

We are not going to move

- $5000 a month rent is too much.
- Our building is out of date, 'tis true.
- But you are not buying buildings.
- Our Furniture is up to date.

WE pay no rent. Think what that means to you. Remember this—we owe no money, we buy strictly for cash, saving big discounts and these discounts don't go to bankers, they go to you in savings on your purchases. That's why Gadsbys' sell for less than their competitors. This is the store for the plain people, no frills, no fuss, no trading stamps, no premiums, but bottom prices to all. Liberal credit.

$12.50 Velour Couch
$7.85
Excellent Couch, upholstered in velour, over first-class springs. Has roll edge. Regular values $12.50.....$7.85

This Solid Oak Rocker, Special
$4.55
Solid Oak Rocker, like cut, made of fine selected oak with large, broad arms and back, finished fumed oak or the pretty golden oak; this is a $7 rocker, priced special for this week.....$4.55

Princess Dresser Special'y Priced

Princess Dresser in quarter-sawed oak or mahogany, polished or dull finish, worth $28. Special this week, at.....$17.50

Sale Sample Heating Stoves
This Heater has duplex grates and cast-iron linings. For wood and coal

$16.00 Coal or Wood Heaters now.....	$13.00
$15.00 Coal or Wood Heaters now.....	$12.00
$12.00 Coal or Wood Heaters now.....	$9.00
$10.00 Coal or Wood Heaters now.....	$8.50
$9.00 Coal or Wood Heaters now.....	$7.50
$8.00 Coal or Wood Heaters now.....	$4.75
$5.00 Coal or Wood Heaters now.....	$4.00
$4.00 Wood Heaters now.....	$3.00
$3.00 Wood Heaters now.....	$2.50

ALL HEATERS SET UP FREE.
Have a New Heater Added to Your Account. We'll Gladly Install It For You Right Now.

Wm. Gadsby & Sons

CORNER WASHINGTON AND FIRST STS
No Matter What You Want in Furniture
"Gadsby Sells it for Less"

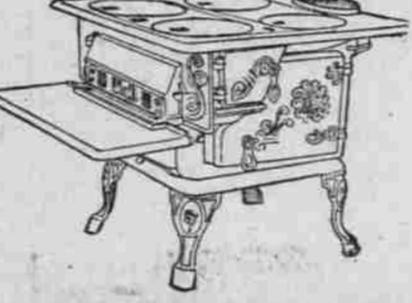

Ladies' Dressing Tables

We Have a Great Variety of Pretty Dressing Tables. All Reduced for This Week's Sale.
$25.00 Dressing Tables, birdseye maple, at.....$12.50
$18.00 Dressing Tables, oak and mahogany, at.....$9.00
$15.00 Dressing Tables, oak and mahogany, at.....$7.50

Cook Stove for $8.50

Just the stove for a small home where a range is too expensive or too large to consider at the present time. Does perfect baking and has a good-sized oven and a full-sized fire-box. An economical user of fuel. Gadsbys' special, $8.50

BUY A NEW DINING TABLE FOR THANKSGIVING

$12.00 Extension Table at only.....$9.00
$16.00 Extension Table at only.....$12.50
$18.00 Extension Table at only.....$15.00
$25.00 Extension Table at only.....$20.00
$35.00 Extension Table at only.....$27.50
$45.00 Extension Table at only.....$35.00

Gadsbys' All-Cotton Layer Felt Mattress, Like Cut, for $8.95

This picture shows exactly the way our Cotton Felt Mattresses are made. The contents are pure, clean, sanitary cotton, arranged in layers and then pressed firmly together and sewed and tufted as shown. It is buoyant and elastic as an air cushion and will never pack or get lumpy. The best ticking goes in the covering, and warranted fast colors. Our price for this week only.....$8.95

Some Special Bargains in FINE RUGS

- Bagdad Wiltana, size 9x12.....$29.50
 - Herati Axminsters, 9x12.....$25.00
 - Saxony Axminsters, 9x12.....$18.50
 - Metropolitan Brussels, 9x12.....$18.00
 - Firth Brussels, size 9x12.....$15.00
 - Beattie Velvet, size 9x12.....$15.00
 - Tapestry Brussels, size 9x12.....$12.50
 - Tyvan Art Rugs, size 9x12.....$10.80
 - Ingrain Rugs, size 9x12.....$ 7.20
- (Smaller or Larger Rugs Proportionately Priced)

