

HAPPY CROWDS SEE UNION SHOW CLOSE

Despite Fall of Rain Last Day Is Marked by Increased Enthusiasm.

MANAGEMENT IS PLEASD

Attendance Beyond Expectations and Greatest Satisfaction Is Expressed in Support Given by Adjacent Communities.

UNION, Or., June 7.—(Special.)—The fifth annual Union Livestock Show which closed today was the greatest meeting in the history of the association.

Trots, paces, chariot races, relays, half and quarter-mile dashes followed one another with little or no delay, while the rain fell and the track was slippery.

Management Well Pleased. The splendid attendance from all over this part of the state has been a matter of the greatest satisfaction to the management.

Baker, La Grande, Island City, Summerville, Elgin, Imbler, Haines, North Powder, Cove and towns and hamlets tributary to this place sent big delegations to this show.

Incumbent trains yesterday were packed, every rooming town was crowded with buggies, wagons and horseback riders, with automobiles almost without number intermingled.

Jack McCarthy, of La Grande, again won with his Morgan stallion horse, an animal that would stand well at the top of any show.

The judging of the stock, principally horses, was attended to by Professor E. J. Kidding, of the University of Idaho. Every award made on merit, and even the defeated entrants acknowledged the justice of his decisions.

In order to investigate what effect the high water might have on the Oregon-Washington railroad up the Columbia River, Frank J. Miller, chairman of the Railroad Commission, made a trip to Umatilla, Friday, and upon his return declared there was no danger of traffic being disturbed by the flood.

As a precaution crews are ready to be put to work should any washouts occur, but there must be a rise of six feet more before the railroad will be in danger.

One of the Pacific States telephone cables was put out of commission yesterday, probably due to the high water.

STEVENSON DOCK DESTROYED

Floods Continue to Do Damage to Valuable Riverside Property.

STEVENSON, Wash., June 7.—(Special.)—Flood conditions here and in the county are getting more serious. The dock here, valued at $1500, will be a total loss.

There was a balloon ascension last night, the big hot air bag ascending from the hood of the town and the parachute falling by its pilot, just east of the public school building.

Balloon Flight Sensational. The ascent and descent were sensational as the big craft shot up almost vertically for nearly 2000 feet, from which great height the parachute was loosened.

FRANK P. DARROW IS DEAD

Man Well Known in Portland Dies in California Home.

LOS ANGELES, June 7.—(Special.)—On Friday night, June 7, Frank P. Darrow, a former resident of Portland, suddenly died at his home in Bell, Cal.

Mr. Darrow was born in Omro, Wis., September 5, 1869, but he was an Oregonian at heart, and at the time of his death was planning to return to Portland to make his future home.

FIRST PENSION IS GRANTED

Mother of Three With Paralytic Hand Is Hood River Beneficiary.

HOOD RIVER, Or., June 7.—(Special.)—The County Court has just granted the first pension under the widows' pension bill granted in the session of the Legislature. The recipient, however, is not a widow, but her husband is a permanent invalid, being afflicted with paralysis.

The court has received applications for relief from more than a dozen widows.

Advance at the Dalles Small.

THE DALLES, Or., June 7.—(Special.)—The Columbia river is practically at a standstill here during the last two days. After being stationary Friday it came up one-tenth of a foot during last night, reaching 41.5 stage this morning and remaining at that mark since.

FLOOD TO SUBSIDE

Reports From Umatilla Tell of Lower Stage.

DAMAGE HERE IS SLIGHT

Forecasters Beals, Revises Prediction Estimating 24.2 Feet as High Water Mark to Be Reached by Present Freshet.

There need be no further worry caused by the flood situation at least for a week, according to District Forecaster Beals, as a report from Umatilla declares that there had been a slight fall, which caused Mr. Beals to change his forecast for high water mark tomorrow to 24.2 from 24.8 feet.

POLK FAIR BOARD NAMED

DALLAS AND INDEPENDENCE RIVALS FOR LOCATION.

Permanent Site to Be Selected by Officials Who Will Have $2000 to Expend This Season.

DALLAS, Or., June 7.—(Special.)—The County Court of Polk County yesterday appointed the following County Fair Board under the provisions of the new law: W. V. Fuller, president of the Dallas Commercial Club; C. S. Richards, manager of the Wallace Orchard, near West Salem, and W. S. Percival, of Independence.

