Mrs. Wesley Fargue (Vers Todd) The Wedding of Whom Was an Event of Last Week

Motor Corps of America, for which younger set members are seeking enlistments this week. Mrs. and Miss McMurray will be guests of honor at a number of interesting affairs this week. Local friends entertaining them with a series of fetes at the Auditorium.

Mrs. Lacey Johnston, of Ballston, Virginia, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Preston W. Smith, on Portland Heights. Mrs. Smith entertained informally at luncheon yesterday in her honor.

A charming affair of the week was the informal tea given by Mrs. J. C. Costello in honor of her niece, Mrs. John H. Hood, wife of Major Hood, of the Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. A. The affair proved a delightful renewal of acquaintance of a number of friends whom Mrs. Hood met when here on previous visits as Miss Helen McHugh. During Major Hood's absence overseas, Mrs. Hood and their son, John Hermon, Jr., and Frank McHugh, will make their home with Mrs. Hood's parents, Mrs. and Mrs. P. J. McHugh, in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. John Claife Monteth returned Friday from McCreddie Hot Springs in the Cascade Mountains, near Eugene.

Miss Frances Castner, of Hood River, Miss Naomi Beckwith and Miss Helen Harrington, of Salem, were guests in Portland during the week. They were entertained by several of their sorority sisters of Chi Omega. Picnics and informal teas were given for the visitors.

A garden party is being planned by the members of the Monday Musical Club to be given in the afternoon of Monday, September 9, at the residence of Mrs. Ora C. Baker, 1140 East Thirtieth street. Mayor Baker will make a patriotic address, and Lawrence Newton, of New Orleans, a member of the Second Regiment band, will contribute a number of piano selections. The programme has not yet been completed, but it gives promise of much artistry and interest.

Portlanders will learn with deep regret of the decision of Dr. and Mrs. N. Moesohn to leave this city for their future home in New York City. Dr. and Mrs. Moesohn have been prominent residents of this city for nineteen years, the former being editor of the Jewish Tribune, and a pioneer in social service work and an aggressive editor. The family also have been identified with philanthropic work of a social nature, and they have hosts of friends with whom they are very popular.

Dr. and Mrs. Moesohn will be at home to their friends Sunday afternoon and evening, September 8, at the residence of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David N. Moesohn, 485 East Eighteenth street North, Irvington. They will take their home in New York with their son, M. Moesohn, who recently was elected executive director of the United Waist League of America, leaving Portland September 9.

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the informal tea for which Mrs. Frederick Barker was hostess on Thursday, honoring Mrs. F. I. Behrend, who will leave soon for California to be with her son. The affair served as an au revoir to the friends of the honoree, as Mrs. Barker asked only Mrs. Behrend's old friends. The tea table was presided over by Mrs. John Forest Dickson and Mrs. David Loring. The affair was given at the residence of Mrs. W. J. Honeyman, mother of Mrs. Barker, with whom she will make her home during Major Barker's absence overseas. Another guest who shared in the festivities is Mrs. Henry Yulle, of Seattle, niece of Mrs. Honeyman, with whom she is visiting.

Portland Woman's Social Science Club will meet Tuesday in the Central Library, room A. This meeting has been arranged to discuss business matters in connection with the state federation convention. Miss Jeannette M. Pendergast will give a talk on "Child Welfare."

Progressive Woman's League had charge of the Kanning Kitchen of the National League for Women's Service Thursday. Lieutenants N. A. Polfka and U. S. Simmons were in charge of the work. One hundred and nineteen quarts of pease and 150 quarts of plums were canned. The auxiliary of the league will meet every Monday at 1 o'clock in the Lipman, Wolfe & Co. Red Cross room.

Mrs. C. C. Colt entertained with a small and informal luncheon Wednesday in the grill of the Hotel Portland in honor of Mrs. Burton C. Haines, of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Charles Robbins, of North Yakima. Covers were placed for eight.

The officers of the Mills Club of Oregon will hold a reunion of the Mills Alumnae Saturday at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Frank L. Kearney (Merle Van Fleet) Another Charming Bride of Recent Date

at the home of Mrs. Helen Ekin Starret, 720 Sherwood Heights. An informal meeting will be held, after which a short musical programme will be given. It is anticipated that Miss Janet Haight of San Francisco, one of the trustees of the college, will be present.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Aug. 31.—(Special.)—One of the attractive weddings of the month took place Saturday afternoon, August 24, when Miss Frances Winsor Harlow, of Seattle, became the bride of Winfield Richard Eberle, of this city.

