well-informed Britishers are rather in the dark about this mysterious account. It was formed years ago to encourage repentant thieves to restore their illigotten gains or evaders of taxes to make up for short declarations in later moments of uneasy conscience. Secrecy is the keynote of the whole business, which is conducted with a surprising absence of red tape. All the conscience-stricken individual has to do to secure national absolution is to send a check for the amount that worries him to the treasury office. If guilty of an undiscovered theft, he withholds naturally his name and address, and it seems to be part of the great game of giving wrongdeers peace of mind that it is an understood thing that Scotland Yard sleuths will not be communicated with.

After the money has been credited to the account of the national treasury, an acknowledgment appears in the Times under the caption of "conscience money" and nothing more is heard of the curious transaction. The irony of the whole procedure is that the dollars don't go to the people from whom they were originally stolen, or to their heirs.

Occasionally, however, conscience money is paid in quite an unofficial to their heirs.

Occasionally, however, conscience money is paid in quite an unofficial way as when an old lady sent $10 to the Amalgamated Society of Rallway Servants, as representing the extra ½ per cent dividend paid to her on some rallway shares, which in her opinion, had been earned at the expense of the employes.

employes. getting rid of the detested payment has already been adopted by Arthur Lee. M. P., a member of the last Conservative Cabinet. Others are advocating sending their $2000 a year to chartable justifications while several cating sending their save a year to charitable institutions, while several bishops are out hunting for funds for church purposes in this promising field. Meanwhile, radical papers are denouncing these protestors as "wealthy snobs," especially one who offered his salary in relief of the rates to the Wolverhampton district to the Wolverhampton district sent him to Parliament.

Missions, $685,000. DENVER, Nov. 11.—The sum of $685,000 was found available for the purposes of church extension and home missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church by the board, in session here today. Of this amount $629,000 was voted directly to home missions and $114,000 to the work of church extension.

The fallure of seven annual confer The fallure of seven annual conferences to return a total of $32,000 before October 31, the close of the fiscal year, prevented the treasurer reporting an advance of $20,000. The money is now in the hands of the treasurer, but cannot be reported this year. The board decided to fix the meeting of the board next year so as not to interfere with the Fresidential elections, and $12,000 was voted toward the payment of the debt of $96,000.

112,000 was voted toward the payment of the debt of $56,000.

The financial uncertainties of next year, owing to possible political changes, was given as a reason by several speakers why there should not be voted any increase in appropriations.

WASHING MACHINE AGENT RE-LEASED ON $1000 BAIL.

Defendant Declares Arrest Due to Rival's Jealousy When Field Was Invaded by Salesmen.

On a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, Ben H. Wilson, who conducts a washing machine agency here, was arrested yesterday afternoon. He was released on $1000 cash ball. The complaint is made by Charles A. Lightner, who alleges that for $1750 Wilson sold him a half interest in his business, consisting of contract with the Domestic Utilities Manufacturing Company, of California, for 1867 washing machines. The plaintiff says Wilson had but a one-sixth interest in the contract.

Wilson alleges a conspiracy on the part of competitors here to ruin his business. The charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, he says, is merely the pretense upon which the case is brought into court in an attempt to use the court as a collection agency.

"I have been in Portland six months, with my wife and family," says Wilson. "I came here from Kentucky with the intention of establishing myself in business."

"I made a profit in selling the haif an attempt to embarrass him, by placing him in a position where he would will appear for his preliminary hearing tomorrow afternoon, before Justice Olson.
