MISS STEDMAN HERE

Another of Film Luminaries Visits Portland.

STAY WILL LAST FOUR DAYS

Popular Motion Picture Star and Former Operatic Prima Donna Will Greet Her Many Admirers at the Peoples.

Myrtle Stedman, motion picture star and former operatic prima donna, is added to the list of film luminaries on the Portland visitor register. Miss Stedman arrived in Portland yesterday afternoon for a four-day stay in the city, during which she will greet her many admirers at the Peoples Theater. "My first trip to Portland," says Miss Stedman, "was in 1914, when I was a young girl, and it was a very pleasant surprise to find so many admirers at the Peoples Theater. I have heard so much of the City of Roses that when my itinerary for a transcontinental tour enabled me to place Portland on the list I jumped at the chance. "And then I'm greeted by this kind of weather"—with a glance at black sky and the dripping rain from the Depot. "However," she brightened, "it's certainly a relief from the terrible heat of the Sacramento Valley."

Busy Life Was Here.
Miss Stedman rescued her traveling bags from threatened oblivion, made a quick motor journey to the Multnomah Hotel, and then, at a command for a conversation change from general to the personal, confided that she went into motion pictures to do thrilling riding stunts in those old wild and woolly "westerns" from the Selig studios of five or six years ago. "I quit the stage and light opera to retire to private life in Colorado," she recalled the charming film star. "I had two years of perfect freedom—years of life in the open, most of the time astride a horse, and then came offer after offer from Selig to apply my riding ability to the silent drama. I finally yielded, chiefly because I could take my pony along. But after that Selig engagement came four years with Bowditch and Morosco. "When I look back over those 'movie' years I feel that I have been 'double-crossed,' she laughed, for it's been so long since I have ridden in a picture that my memory can't recall the date."

Chicago Is Her Native City.
Miss Stedman, who is a blue-eyed blonde, is a native of Chicago. She received a musical education, completing it under the great Marchesi, in France, and then went into Grand opera. She soon turned to light opera, starring in such productions as "The Chocolate Soldier" and "The Isle of Splice." Then came a brief period of stock and traveling with road shows. Next retirement; then pictureland. Her most recent pictures, both Paramount, in which she added many admirers to her following, are "The Happiness of Three Women" and "The Soul of Kura San." The present starring tour is a vocal one, Miss Stedman's repertoire consisting of a number of well-known semi-classical numbers. She will appear at the Peoples Theater four times daily, commencing today and concluding Tuesday night.

DRIVER'S CASE SET

Hugh L. Putnam Denies Using Liquor on Auto Ride.

HEARING TO BE TOMORROW

Mystery Surrounding Whereabouts of Owner of Car That Killed Mrs. Anna Petersen Cleared by Appearance of Mr. Osborne.

The preliminary hearing of Hugh L. Putnam, driver of the automobile which ran over and killed Mrs. Anna Petersen Friday, has been set for tomorrow before Municipal Judge Stevenson. The hearing will be held at 4 o'clock Monday, at which time several eyewitnesses to the accident will testify. The mystery surrounding the whereabouts of Charles Osborne, owner of the car, was solved yesterday when he was located at his apartment, 1924 Grand avenue. Mr. Osborne was not in the house at the time, but the landlady stated that she saw him in the house late Friday night and that he and Mrs. Osborne had started downtown a short time before. According to the story told by Mr. Putnam to the police, Mr. Osborne, together with two men, Dan Green and Edward Hensley, and three young women had gone for an automobile ride Thursday night. Mr. Putnam also said that the party had several drinks during the course of the evening, but that he did not drink anything. While driving along Linnton road the machine ran into a telephone pole and bent the front axle. Mr. Osborne was left at a downtown hotel, according to several verified reports, and he told Mr. Putnam to take the machine and have it repaired. Mr. Osborne is said to have remained in the room at the hotel until late Friday afternoon. Mr. Putnam stoutly denies that he had been drinking, either Thursday night or Friday before the accident happened. Ten empty quart whiskey bottles were found in his room at the Hotel Savon, 131 Eleventh street, but these, he states, have accumulated since the state went dry, January 1, 1916. A man, whose name has not been learned, informed the police that he was an eyewitness to the accident, and that Mr. Putnam was acting with due care and caution. Mr. Putnam is being held in the City Jail. His bail has been lowered from $2000 to $2000.