The ceremony took place at the home of the bride in Seattle, amid a bower of pink asters and blue larkspur, the Rev. E. V. Shaylor, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, officiating. The bride wore a dress of old rose crepe de chine. Her attendants were her sorority sisters. The bridegroom was attended by Chief Yeoman J. G. Euson, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Eberle are well known in college circles, both having attended the University of Washington. The bride is a member of the Alpha Xi Delta Sorority and the bridegroom of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity of the class of 1912.

Mrs. Eberle is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. Harlow, of Seattle, Wash. Mr. Eberle is the son of Mrs. J. H. Jaggy, of Vancouver, and brother of Captain S. S. Eberle, U. S. A. For the past year Mr. Eberle has been a first-class yeoman in the disbursing offices of the United States naval training camp at Seattle.

The young couple are at Seaside, Or., to spend their honeymoon and will be at home to their friends after September 1 at 535 Boylston avenue North, Seattle, Wash.

For a Cool, Comfortable Washday This Summer—

Use Fels-Naptha soap with cool or lukewarm water. You will save hours of perspiring effort and make hard rubbing and the steamy washboiler unnecessary.

What's more, you'll save the clothes for longer wear. And that's a big saving in these days of increasing high prices.

Leaders of the Millinery World

have designed these for you

WITH the first Autumn days the Emporium has gathered together a number of exclusive models designed by the millinery leaders of the world. We consider it the most authentic showing of dress models ever displayed in Portland and are indeed proud of this opportunity to display the result of our buyer's recent visit to New York. In wonderfully effective patterns will be found the following:

- 21 Models from Gage Bros!
- 19 Models from Rawak
- 16 Models from Morehead & Jardine
- 23 Models from Mode
- 31 Models from Cupid
- 17 Models from Vail Hat Co.
- 26 Models from Bruck Weiss

The Models Illustrated Were Sketched in Our Millinery Salon. The Emporium will be closed all day Monday in deference to Labor Day. Tuesday we invite you to view this wonderful collection of world famous makes—it really is a revelation in millinery creations for Fall.

Then, Too, Fall Apparel Holds Full Sway

You surely will declare our store is a perfect bower of Autumn loveliness. Here you will see suits of such exquisite taste and fashion; and there coats that fairly charm in their finely cut lines and modish trimming. Blouses, too, are here for the Fall Suit in the soft, darker tones as well as the ever popular georgettes and crepe de chine in the favored light tints. Furs peep out from the cases—full cape styles and single animal effects, as well as elegant comfy muffs. A visit to the Emporium these days is well worth while.

singer, has recently been appointed supervisor of music in the Olympia, Wash., schools. Miss Holmes is a former student of Mrs. Rose Coursen Reed and plans to coach vocally with Thomas Ryan, of Seattle, during the coming winter.

Mrs. George H. Bechill (Ines Radell) entertained delightfully for the members of the Phi Pi Psi sorority at her home, 1138 Taggart street, August 24. During the evening the absent members in China, Pennsylvania, California and Washington were remembered with cheery greetings by those present. Music and dancing were indulged in, Franco Hoogstraet assisting the hostess in serving dainty refreshments. Those of Tau Sigma Chapter present were: Mesdames Wallace Martyn, G. Cramer, Edwin Humphrey, Virgil Hamlin, Ralph Rector, Misses Helen Rose, Selene Kropp, Katherine Fields, Marie Thatcher, Florence Tatham, Helen Ballard, Marguerite Brammer, Iona Reible, Myrtle McLean, Elzora Bridge, Florence Leonard and Frances Hoogstraet.

Mrs. Rose Coursen Reed has passed a pleasant vacation in and around San Francisco, where she heard in concert Lemare, the organist; Tini Lerner, Otta Gygi, the Spanish violinist, and others. Mrs. Reed also saw Waldemar Lind, lately of this city, playing first violin in the San Francisco Symphony of 70 pieces, at the Bahemian high jinks performance.
