The Great A-B Sanitary Gas Range Has Given Satis-faction Everywhere

There are so many exclusive features in the construction of the A-B Sanitary, so many improvements over the ordinary gas range, that, when compared with others, its superiority is easily seen. It is without question the most economical gas range for sale today, consuming 25 per cent less fuel by reason of the patent burners. Every part can be taken out in a moment and cleaned the same as a dish. The new automatic lighter, which requires no matches is a feature which always pleases. Made in 30 sizes and suitable for any space.

INDIANS WILL COME TO PORTLAND TO ATTEND THE 1915 ROSE FESTIVAL

Arrangements Made by Louis W. Hill for Prominent Blackfoot Tribesmen to Participate in Junetime's Gala Event Here.

Village of Chief Three Bears, Which Willba Pitched Near Festival Center

NE of the special attractions of Panama-Pacific Exposition will be brought to Portland as a feature of the Rose Festival, in the visit of the Blackfeet Indians from Glacier National Park, who are to be sent by Louis W. Hill, president of the Great Northern.

The arrangement was made at the instance of Lloyd McDowell, publicity agent for the Rose Festival, who, for several seasons, was with Mr. Hill in he work of exploiting the Glacier National Park. The Indians have sent to the exposition in San Fran-cisco for a year. It will be arranged for the party to leave the exposition for a time, and several other members of the tribe will come to Portland from Glacier National Pak.

More to Be Here Than at Fair. The party of indians in Portland will probably be larger even than the party at the San Francisco Exposition.

The Biackfest Indians visited Portland a few years ago under the auspices of the Great Northern, and were one of the features of greatest attention. one of the features of greatest attrac-tion at the Rose Festival. This year the preparations for their visit are to oe even more elaborate than before.
Tepees for the tribe will be erected near the Festival center and every day of the Festival the Indians will pardelipate in the entertainments of the day. Mr. Hill is sending them here at