RED MEN PLAN ROUNDUP

Three bucking bulls are included in the card of wild Mexican cattle to be sent here for cowpunchers and cowgirls to try their riding skill on at the Great Western Roundup to be given at Multnomah Field, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July 13, 14 and 15. The other cattle will be used in the bulldogging and roping contests, in addition to putting on their own original and spontaneous performances, which can never be scheduled on a programme, but which wild cattle can always be depended on to do unexpectedly to raise the hair of spectators and put the range riders to the supreme test of meeting emergencies instantly. In addition to several famous outlaw buckers (horses that will never be broken to the saddle) which have unseated well-known riders at the Pendleton Roundup, the management of the Portland Roundup has obtained Warpath, Punchavilla, Wild Mustang, Aarora-Go-On, Yellowstreak and many others, which are as famous in California, Texas and other Southwestern states as are Long Tom and others at Pendleton. Fifty of the fastest running horses in the Western states, and an equal number of trick-riding and roping cowpunchers also are to be brought to Portland. Then there will be the cayuses brought by the Indians from the Umatilla reservation at Pendleton. In addition to races between the red men, war dances will be given by the tribesmen. For every horse there will be a cowpuncher or cowgirl—most of them having won championships and other prizes at the Pendleton Roundup. No bucking horse is barred; an offer of $100 cash has been made for any person in Portland who has a horse that cannot be ridden by some cowboy or cowgirl at Multnomah Field.

Former United States Senator Mason, Pioneer in Pure Food and Drugs Legislation, Father of Rural Free Delivery System Says Nuxated Iron

Increased His Power and Endurance so Much, That He Feels It Ought to Be Made Known to Every Nervous, Run-down, Anaemic Man, Woman, and Child.

Opinions of Dr. Howard James, late of the Manhattan State Hospital of New York and formerly Assistant Physician Brooklyn State Hospital; Dr. Schuyler C. Jaques, Visiting Surgeon of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, New York; and Former Health Commissioner Wm. R. Kerr, of the City of Chicago.

