

GIRL SHOOT'S WIFE OF MAN SHE LOVES

Murder Follows Refusal to Obtain Divorce so Couple Can Be Married.

SUICIDE FOLLOWS ACT

Young Woman Once Arrested After Committing Murder, but Released Because Witnesses Cannot Identify Her.

NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 7.—Hazel Herdman, an innkeeper's daughter, confessed, after taking a fatal dose of poison late today, that it was she who last night shot and killed Mrs. Harriet Manning, wife of Charles I. Manning, a garage owner. She said, on her deathbed in a hospital in Montclair, that she had killed the woman in order that Manning might marry her.

"Take Care of Baby," Says Note.

Before she took the poison she wrote a note to Manning, which he turned over to the police. It read:

"This is my last letter. I am going to commit suicide because of my love for you. It was I who shot your wife. Goodbye. Take care of baby."

The young woman took the poison in a candy store in Bloomfield, N. J., where she had been released early today from the custody of the police. Although the authorities had suspected Miss Herdman of the crime because of her intimacy with Manning, which was known to the residents of Verona, a small suburb where she lived, the witnesses to the shooting, the murdered woman's mother, sister and niece, were last night unable to identify her as the veiled woman who fired the fatal shots.

On reaching Bloomfield, Miss Herdman went to the home of her aunt, Lillian Manning, called her there and asked her to accompany her to the morgue to see his wife's body. This the young woman refused to do, asking Manning to go with her and visit their baby.

The child was being supported by Manning, the police say, in Montclair. "I'm dying to see baby," the girl said.

Manning agreed to do this after seeing his wife's body. Returning from the morgue later in the morning, they visited the baby and then Manning returned to his garage in Verona. On his arrival he was told by telephone that Miss Herdman had taken poison in the candy shop. Manning returned and found her in the apartment where the candymaker, suffering intensely from the effects of the poison and calling out for him. She had entered the candy shop, asked for a glass of water, and swallowed eight tablets of a deadly drug. Manning rushed her to the hospital. She died three hours later. The authorities then took Manning to police headquarters and questioned him. They learned from other sources that Manning's wife recently received a legacy of $2400, to which he falls heir. The revolver with which the girl committed the murder, belonged, they learned, to one of Manning's chauffeurs. They said tonight that he was not under arrest, but "detained."

ED RAND GIVES SCARE

BAKER COUNTY DEMOCRATS UPSET BY SHERIFF'S POLITICAL WAYS.

Official Declares He Has Never Retired From Race for Nomination When He Finds Deputy Seeks Honors.

BAKER, Or., Feb. 7.—(Special.)—Ed Rand, Sheriff of Baker County, has thrown a scare into the Democratic camp by declaring that he never has retired from the race for Democratic nomination for Sheriff of Baker County, and insisting that he is still a candidate. His announced retirement recently has brought a deputy into the race, and now Mr. Rand's Patti performance has upset everything and caused no little worry in the ranks of the Democrats.

Mr. Rand on his recent trip to Portland received many assurances that the feeling against Governor West is so strong that any candidate who runs on a platform opposed to his principles is assured of victory. This is believed to have influenced him in his decision.

Some Democrats, however, think the Sheriff is "stalling" to keep a strong Republican out of the race. Those who do not hold to this view fear factionalism in the party as the result of the West-Copperfield episode, and Mr. Rand's attitude is anything but pleasing to the leaders in local Democratic politics.

TOWN CLUBS PLANNED

DEMOCRATS ARE TO ORGANIZE BRANCHES OF LEAGUE.

Frank B. Tichenor, of Seattle, Begins Campaign—First Club to Be at Spokane.

Spokane, Wash., Feb. 7.—(Special.)—Frank B. Tichenor, of Seattle, secretary of the State Democratic League, asked Spokane Democrats at the Inland Club meeting today to organize Club No. 1 of the league in this city.

"Before the primaries we intend to have every town in the state so organized," Mr. Tichenor said, "and I am now making a personal visit to every county. We want Spokane to have the honor of installing the first club, because O. J. Saville, committeeman in the Fifth Congressional District, has been the first to get his territory organized and to appoint committeemen in each county."

The idea was warmly received, and the organization will be commenced at once by Mr. Saville and others interested.

APARTMENT IS RAIDED

POLICE START "CLEAN-UP" CAMPAIGN IN RESIDENCE SECTION.

Lovejoy Apartment House, Seventeenth and Lovejoy Streets, Invaded and "Spotted" Women Taken.

The first of a series of promised raids on apartment houses which have long been under police eyes was made last night when the Lovejoy apartment house, Seventeenth and Lovejoy streets, was invaded by the police armed with warrants for women known to reside there, and accused of plying underworld traffic.

The following were arrested: Joe Lebeaupin, proprietor; Marjory Williams, Ida Brown, Florence Williams, Beatrice Nash, A. R. Johnson and Cy Confer. Confer was arrested for resisting an officer, having resisted the serving of a warrant in his room.

Proprietor Lebeaupin was released on $200 bail.

Inasmuch as the police are planning to invade some of the better class apartments in the city, they are making arrests only on warrants. Women who have left the downtown rooming houses and hotels have been watched and the police say they have many of them "spotted."

The raid last night was made by Sergeant Harms and Patrolmen Long, Griffin, Lillis and Wise.