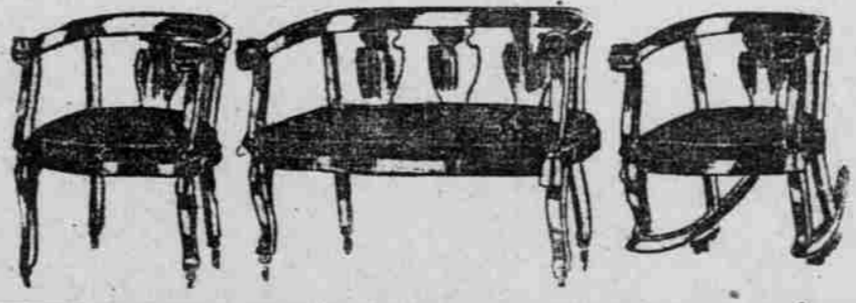

THE LARGEST STOCK OF LARGE SIZE (11.3x15) RUGS IN THE CITY.

"Did you read that?"
"Do you believe it?"
"Down here at First and Washington."
"Why don't we move up town?"
"We cannot pay $5000 rent per month—that's why."

Three-Piece Parlor Suit $25.00

This Parlor Suit comes in three different designs, with mahogany birch frames, and is upholstered in high-grade velour. It is the kind of furniture that graces any home. Nowhere but here would you see it quoted at so low a price. One of the reasons why we're busy nowadays. Extra value at.....$25.00

Use Our Exchange Department

If you have furniture that doesn't suit—want something more up-to-date and better, phone us and we'll send a competent man to see it and arrange to take it as part payment on the kind you want—the Gadsby kind. We'll make you a liberal allowance for your goods and we'll sell you new furniture at low prices. The new furniture will be promptly delivered. Have furniture you'll be proud of.

HARVARD IS VICTOR OVER YALE 15 TO 5

Crimson Team Makes History by Defeating Eli Twice in Succession.

SUCCESS DUE TO COACHING

Machine Work of Winning Team Far Superior to Opponents'—Kicking Responsible for All Scoring. Brickley in Stellar Role.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 22.—The Harvard football team of 1913, with Charles E. Brickley, fullback, playing in the stellar role, established a new epoch in Crimson gridiron history today by defeating Yale 15 to 5. Harvard won through better teamwork and better coaching and through Brickley's wonderful playing. Neither team succeeded in carrying the ball across the other's goal line, and all the points were the direct or indirect results of kicking.

Seven times Brickley drove the ball spinning and turning over the heads of the Yale players, and five times the oval crossed the goal bar for Crimson points. Four times Guernsey, Yale's field goal kicker, essayed the same feat, but he succeeded only once. To the Eli's earned three points, there were added an unearned two, due to an unintentional safety by Left End O'Brien, of Harvard.

Thus Harvard defeated Yale for the second time in two years and won undepicted right to the Eastern collegiate football championship of the year.

Spectacular as was Brickley's play, the superior machine that Coach Houghton developed this Autumn earned equal glory with the famous dropkicker. By concerted play and efforts, the team paved the way for Brickley to score the 15 points that stand tonight as Harvard's record against the Blue.

Yale Team Falls to Hold. That Guernsey, on the other hand, failed to approach Brickley's feat was due almost entirely to the fact that the team in front of him could not hold or drive back the Crimson to a point where field-goal kicking passed from the improbable to the possible. This was not accounted for by any great physical or playing superiority of the Harvard men, but rather by the coaching methods and system of attack and defense.

Stated broadly, Harvard played a well-balanced game in both offense and defense, in which the best and most conservative parts of the new and old football were successfully combined.

Opposed to this was a Yale game that undoubtedly would have won under the "five-yards-in-three-downs" days, but was upstaged to win against the Harvard eleven of 1913. The victory of the Crimson therefore was as much a victory for the Harvard coaching system as it was for the Crimson players.

That it was a Harvard victory in every sense of the word, devoid of flattery or questionable judgment, is proved by the statistics of the playing.

Harvard in all gained 229 yards and nine first downs in 37 rushes, against Yale's 145 yards and six first downs in 41 rushes. Mahan gained 77 yards in 16 punts, to 52 yards in the combined 12 punts by Guernsey and Knowles. Brickley kicked five goals out of seven tries to Guernsey's one goal in four tries. Harvard players ran back Yale punts 123 yards, against 54 yards regained by the Eli backs. In penalties Yale lost 20 yards for holding and rough play and some 104 yards for offside play.

