Pekin Government Confident That No Outbreak Will Follow-People of Capital Still Unaware of Situation.

PEKIN, May 8,-Japan's ultimatum was presented to China yesterday, but in a modified form, which the Chinese government is prepared to accept.

Japan omits all items in group V of the amended list of demands. Group Includes the stipulations against which China raised the most vigorous objections. The decision of Japan to defer these matters is made known in defer these matters is made known in an official communication of 2500 words, which was issued here today in regard to the Japanese uitimatum. The principal provisions of group V have to do with the appointment of Japanese military and political advisers for China and for Japanese supervision over the manufacture or purchase by China of munitions of war. The Japanese government instructed Eki Hoki, Japanese Minister at Pekin. Eki Hioki, Japanese Minister at Pekin, to advise China to give due regard to Japan's wishes and to the conciliatory Japan's wishes and to the conciliatory spirit of the Tokio government, in view of which Japan believes China had given a satisfactory response.

Compliance Being Drafted. The attaches of the Foreign Office were at work all night translating Japan's ultimatum and drafting the terms of China's compliance with the demands, which will be submitted to Yuan Shi Kai and the state council this morning at 10 o'clock.

The reply will be delivered to M. Hioki, the Japanese Minister, tonight or Sunday morning. The Chinese note will review China's case, answer the charges contained in the ultimatum and secept the demands without qualifi-

It was learned today that in the course of Vice-Minister Tsao Yulin's visit to the Japanese Legation, he proposed verbally to meet the Japanese railroad demand, to grant school and hospital privileges, offered to bestow land without compensation on Japanese and proposed to withdraw China's three preguirements resaring Shan Tung requirements regarding Shan - Tung province, namely, the return to the status quo before the war, China's participation in the peace conference and compensation for damages in the Kiau-Chau campaign.

The final Chinese proposals, there-fore, refused only to authorize Japan to supply half these arms used by Uhina; to participate in the conduct of Chinese arsenals: to appoint Japanese advisers to China and to preach Bud-dahism in the republic.

Puture Requirements Not Liked. The Chinese dislike the requirements insisted upon by Japan that China recognize Tokio's right to reopen these questions at a future date, but they will accept these features unless the fied irreconcilables in the councils of President Yuan Shi Kai succeed before next Monday in altering the President's

The ultimatum complains of the Chinese attitude in advancing the argument that the Japanese position was designed in part for presentation to foreign countries. It is considered curious that the ultimatum is written only in Japanese, while all formal documents ave been written both in Japanese and

The Chinese public is quite unaware of the trend events took today. Long lines of Chinese carts all day long glowly dragged their way through the rain into the legation quarter and to the railroad stations, taking bullion and articles of value to be placed

MR. M'COMBS IS NEUTRAL

Democratic Chairman Says There Is Nothing for Americans to Do.

CINCINNATI, May 8,-William F. Mc-Combs, chairman of the Democratic Na-

against Germany, it would amount to nothing more than the recall of the Ambassadors of each country. We could not fight, because there are no German ships on the sea and no one would consider the insane proposition of sending an army over there. I am absolutely neutral in this war." Mr. McCombs stopped over in this city on his way to French Lick Springs.

SINKING CAUSES RIOT HERE

Neutrality Is Forgotten and Police Use Clubs to Restore Peace.

The police were forced to use their clubs to suppress a near-riot which started at Park and Washington streets Friday night during a discussion of the sinking of the Lusitania. An attempt was made to arrest the ringleaders, but the men escaped in the crowd.

The crowd had gathered to read press bulletins on the Pittock building. Discussion of the news led to bitter feeling. A blow was struck. The crowd forgot all pleas for neutrality. The flight was on.

Someone turned in a riot call to po-lice headquarters. Plainclothesmen re-sponded and used their clubs to defend themselves. The trouble ceased when a uniformed squad appeared.

LONDON, May 8.—Most of the morning newspapers print editorials to-day concerning the sinking of the Lusitania.

The Times says it is not for Great Rritain to speculate upon the course to be adopted by the United States Government, now that they are confronted with a situation which concerns that country as closely as it does Great Britain.

"The members of Mr. Wilson's ministry," says the Times, "are the guardians of their national honor and to the control of the Atlantic."

All Neutrals Declared Affronted,
The Graphic says that the exact details of the Lusitania incident in one sense are unimportant, but the broad fact is that a ship containing 2000 non-combatants and neutrals was sent to her destruction with every prospect of an appalling loss of life. It adds:

"The real significance of this news that such a deliberate affront to neutrals is the weapon of a nation that knows itself defeated."

"People who talk seriously of lucky and unlucky omens in this enlightened generation are beyond my comprehension." Miss Tempest declares. "To the superstitious members of my profession all the powers of heaven and earth, all the facts of nature and science, can be confounded and controverted by the appearance of a black cat in a doorway or the wearing of an innocent peacock feather.

"I sometimes regret that I do not believe in omens. For I really think superstitious persons get more happiness out of life than we sensible, practical folk. After all, faith is a beautiful thing, even faith in the absurd and ridiculous. As for myself, I can trust nothing to luck or chance. I wish, for instance, that I could believe in the superstition of the unlucky theater. But I can't. The Duke of York's Theater in London was regarded as a regular hoodoo, yet I achieved one of my greatest successes there."

This afternoon Miss Tempest will appear in "Nearly Married" and tonight the same bill will close her engagement.
