Lieutenant James H. Cellars, nian Reporter, Now With Field Artillery in France.

A bunch of widows were doing a chant for the repose of their martyred hus-bands' souls. Night fell while we were wandering about the town looking into the picturesque shops and courtyards and, as we were making our way back toward the river along a crooked, dingy street that looked as if it had been picked whole out of an old French novel, a centuries-old bell somewhere sounded the French equivalent of cur-

"September 10.—Well, I have arrived here at last, and let me tell you that traveling on French trains during war times is no joke; may be one eats and may be one doesn't. There are no sleepers, but the seats are very comfortable. I managed to stop off at some town nearly every night. Two or three hundred miles is a very good journey here, taking from three to five days. There is a lovely canal near the plane where I go to school, and boats 75 feet long and about 15 or 20 feet wide pass up and down all day long. I am sending you some flowers picked from shell hules along the Marne. I have been swimming in that famous stream, although not near here.

REFERRED BY THE STATE TAX COMMISSION. Certificate of Necessity for Increase in State Tax Levy for 1819—(Issued under authority of Chapter 150, Laws of 1917)—State of Orgon, Count of Ma-rion, ss.—We, the undersigned, constituting the rion, ss.—We, the undersigned, constituting the State Tax Commission of Oregon, hereby certify that in our opinion it is necessary to levy an amount of state taxes for the fiscal year 1919 larger by $340,000.00 than the amount limited by the Constitution of Oregon, unless specifically authorized by vote of the people. From careful investigation we believe that the proposed specific increase of the state levy of taxes for 1919 is necessary that deficiency debts incurred for maintenance of state institutions and departments may be paid, that increased cost of necessary labor and supplies during the ensuing blennium may be anticipated, that unavoidable obligations in war emergencies may be met and that the credit of the state may be preserved. The amount specified is estimated as equivalent to an average levy of one mill on the dollar of the total assessed valuation of the state for the current year. Witness our hands and the seal of the State Tax Commission this seventeenth day of Septemper, 1918. (Seal of the State Tax Commission.) James Withycombe, Governor, chairman; Ben W. Olcott, Secretary of State: Thos. B. Kay. State Treasurer; Chas. V. Galloway, Tax Commissioner, Filed in the office of the Secretary of State September 17, 1918.

Shall the increase of $940,000.00, as stated in the foregoing certificate, in the total amount of the state levy of taxes for the year 1919 over the amount otherwise limited by the Constitution of Oregon, be authorized?

Vote YES or NO. State Tax Commission of Oregon, hereby certify 312 Yes.

REFERRED BY THE PORT OF PORTLAND.
Certificate of Necessity for the Increase in Tax Levy Over That Allowed by the Constitution of the State of Oregon, and Specially Anthorized by Vote of the People—State of Oregon, County of Multinomah, ss.—We, the understaned, Commissioners of the Port of Portland, certify that in our opinion it is necessary to levy taxes for the district of the Port of Portland for the fiscal year of 1918 larger by $250,000.00 than the amount limited by the Consitution of the state of Oregon, unless specially authorized by vote of the people. From careful investigation we believe this increase necessary to pay judgments against the Port, bearing interests;
to construct a hull for the dredge "Columbia." as the present hull is incapable of repair; to secure extra dredging equipment, and to provide adequate docks for storing and facilities for moving coal.
Witness our hands and seal of the Port of Portland, this twentieth day of September, 1918. (Seal of the Port of Portland.) R. D. Inman, president; J. W.
Shaver, vice-president; A. L. Pease, secretary; D. C.
O'Reilly, treasurer; Robert H. Stromk, E. W. Spencer, W. H. Patterson.
Shall the Port of Portland be authorized to levy taxes to be collected in the year 1919 in a sum not exceeding $70,000 in excess of the amount which may under constitutional limitations, now be levied,
to be used for payment of existing judgments
against it?

Vote YES or No. 314 Yes.

315 Shall the Port of Portland be authorized to levy taxes to be collected in the year 1919 in a sum not exceeding $180,000 in excess of the amount which may, under constitutional limitations, now be levied, to be used to construct and equip docks for the storage and sale of coal for ships and for procuring of equipment and the making of necessary repairs and alterations to the dredging equipment of the Port?