More than 47,000 alumni, undergraduates and adherents of the two universities were gathered from all parts of the country. The weather was perfect. Traditions were upset in several ways. The victory was the first scored by the Crimson over the Blue in the stadium since it was built in 1903, and the first victory over Yale at Cambridge since 1901. Captain Storer earned the distinction of being the first Harvard captain to be graduated from the university after four years of play without seeing or participating in a Harvard defeat by Yale.

Brickley, by his remarkable playing a strong delegation at the international tourney of the bowlers in Berlin next Summer. The trip will be the fourth to be made by American bowlers. The last was in 1904, when 20 American bowlers carried off the honors of the meet.

Raymond Garcia, a yell leader at a soccer football game in St. Louis, became so excited in his yelling that he toppled over in a faint and died a few minutes later.

Tickets to the annual clash of the Army and Navy to be played at the Polo Grounds November 29 have all been cleared up. That means another football ticket scandal.

From a sandlotter to a major league star in less than two years is quite a leap, finally as well as usually, for a young player not able to vote yet. "Little Nemo" Leibold, of the Cleveland Naps, is the boy who startled the American League. Birmingham has about decided to keep the boy, who was at first taken on merely as the wildest kind of a chance. Now Leibold stands in a good way to be called another "Willie Keeler" for his work in the gardens.

HARVARD IS VICTOR OVER YALE 15 TO 5

Crimson Team Makes History by Defeating Eli Twice in Succession.

SUCCESS DUE TO COACHING

Machine Work of Winning Team Far Superior to Opponents'—Kicking Responsible for All Scoring. Brickley in Stellar Role.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 22.—The Harvard football team of 1913, with Charles E. Brickley, fullback, playing in the stellar role, established a new epoch in Crimson gridiron history today by defeating Yale 15 to 5. Harvard won through better teamwork and better coaching and through Brickley's wonderful playing. Neither team succeeded in carrying the ball across the other's goal line, and all the points were the direct or indirect results of kicking.

Seven times Brickley drove the ball spinning and turning over the heads of the Yale players, and five times the oval crossed the goal bar for Crimson points. Four times Guernsey, Yale's field goal kicker, essayed the same feat, but he succeeded only once. To the Eli's earned three points, there were added an unearned two, due to an unintentional safety by Left End O'Brien, of Harvard.

Thus Harvard defeated Yale for the second time in two years and won undepicted right to the Eastern collegiate football championship of the year.

Spectacular as was Brickley's play, the superior machine that Coach Houghton developed this Autumn earned equal glory with the famous dropkicker. By concerted play and efforts, the team paved the way for Brickley to score the 15 points that stand tonight as Harvard's record against the Blue.

Yale Team Falls to Hold. That Guernsey, on the other hand, failed to approach Brickley's feat was due almost entirely to the fact that the team in front of him could not hold or drive back the Crimson to a point where field-goal kicking passed from the improbable to the possible. This was not accounted for by any great physical or playing superiority of the Harvard men, but rather by the coaching methods and system of attack and defense.

Stated broadly, Harvard played a well-balanced game in both offense and defense, in which the best and most conservative parts of the new and old football were successfully combined.

Opposed to this was a Yale game that undoubtedly would have won under the "five-yards-in-three-downs" days, but was upstaged to win against the Harvard eleven of 1913. The victory of the Crimson therefore was as much a victory for the Harvard coaching system as it was for the Crimson players.

That it was a Harvard victory in every sense of the word, devoid of flattery or questionable judgment, is proved by the statistics of the playing.

Harvard in all gained 229 yards and nine first downs in 37 rushes, against Yale's 145 yards and six first downs in 41 rushes. Mahan gained 77 yards in 16 punts, to 52 yards in the combined 12 punts by Guernsey and Knowles. Brickley kicked five goals out of seven tries to Guernsey's one goal in four tries. Harvard players ran back Yale punts 123 yards, against 54 yards regained by the Eli backs. In penalties Yale lost 20 yards for holding and rough play and some 104 yards for offside play.

More than 47,000 alumni, undergraduates and adherents of the two universities were gathered from all parts of the country. The weather was perfect. Traditions were upset in several ways. The victory was the first scored by the Crimson over the Blue in the stadium since it was built in 1903, and the first victory over Yale at Cambridge since 1901. Captain Storer earned the distinction of being the first Harvard captain to be graduated from the university after four years of play without seeing or participating in a Harvard defeat by Yale.

