WILD SEA WAVES DRAW HUNDREDS TO BEACHES FOR OUTINGS

Lateness of Season Fails to Stem Tide of Vacationists Making for Shore's Hotels and Cottages.

B AYOCEAN. Or., Aug. 29.-(Spe-cial.)-The steady influx of vacationists here continues unabated.

Bungalow City presents the appearance of a thriving community and the hotels are accommodating a capacity number of guests. There is not a cot- | tage on the beach which does not house a merry party of pleasure-seekers who are enjoying the varied amusements which Bayocean has to offer.

Wednesday evening was "stunt night" at the natatorium. Some ex-cellent examples of fancy diving were given, notable among which were the swallow dive, corkscrew, jackknife, one and a half and piledriver dives.

The spectators experienced many thrills from the daring feats and high dives. Those participating were: Chester Hall, Percy Bowen, Byard Johnson, Harry Porter, Stanley Cha-pin, Edwin Tracy, Howard Hutchinson, Jesse Perry, Frank M. Lewis and Floyd Banford.

Cottagers Pick Wild Berries.
