THROW ON MAJORS MADE BY OUTLAWS

Head of Federals Says New League Has Signed 127 of Rivals' Players.

CHADBOURNE WILL JUMP

Ex-Beaver Outfielder Will Receive $3000 a Year—Tinker Completes Pitching Staff—Josh Devore Is Considering Change.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 24.—Chester Chadbourne, outfielder of the Portland team of the Pacific Coast Baseball League, today signed a contract to play three years with the Kansas City Federals. It is understood his salary will be $3000 a year.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—(Special.)—The major leagues are in for a rude jolt. Starting information of the inroads being made by the Federals came to light today with the meeting here of the players' committee of the new league. "One hundred and twenty-seven players have been signed, and of these 32 were major leaguers last season," is the way President Gilmore's announcement read.

Charles Weeghman, president of the local club, and Joe Tinker, manager, acknowledged the acquisition of Rollie Zeider, the Yankee infielder, and Claude Hendrix, the Kansas City hurling star. The signed contracts for three years are now in the possession of the Chicago Federal club, with which they will be affiliated.

It was reported Bill Bradley, the former Nap star, had formally signed to manage a Toronto club. The committee on stands, which met jointly with the players' body, reports that work on all parks will start immediately.

Zeider and Hendrix Jump. The salary was not given out, but Zeider is said to have informed a friend that he was to get $5000 for three years and a bonus in the bargain. Hendrix is youngster landed by Fred Clarke, the Pirate manager, several years ago for the mere sum of a nickel. Zeider was told of a preliminary youth pitching somewhere down in Kansas, and one day he happened to be in the town and remembered the "pitch" he grabbed a telephone, talked with Hendrix, who was more than anxious to break into a big show, agreed on terms and then paid a nickel for the phone call.

The big Pirate hurler is ranked with the best in the old league. In 1912, which was practically his first real season of work, he topped the circuit with a record of 24 games won and nine lost. Last season he failed to maintain his stride, and under the new rating was placed in the list of big fellows, with a bundle of speed and a rattling good "spitball."

Tinker's Mound List Full. Tinker is now satisfied with his pitching staff and will not make any effort to pick up any more of this variety of athlete. He also has "King" Cole, of the Yankees; Ad Brennan, of the Phillies; and Gene Packard, of the Cincinnati Reds. Hendrix makes the fourth man. Tinker's only need now is a young outfielder of worth.

While the league boasts the signed contract of 127 players, the officials are not yet ready to give out the names. Some juggling may be done to strengthen the not lucky in landing stars from the majors, and the announcement of names will follow this.

With 83 major leaguers, each team is assured of at least 10. With additions being made from day to day, this number will swell, and it will not be surprising if 15 of the big fellows are with each club when the season starts.

Josh Devore Is Wavering. One who may be signed in a few days is Josh Devore, ex-Giant outfielder, now leaguer with the Phillies. His signed contract has been received at the Quaker club offices, according to word from there, but Devore says there is no truth to this.

Plans for the local "Fed" park have reached that stage where bids are being opened. Zachary Taylor Davis, the architect, will handle this detail for Weeghman.

Just where today's meeting of the league officials was held is not known. Mr. Weeghman rushed from the meeting to the Federal League office and gave out the facts. Those present were Ned Hendrix, Baltimore; Charles Weeghman, Chicago; and Walter Mullen, Buffalo, on the players' committee. Edward Steinhilber, St. Louis; James A. Gilmore, Chicago; and E. E. Gates, Indianapolis, comprised the committee on stands.

New York's Price Too Low. CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—Rollie Zeider, who is reported to have joined the Chicago Federals, refused an offer of $4000 salary to sign with the New York Americans. Zeider wanted $5000 and a chance to play third, but Arthur Irwin, representing the Yankees, would not grant the difference in money; nor with Maisei's prospects of another good year at third, would he promise Zeider an opening there.

SILENT BACKERS ARE RICH

Wealthy "Unknowns" Aid Federals, Says Barney Van.

That the new Federal League has plenty of money under cover and that it will almost surely make good is the opinion expressed yesterday by Barney Van, baseball and boxing writer of New York, who is a Portland visitor.

