

OREGON PEACE PLEA IS SENT TO WILSON

Petition, Signed by 100 Most Prominent Men in State, Urges Utmost Efforts.

BRYAN ALSO GETS MESSAGE

Fervent Appeal for Cessation of War Prepared by William Galvani, Society Secretary, to Represent Masses.

"Let us have peace" is the fervent petition just forwarded to President Wilson by official Oregon. The message urges Mr. Wilson to do his utmost to bring about a cessation of the war.

The petition, though it contains only 100 names, is considered the strongest appeal ever made by the people of this state. It bears the signatures of chief state officers, judges, educators, financiers, editors, leaders in industry, transportation and business. The document is in the form of a resolution and, because of the influence and prominence of the men signing it, it is expected it will attract more attention than any similar undertaking in the movement for the restoration of peace.

Secretary Galvani said that the entire list of 100 is a unit in the earnest desire for peace and that this general sentiment throughout the list is reflected in the wishes of the people of the whole state.

"I have undertaken this work at the suggestion of eminent men in Washington and New York," said Mr. Galvani, "men who do not favor any particular belligerent, but who earnestly are seeking to avert this terrible carnage of blood and iron. Instead of securing a large number of signers, I have concluded to confine myself to a smaller number, but those who represent the great avenues of education, production and distribution.

"Surely this will carry much weight in all other states, would be a power for great good to humankind. It is terrible to contemplate what is going on in Europe, Africa and Asia and those who are spending their time in noisy demonstrations against either of the belligerents would advance the interests of humankind much more by earnestly working along lines similar to what we have done in behalf of the Oregon Peace Society."

The following is the letter accompanying the resolutions sent to the President:

The attached resolutions, signed by the best known and most representative men in Oregon, are respectfully submitted to you in behalf of the Oregon Peace Society, whose strong faith in you inspires us to advocate peace with the utmost earnestness.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM H. GALVANI,
Secretary Oregon Peace Society.

The following letter, with a copy of the resolutions, will be sent to Secretary Bryan:

On behalf of the Oregon Peace Society we enclose herewith a copy of resolutions signed by the most representative men of the state of Oregon, and sent to the President of the United States, knowing, as we do, your own sentiments and efforts in this matter we are sure of your influence with the President to the end that the object we are endeavoring to promote be speedily accomplished.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM H. GALVANI,
Secretary Oregon Peace Society.

The resolutions in full follow:

Resolved, That we hereby appeal to the President of the United States to renew his efforts in behalf of a speedy restoration of the business of peace among the great nations now engaged in this fratricidal conflict, and to use his influence on the part of the United States to support of its contention by force, but that each and all of them rather unite in the work of bringing about a speedy conclusion of existing hostilities and a restoration of peace and industry on an enduring basis.

Copies of the resolution together with the letters of transmission to the President and Secretary of State, will be sent to the Oregon delegation in Congress, with the request that they co-operate to the fullest extent in accomplishing the object desired.

WONDER CLOTHES

"FROM MAKER TO WEARER"

$10 NO LESS $15 NO MORE

138-140-142-3RD ST. COR ALDER

GRAND SPRING OPENING

After weeks of labor and constant endeavor, tearing down and remodeling, we are once more ready for business, with a selling space of 7000 square feet, altered to suit the convenience of our large patronage—a place where you can buy your Clothes BY DAYLIGHT. We emphasize this fact because we will have more daylight to sell by than any clothing store in the Northwest.

Ready for Business Monday, March 22

A New Feature

We have added to our line Suits, Raincoats and Overcoats to retail at $15. To those who know us we need not elaborate on the merit of these clothes—they know that at $10 we "turned out" Suits and Raincoats that were the envy of our contemporaries. But the demand for still better clothing was so persistent that the Wonder Company concluded to manufacture hand-tailored clothes at $15 to equal the best that can be had at $25 elsewhere.

Serving the Many Instead of the Few

Selling THOUSANDS instead of HUNDREDS, that's the WHY and the HOW of it—why we can sell them at $10 and $15 and still make money. Is there a tailor in town who can afford a $10,000 a year designer? We employ such a man—that's the reason we can give you better style, better fit and better satisfaction.

No Legerdemain

There is no mystery about it—it's just taking the common-sense, shortest way of putting the clothes on your back at least cost, with but two profits in the transaction—YOURS and OURS. We take the manufacturer's small profit, you take the middle-man's of from $5 to $10.

In our garments at this price you will find our regular "Wonder" label. As usual you will find that these clothes are made of all wool fabrics only. Guaranteed as to styles and wearing qualities.

TWO DISTINCT PRICES

OUR PANTS DEPARTMENT

Heretofore our Trousers sales have been a negligent factor in our business, but with our increased facilities, we have devoted a large space for exclusive sale of Trousers at two prices. You will find these equal to any shown by dealers at $3.50 to $7—1000 pairs to select from. BE ON HAND MONDAY FOR YOUR SPRING SUIT—SOUVENIRS!

In our $15 garments you will find our "Wonder Special" labels. This grade of workmanship will be strictly hand-tailored.

MARY ANTIN IS PRAISED

WRITER'S LECTURE IN PORTLAND INDORSED BY LIBRARIANS.

Appearance March 31 at White Temple to Be Due to Energy and Labor of Council of Jewish Women.

"Mary Antin's address on 'The Immigrant and the Library' was one of the most interesting features of the convention of the American Library Association, and I'm glad she is coming here," said Miss Rachael Rhoades, of the Portland Central Library, yesterday referring to the writer and lecturer who is coming to Portland to lecture March 31 in the White Temple.

The increase in the membership and the constructive work is to follow the re-organization of the service. Elaborate plans are being made for training and drilling in marine work on the cruiser Boston, the training ship of the militia.

George H. Wilson, Second Lieutenant and Battalion Quartermaster of the First Battalion Oregon National Guard, was initiated in the "Lieutenants' Union" last Monday night, the occasion being the Federal inspection of the band, the non-commissioned officers' staff and the field officers with their staffs, at the Portland armory.

When the officers were assembled Monday night the inspecting officer announced that he would call on the junior officer present to illustrate the proper way to saddle and bridle a horse. As the junior officer was Lieutenant Wilson he was brought forward and unsuspectingly sent for his equipment. A wooden horse was brought out and placed in the center of the room for the demonstration.

When the horse had been saddled and bridled Wilson was directed to mount. Volunteers were called to steady the animal while this was done. When all was in readiness, with a sturdy supporter at each of the horse's legs, Wilson swung gracefully into the saddle.

Loud applause notified the unsuspecting lieutenant that he had completed his initiation.

In one minute your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, sniffling, blowing, headache, dizziness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh will be gone.

It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly. It's just fine.