The board will have the duty of selecting the site for a permanent county fair, and the board is left to decide whether the matter is left to the Dallas Commercial Club and its members, have circulated petitions asking that Dallas be chosen as the location. Now that the matter is left to the board, it is believed that a lively fight over the location will be precipitated.

Mr. Parks has not expressed himself on the subject.

The new board will have the disposal of about $2000 for fair purposes.

LEBANON FAIR ENDS

Record-Breaking Crowd Sees Strawberry Festival Close.

MERCHANTS ARE PLEASD

Albany and Brownsville Each Send Full Trainloads of Visitors. Automobile Parade Is One of Feature Events.

LEBANON, Or., June 7.—(Special.)—Excellent weather brought out a record-breaking crowd of 10,000 people for the closing day of the Lebanon Strawberry Festival. Albany and Brownsville each sent a trainload of people, as well as many automobiles loaded with spectators.

The decorated baby carriage show was one of the most interesting features of the festival. The carriage of Mrs. E. Wilcox took first prize, a beautiful silver cup. The second prize was won by Ralph Reeves.

The decorated baby carriage show was one of the most interesting features of the festival. The carriage of Mrs. E. Wilcox took first prize, a beautiful silver cup. The second prize was won by Ralph Reeves.

The festival has been the most successful the city has yet held, and brought more people from a distance than any of the previous ones. There were visitors from as far away as Idaho and Washington, and the Willamette Valley towns were all well represented.

The business men who backed the festival liberally, and the growers who furnished the berries feel well repaid for the efforts and money put into it. The big crowd was unusually orderly, not an arrest was for disorderly conduct during the week.

Sawmill Is Rebuilt.

CHERRYVILLE, Or., June 7.—(Special.)—Nickerson & Anderson, two experienced sawmill men, are erecting a large sawmill on Sandy River near Camp Five on the site of the Tappendord mill which was burned down recently. They have a complete mill, one of the largest in this section of the country, and have secured a large body of timber. It will take them about two years to saw up the timber in their tract. Lumber and railway ties will be turned out, which will be hauled to Bull Run for shipment by way of the Mount Hood Railway. Cherryville will become a money order postoffice on and after July 1.

GRADUATES STAY WEST

COAST UNIVERSITIES TO GET HOOD RIVER STUDENTS.

In Debate Classes, Girls Make Better Showing Than Boys—Fair Sex "Up" on Economics Likewise.

HOOD RIVER, Or., June 4.—(Special.)—Out of the 20 students who were graduated this year from the Hood River High School the greater number will attend some one of the Western institutions of higher education during the next two years.

The University of California, the University of Washington and the University of Oregon have been selected by the boys and girls who have had their training at the local school.

Those who were presented with diplomas Friday evening, May 23, by Dr. H. L. Dumble, chairman of the city school board are: Elliott Staten, Pearl Deitz, Henry Blegg, Dorothy and Glen Shoemaker, Angus and Etheljane McDonald, Nola Radcliff, Joe Johnson, Ruth Clark, Ivan Swartout, Gladys Reavis, George Struck, Doris Jensen, Algie Weinheimer, Conrad Jacobsen, Ellen McCurdy, Horace Skinner and Ada Hart.

At the graduation exercises the class orator, Miss Helen McCurdy, delivered an address on the Montessori system, the new method of conducting kindergarten schools. The faculty has expressed gratification over the high standard of scholarship maintained by the class.

Especially have the girls displayed an increased interest in civic affairs and a desire to learn more of economic and political problems.

"The girls who were awarded diplomas this year," says Professor J. O. McLaughlin, city school superintendent, "will be well fitted to take up the duties of citizens and cast intelligent ballots."

Professor J. W. Crites, who teaches economics and civics, has introduced an innovation in the methods of creating a greater interest in these subjects. The lessons this year have been learned by a series of debates. Last year the High School purchased a large silver cup, making the announcement that at the graduation exercises the three students who had won the greatest distinction in debating would be entitled to the privilege of having their names engraved on the cup which would be kept as a record. The girls this year have displayed a greater forensic ability than the boys and the names of three, Miss Olive Richards, Miss Ella McDonald and Miss Etheljane McDonald, have been inscribed on the trophy.