Some of the New York capitalists Mr. Van enumerates as behind the independent circuit have never been mentioned before. He says that in addition to the millionaires openly backing the Feds, he knows at least three men worth upwards of 1,000,000 in business—Thelms Stokes, the New York hotel man; J. Drexel Biddle, of Philadelphia, and Harry Brown, of New York—who are heavily interested.

"The fans back East naturally will welcome the Feds and I believe they will be in New York before another two years," said the New York expert last night. "I don't think they will get many more big leaguers to jump this year, but if they stick through 1914 and show they have the money watch the flock that will jump one season hence."

Mr. Van says Willie Ritchie is about as popular around New York as mo-

EX-NATIONAL LEAGUE STAR MAY GO TO FEDERALS.

Player Held by San Francisco Reserve Clause Says He Does Not Expect to Return to Baseball.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 24.—(Special.)—"If I play ball again and the Federals offer me more money than the San Francisco club does, I will jump." Such was the statement made today by Orville Overall, ex-National League star, and at present held by the reserve clause to the San Francisco club.

Overall says he does not intend to play baseball again, but if he finds that his business prospects have dimmed he will do a uniform once more.

Overall jumped to the California outlaws some years ago, and found it an easy matter to get back into organized baseball. When he jumps again he will not care whether he gets back, as he figures he only has a few more years of baseball left in him.

CHEMAWA BEATS PACIFIC "U"

Indians Roll Up Score of 26 to 18 In Fast and Clean Game.

CHEMAWA, Or., Jan. 24.—(Special.)—The Chemawa Indians defeated the Pacific University tonight in a fast and clean game of basketball at Chemawa gymnasium. Score 26 to 18.

Two Put Out in First Round.

PARIS, Jan. 24.—Sam Langford tonight knocked out Patrick Curran, the English heavyweight, in the first round of a scheduled 20-round bout.

CARDIFF, WALES, JAN. 24.—BOMBARDIER WELLS KNOCKED OUT PIGOT, A FRENCH HEAVYWEIGHT, IN THE FIRST ROUND TONIGHT.

Here is the way the various squads shape up to the writer's notion:
Portland—McCredie has same outfield, also a new slugger, Buddy Ryan, same infield, except 300 hitter, Lindsay, but Bill will not be missed if Davis performs up to 1913; same catching staff, Fisher and Henry and a couple of prospects, Haworth, of Pendleton, and Perkins, Portland semi-pro. Champions have lost Pitchers James and Hascorn, and while tape has been bought from Buffalo, at least one guaranteed pitching winner is needed.

Sacramento—Wolverton has disposed of Outfielder Lewis, but Schweitzer, of the Southern League, likely will more than offset this loss; same infield; Bill will do bulk of catching as usual, with Rohrer, of the Oaks; Lynn, a kid holdover, and Hannah, of Spokane, as assistants. Catching staff about the same as at finish of 1913, corps weaker, with Williams gone. Sacramento needs two pitchers and a utility player.

San Francisco—Johnston will be badly missed in outfield. Hoffman, former Pirate, and Tobin are new gardeners. McCardie gone from infield and O'Leary, of St. Louis Cards, added. Outfield trifle weaker, infield probably slightly stronger; pitching and catching staff same as at finish of 1913, when Seals looked pretty good in the battery points.

Los Angeles—Outfield will not miss Krueger, who has gone to the outlaws, as Dillon has three high-class horticulturists coming—Allen, who stirred up dust at Detroit after being sent there by Washington; Calvo, the Washington Cuban, and Harper, Bill Abstein, former Pirate first baseman, has been added to infield, but no other new men. Pitching staff shows several promising recruits—McHenry, of the California State League; Love, a sky-scraping southpaw from Love, Miss., via Washington; Barton, a Virginia State Leaguer, and others. Catching staff probably is slightly stronger, with Hoffman. Summing up, the Angel outfield appears one of the best in the circuit, but the infield is woefully weak, perhaps the least formidable in the circuit. Dillon expects help from Washington, Chicago, and Philadelphia and he needs it. Likewise, he could stand another sure winning pitcher or two.