What Senator Mason Says

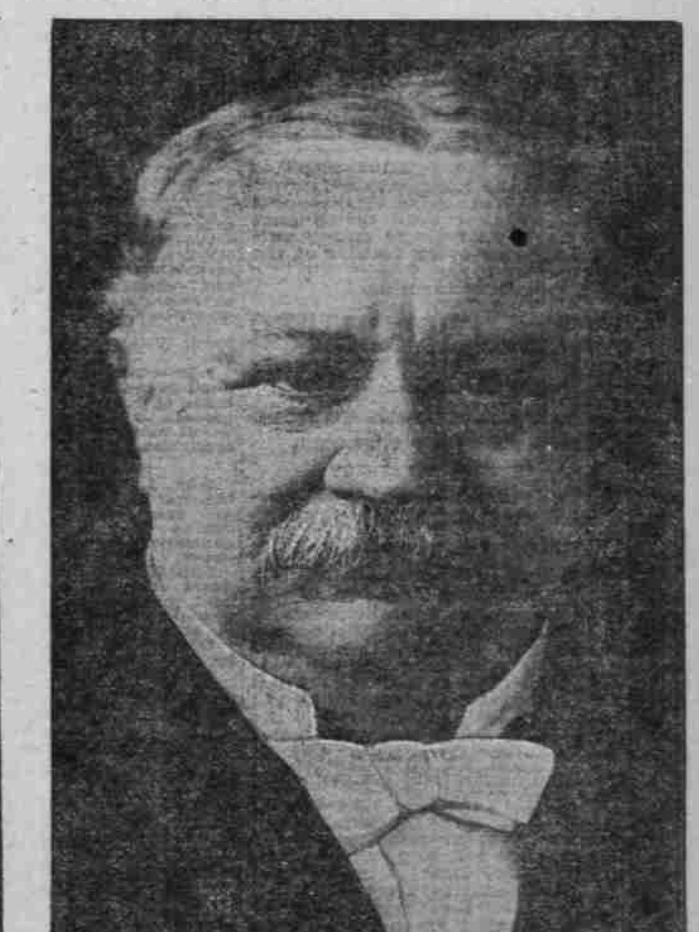

GENTLEMEN: I have often said I would never recommend medicine of any kind. I believe that the doctor's place. However, after the hardest political campaign of my life, without a chance for a vacation, I had been starting to feel one cannot describe. I was advised to try Nuxated Iron. As a pioneer in the food and drug legislation, I was at first loath to try an advertised remedy, but after advising with my medical friends, I gave it a test. The results have been so beneficial in my own case, I made up my mind to let my friends know about it, and you are at liberty to publish this statement if you so desire. I am now 60 years of age and I feel that a remedy which will build up the strength and increase the power of endurance of one at my age, should be known to the world.

Yours very truly,
Wm. E. Mason

CHICAGO, ILL.

Senator Mason's statement in regard to Nuxated Iron was shown to several physicians who were requested to give their opinions thereon. Dr. Howard James, late of the Manhattan State Hospital of New York and formerly Assistant Physician Brooklyn State Hospital, said: "Senator Mason is to be commended on handing out this statement on Nuxated Iron for public print. There are thousands of men and women who need a strength and blood builder but do not know what to take. There is nothing like organic iron—Nuxated Iron—to give increased strength, snap, vigor, and staying power. It endows the blood with the life-giving force of women and is an unfailing source of renewed vitality, endurance and power for men who burn up too rapidly their nervous energy in the strenuous strain of the great business competition of the day."

Former Health Commissioner Wm. R. Kerr, of the City of Chicago, says: "I have taken Nuxated Iron myself and experienced its health-giving and strength-building effect, and in the interest of public welfare I feel it my duty to make known the results of its use. I am well past my three-score years and want to say that I believe my own great physical activity is largely due today to my personal use of Nuxated Iron. From my own experience with Nuxated Iron I feel it is such a valuable remedy that it ought to be used in every hospital and prescribed by every physician in the country." Dr. E. Jaques, a Boston physician who has studied abroad in great European medical institutions, said: "Senator Mason is right. As I have said a hundred times over, organic iron is the greatest of all strength builders. "Not long ago a man came to me who was nearly half a century old and wanted me to give him a preliminary examination for life insurance. I was astonished to find him with the blood pressure of a boy of twenty and as full of vigor, vim and vitality as a young man; in fact, a young man he really was, notwithstanding his age. The secret, he said, was taking organic iron—Nuxated Iron. He had filled his life with renewed life. At thirty he was in bad health; at forty-six he was care-worn and nearly all in. Now at fifty, after taking Nuxated Iron, a miracle of vitality and his face beamed with the buoyancy of youth. Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to change from a weak, pale and sluggish state to a strong, healthy and energetic one. Without it, no matter how much or what you eat, your food merely passes through you without doing you any good. You don't get the strength out of it, and as a consequence you become weak, pale and sickly looking, just like a plant trying to grow in a soil deficient in iron." Dr. Schuyler C. Jaques, Visiting Surgeon of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, New York City, said: "I have never before given out any medical information or advice for publication, as I ordinarily do not believe in it. But in the case of Nuxated Iron I feel I mention it. I have taken it myself and given it to my patients with most satisfactory results. I believe the older inorganic iron products to be unpalatable, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach; on the contrary, it is a most potent remedy in nearly all forms of indigestion as well as for nervous run-down conditions. The manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron that they offer to forfeit $100 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under sixty who lacks iron, and increase their strength 100 per cent or over in four weeks. This provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund four months if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days. It is dispensed in this city by the Owl Drug Co. and by all good druggists."
