One of the most patriotic programmes given recently for patriotic purposes was held under the direction of Dr. C. M. Kliggin at the First Christian church on Saturday a few days ago for the benefit of an adopted Belgian baby. The two talented renderers who gave the entertainment were Miss Alyce Cason and Miss Grace Ellen Mascher.

Miss Cason gave a group of three dramatic numbers entitled "The Heroines of the Ages." The first, French and American. She was accompanied by Miss Flora Wakefield on the piano. She also rendered "The Passing of the Fleet" and several dialect numbers.

Miss Mascher gave in a most pleasing manner a cutting from "The Maid" by Churchill, and fairly consulted the audience with her clever Irish dialect rendering. The two young women showed their skill at clever impersonation in a comedy sketch entitled "Widow Peevy and Dame Fortune." The musical features were violin solo by Miss Vivian Delory, who played with her usual skillful technique, accompanied by Miss Alice Faust.

Pioneer Day rendered two vocal solos which thrilled his audience.

A merry dancing party was given Saturday evening by Miss Imogene Lewis in the home of her parents. The dance was given in honor of Miss Pauline and Master Raymond Gueraux, who will soon leave to make their home in California.

On Tuesday evening the Illinois State society held its annual election of officers in the assembly room of the Portland hotel.

Mr. McMenamin was elected president; Mr. Wilbur Henderson, first vice-president; Mr. Karl Meeker, second vice-president; John Magers, third vice-president; Mrs. Mabel Livesay, fourth vice-president; Miss Hazel Bowie, secretary, and Mrs. N. Keltz treasurer.

A most enjoyable programme was rendered by Richard Robertson, tenor; Miss Estelle Modlin, pianist, and J. D. Walsh, reader.

The next meeting of the society will be held on April 8 and a large attendance is expected.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Duback and Mr. and Mrs. L. Brown were entertained with a dancing party Saturday, March 8, at their home in Mill Plain, near Vancouver, Wash. The event was to celebrate the 21st birthdays of their sons, Victor Duback and Harold Brown, who are cousins. A huge birthday cake was a feature of the supper table, with its many layers of frosting. Each young man was presented with a gold watch by his parents. Forty guests participated in the merriment.

Mount Hood Circle, No. 151, Neighbors of Woodcraft, oblige a large class of new members at their regular meeting Tuesday night. Mount Hood is out in the lead for the time being and the close of the campaign will show a big increase in membership. Next Tuesday nomination of delegates to the district convention will be held.

Edward Fenwick was the guest of honor for a pretty luncheon given by 26 of his close friends Tuesday. The table was adorned with red rosebuds.

Complimenting Miss Clara Rockwell, 54th and Alberta streets, members of Gordon Granger Woman's Relief corps, No. 43, and several other friends, gave a surprise party Saturday evening. Miss Rockwell has been corps treasurer for several years and is very efficient officer.

Five hundred was played, card honors going to Miss Ditto and H. A. Van Horne. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. George D. Lee, entertained Wednesday with a small but charmingly appointed luncheon at the hotel Portland. Covers were laid for seven. Fragrant flowers and ferns adorned the table.

A dinner and dance were given last night at the Multnomah hotel in the Arcadian gardens by C. O. Skelton of the United States Rubber company. Covers were placed for fourteen and the table was artistically decked with a bowl of spring blossoms.

The Portland Harmony club entertained its members and friends at its annual "dinner and dance" March 10. Second annual Wednesday evening. Miss Little Harris was hostess. The next regular meeting will be held at the same address Wednesday evening.
