

CONVENTIONS HOLD INTEREST OF CHURCHES THIS WEEK

Episcopalians and Epworth League Have Programmes Arranged—War Service Gets Attention, Too.

RIGHT Rev. William Ford Nichols, bishop of California, and the Right Rev. Adam Urias de Paez, bishop of the diocese of Cariboo, Canada, will be present at the thirtieth annual convention of the diocese of Oregon, to be held at St. Stephen's Cathedral Tuesday and Wednesday May 21 and 22. Bishop Nichols is one of the most distinguished members of the American Episcopate and president of the synod of the Pacific. He will deliver the convention sermon on the morning of May 21. Bishop de Paez recently returned from France, where he served two years as brigade chaplain in the Canadian army. Both he and Bishop Nichols will address the missionary meeting on the evening of the 21st.

Another important meeting in connection with the convention will be in the interest of religious education, which will be held Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Bishop de Paez will give the address.

Mrs. E. F. Ingram, with daughter and little son of Bend, and Mrs. J. F. Ghormley, arrived in the city Tuesday morning, from Waco, Tex., where her husband, Dr. E. E. Ingram, has recently resigned to take up Army U. M. C. A. work. He is now Y. M. C. A. secretary at Fort Doniphan, Fort Hill, Okla. Mrs. Ingram will make her home in Portland during the war.

Rev. Alexander Beers, pastor of the First Free Methodist Church, East Ninth and Mill streets, will preach this morning on "The Demands of the World." This sermon will be constructive in character, pointing out the defects of the church's attitude in the past, but also showing the proper scriptural alignment for the present and the future of the church.

Monday, the 20th, will start for Los Angeles, where he assists in a large convention and is the principal speaker. The following morning he returns to Oakland, Cal., where he has been invited as the principal speaker at the conference commencing of California churches. From Oakland he will return to Los Angeles, where he preaches the baccalaureate sermon for the Los Angeles Seminary and College. Sunday, the 21st, is the official day of the church has voted Rev. Mr. Beers a leave of absence of three weeks.

At the Rodney Avenue Christian Church at Rodney avenue and Knott street, 11 A. M., Rev. J. F. Ghormley will speak on the subject, "The Old Book Stand." At 5 P. M. he will take for his theme: "Making Christ Our King." At the morning service the choir will sing "The House That Stood the Storm." At the evening service Miss Helen Rosenberg will sing "Sweet Galilee" and the choir will render "Crown Him" (Gabriel).