Brickley, by his remarkable playing a strong delegation at the international tourney of the bowlers in Berlin next Summer. The trip will be the fourth to be made by American bowlers. The last was in 1904, when 20 American bowlers carried off the honors of the meet.

Raymond Garcia, a yell leader at a soccer football game in St. Louis, became so excited in his yelling that he toppled over in a faint and died a few minutes later.

Tickets to the annual clash of the Army and Navy to be played at the Polo Grounds November 29 have all been cleared up. That means another football ticket scandal.

From a sandlotter to a major league star in less than two years is quite a leap, finally as well as usually, for a young player not able to vote yet. "Little Nemo" Leibold, of the Cleveland Naps, is the boy who startled the American League. Birmingham has about decided to keep the boy, who was at first taken on merely as the wildest kind of a chance. Now Leibold stands in a good way to be called another "Willie Keeler" for his work in the gardens.

Rube Waddell denies the report that he has tuberculosis. "Merely a cold brought on by wet feet," says Rube. A dispatch from Hickman, Ky., says he is going to Arizona for a cure, but Rube denies it.

Governor Ferris, of Michigan, has lots of good words for the negro football player making a star of himself on the Michigan Aggie eleven. "George Smith is a mighty fine boy and I am glad he is making good in his studies and on the football team. I will personally send him a letter commending him on his work in both fields," says the Governor.

CROSS WANTS RETURN

NEW YORKER THINKS HE MIGHT BEAT RITCHIE IN NEW TRIAL.

"Broken Rib Worries Me and Took Some of the 'Fight Out of Me,'" Says DeLoach, Vanquished by Champ.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—(Special).—Nothing would suit Leach Cross better than a return meeting with Champion Willie Ritchie over the 20-round route. Considering his great showing against the Californian New York's leading lightweight is strong in belief that he can turn the tables on the titleholder in a longer scrap.

"I am glad to note that everyone who witnessed the fight was pleased with my showing," said Cross last night. "I was in grand shape, but worry about that injured rib prevented me from making even a better showing. There is no question about that. Ritchie is a real champion, but I can tell you. He is clever and can punch. For a scientific boxer he is one of the hardest punches I ever tackled. Why more can you expect of a titleholder? Ritchie is a great ring general."

"If you notice I fought different than in the last three or four fights hereabouts. In my training I picked up something or other that made me change my plan of attack. I made up my mind to keep my hands close to the time and trust to luck to put over the telling wallop."

"Those two knockdowns in the third dazed me considerably. I told you before the fight, if you remember, that I believed I would be lucky to go the route. Any little thing worries me. And that busted rib took half the fight out of me. This is no alibi stuff. I was beaten and square, and again, if you remember, I was only too glad to admit it after the battle."

BOISE DESERTS TRI-STATE

Walla Walla, Pendleton and North Yakima Plan to Remain.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Nov. 22.—(Special).—Word that Boise has withdrawn from the Western Tri-State League and is a free agent was received today by Secretary L. M. Brown, of the league.

The other towns—Walla Walla, North Yakima and Pendleton—plan to remain.

SPORT NEWS POT POURRI

"WABOO SAM" CRAWFORD, now with the glorio-trotting baseball tourists, bids fair to make a record this year in the number of games played. His total of games is approaching 250 and the greatest number played heretofore was Heinie Heitmueller's mark of 225.

Crawford passed last Winter in New Orleans in business. There baseball is an all-year pastime and Crawford played quite a bit.

Crawford also took part in more than 25 games while the Tigers were making their way North last Spring.

In the championship series he played in every game and since league baseball ceased he has played 21 games with the tourists. By the time December 21 rolls around it is thought he will have reached the 250 mark.

Heitmueller played in about 200 games on the Coast the year he made his long mark. After finishing the season he went to Japan with a party of ballcasters.

Cleveland probably will not train at Macon, Ga. The Boston Nationals are in the same neighborhood and the two had trouble over the use of the park there. The new quarters have not been decided upon.

Dick Hobitzel, first sacker of the Cincinnati Reds, is a football expert as well as a baseball player. He is an assistant coach to the University of Cincinnati.

The United Bowling Clubs of New York announce that America will have