

FIRST MILITANT MARTYRIS BURIED

Great London Crowds Impede Progress of Funeral Led by Suffragettes.

PALL HAS PRISON MARK

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst Arrested on Way to Ceremony—Cheers as Cortege Passes Nearly Lead to Conflict.

LONDON, June 14.—Thousands upon thousands of suffragists, sympathizers with the suffrage movement and persons drawn by curiosity watched the procession today which carried to the funeral train the body of Miss Emily Wilding Davison, suffragette who was killed in an attempt to stop the King's horse at the Derby, June 4.

A special train brought the body from Epsom to Victoria station, where a procession of 8000 women escorted it to St. George's Church, Bloomsbury, where the service was held.

Owing to the dense throng of spectators, the funeral procession moved very slowly. A young woman at the head, dressed entirely in white, carried a cross aloft.

Occasional Boiling Heard. There was some boiling here and there, but the crowds were for the most part orderly and sympathetic. A deal of confusion and commotion was caused by the report that the police would compel the paraders to proceed through secluded streets. There was no serious trouble, however.

The procession was three-quarters of a mile long and took an hour to pass Piccadilly Circus.

A number of youths cheered the women as they passed through Shaftesbury avenue and this disrespect nearly led to a conflict among the spectators. The passage was so slow that it was 4 o'clock when the body reached St. George's Church and the crowds in the vicinity were so great that traffic was stopped half an hour before the arrival of the hearse.

Prison Mark Carried. It was noticed when the coffin was being carried from the hearse into the church that the purple pall had broad arrows worked in white on each side. The broad arrow is the government mark stamped on the dresses of prisoners.

At Kings Cross Station the crowds were so large that the police barriers were broken and the people invaded the depot platform. The coffin was quickly transferred to the funeral train, which started about 5:40 P. M. for Morpeth, North Cumberland, where the body will be buried tomorrow.

The funeral procession started from Victoria Station. The coffin, covered with flowers, was in an open hearse drawn by four black horses. The bands played dirges while the members of the various women's societies fell into line behind the hearse, each group headed by its banner and all wearing mourning emblems. Enormous crowds surrounded the station, making progress difficult.

Suffragettes Carry Flowers. The parade was divided into 11 sections. The suffragettes marched in four, all carrying flowers. The coffin was in the middle of the procession and the clergy of St. George's Church, Bloomsbury, marched at the head. The rector of the church, Dr. Baumgartner, had issued a statement that he was not a sympathizer with the women's militant tactics.

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst was arrested en route today while on her way to the funeral. Mrs. Pankhurst was taken to Holloway Jail. She had been released on license on May 30, owing to ill health brought about by a hunger strike while she was serving her sentence of three years' penal servitude.

I WAS BADLY BLOATED

I Could Not Get My Shoes on, My Feet and Legs were so Swollen.

Dropsy is usually caused by organic disease. It may be the heart, or liver, or kidneys. Sometimes the lungs. But there is a form of dropsy that is caused by thin blood. The serum of the blood exudes Mrs. Jennie Randall, into the tissues. R. F. D. Enfield, Mass.

It is a very serious condition sometimes, but there is much more prospect of relief, since there is no organic disease behind it. The blood is thin for want of proper assimilation of food. The digestion may be poor. In these cases Peruna is a very excellent remedy. Read what Mrs. Randall says: "I have been a sufferer from Bright's disease nearly six years; also chronic catarrh for a much longer time. One doctor said there was no help for me."

"Then I wrote the Peruna Medical Department. My body was badly bloated and my feet were so swollen and sore I could not get my shoes on. Now the swelling is gone and I can wear my shoes with comfort all the time. At the time I first wrote them, when I stepped on my feet it felt as if there were pins piercing the instep of them. I suffered excruciating pain and ache in my back and limbs. Since taking Peruna and Manalin I have been greatly benefited. I shall not cease to recommend Peruna whenever I have an opportunity."

People who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets.
