

LEADER PICK U. OF W. GRID LEADER

Coach Hunt Favors Allowing Students to Make Choice.

PRACTICE TO START SOON

Lack of Finances May Retard Some Veterans From Quick Return to Moleskins.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON. Seattle, Wash., Sept. 12.—(Special.) Just who will captain the University of Washington football team this fall has not yet been decided. At least such is the opinion of Coach C. Hunt, athletic director, Dean Arthur R. Priest, chairman of the athletic committee and Darwin M. Meisner, graduate manager of the associated students. All three of these are convinced that the only fair way to settle the matter will be to have the lettermen who are candidates for this year's team meet before the first game and elect their own leader.

"I don't see how there can be any misunderstanding if it is settled in this manner," said Manager Meisner yesterday. "The situation simply boils down to the fact that a captain for the 1919 team has not been elected. The three captains who happen to be coming back were each elected for seasons that have passed.

"George Smith was elected to head the 1917 squad, but by the time the 1917 season opened he had joined the army and Ernest Murray was elected to take his place. At the close of that season Ross Williams, quarter, was selected to be leader in 1918. But Williams became an ensign and in December Irving Dailey was elected to the captaincy. Then the S. A. T. C. took charge of campus athletics and Washington did not have a varsity team in 1918 and Dailey was never captain."

First Call Sounded. Piskins will soon be in the air at the university and lovers of football can once more follow a purple and gold eleven through a heavy pre-war schedule. The big college sport will again be in its own. Coach C. J. Hunt sent out his prospective varsity candidates last week, calling for the first turnout Monday, September 22 at 4 o'clock. His squad is scattered to the four winds and several members of the team in Seattle, the majority of whom will not drop work until next Saturday, and then use Sunday for traveling to the university, just reach here by Monday afternoon.

The early summer forecasts looked as though Washington ought to have quite a few letter men, but the rumors have circulated that perhaps some who were in service have not yet caught up with their finances. Sandy Wick, center in 1918, is supposed to be one of those who is doubtful. Wick played in service last year and from the showing it is reported that he made on the Franklin field in Pennsylvania, he was a tower of strength. Wick has been working in the shipyards all summer.

It is not at all certain whether Ray Gardner, halfback, will be back. His friends are anxious to see him don a suit again and miss graduation when he only lacks a few hours. A third letterman is Dave Logg. Logg left last spring to fly in the air-mail route between Seattle, Portland and Washington, and it is feared by some that he will be so taken up with the work that he will not be back.

Smith May Take Field. George Smith, end, who would have captained the 1917 team, is still in the city and according to reports is planning to finish his course. Smith went through some hard work in France though, but he is not in the excellent physical condition that he used to be when he made letters regularly in football, basketball and baseball.

Most of the boys who have been in town all summer have been at jobs which have been carrying on. Blakely, tackle and punter, has been tossing lumber in Ballard; Jimmie Gilluly, end, has been mixing concrete; Ross Williams, quarter, has been carrying painters' ladders; Arthur Theisen, end, has been in the shipyards; Bob Abel, end 1918, attended summer school and is spending September in France, while Lawrence Smith, center 1918, and Irving Dailey are working downtown. Word has come from Ted Paulk, who is in Aberdeen, that he will be back this week, while Bill Grimm, guard 1918, came last night. Both Faulk and Grimm were recently discharged and both will work on the side. Ted Paulk has been in Bellingham all summer and plans to be down in time to answer the first call. Don Albert, star end for Double in 1915 and 1917 will return, but seems to think that he will not have time to turn out and get a law degree by December.

Many men who have been barred in the past by the freshmen rule will now be eligible. Of this class many are former Seattle lettermen of quite a reputation. Frank Townsend used to play for Franklin, Ray Eckman was a broken field runner for Lincoln, Harold Glen and Jimmie Tevis were the mainstays of the line at Lincoln in the past; Dick Clark and Warren Benson and Willis Benson used to be Franklin ends and Eddie Porep was at Broadway.

Second string men who should be among contenders are Paul O'Brien, Glen Southwick, Art Hainsworth, Frank Lane, Otto Barderson, William Pigott, Herman Miller, Albert Phillips, Harry Siskel, Randall Craig and Roderic Falconer, Frank Burlingham and Ross Magowan.

S. D. HERRON IS VETERAN Amateur Golf Champion Player Since He Was 8 Years Old. Since comparatively little is known about S. Davidson Herron, the recently crowned amateur golf champion, the following facts concerning him are interesting: He will be 22 years of age in October. He has been playing golf since 1905, or thereabouts, and when he lived just across the way from the Oakland Country club, Pittsburg, where he won the championship. He weighs 205 pounds. He was graduated from Princeton last year, where he played football in his freshman year and played on the university golf team for four years. In the 1915 national amateur golf championship at Detroit Herron tied with Ned Sawyer in the preliminary qualifying round. He is the third Pittsburg golfer to win the amateur title, the others being W. C. Fowles Jr., also of Oakland, and Eben M. Byers of Allegheny.

Sport Day Planned. NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C., Sept. 13.—Bowlers and trapshooters of the Pacific northwest are to gather in this city October 2, American day of the annual provincial exhibition, when an international registered trap shoot will be staged, together with an Elks' bowling congress, which will include teams from as far south as Portland. Prizes to the value of $500 have been guaranteed by the local lodge of Elks, the bowling to take place on the lodge alleys.

COAST BOYS IN THE BIG LEAGUES—BY CHRISTY WALSH.

FLAGSTEAD LEAD THE BIG PROCESSION LAST SEASON IN DIXIE

AND THE YEAR BEFORE DID THE SAME THING

IN THE NORTHWESTERN LEAGUE

HIS FIRST SEASON WITH DETROIT

HE HAS POPPED THE PILL FOR .317

IRA FLAGSTEAD - DETROIT'S 1919 FIND -

he was picking up a little change playing Sunday ball around his home town, Montague, Mich. Jennings has alternated him in right field with

FIELD TRIAL PLANS LAID

WASHINGTON CLUB EVENT WILL OPEN SEPTEMBER 22.

Bird Dog Fanciers Expect Mount Vernon Competition to Attract Entries From Whole Country.

MOUNT VERNON, Wash., Sept. 13.—Plans are being made by Dr. Henry D. Brown of Mount Vernon, for the annual meet of the Washington Field Trial club, starting September 22 in this city. Bird dog fanciers of the Pacific coast as well as the members of the All-American Field Trial club are looking forward to the meeting.

In the contest to be held here, there will be the greatest dog show in America and a large number of sportsmen from all over the United States and Canada will be in attendance. These trials will be as large, if not larger than any that have ever been held in the United States.

The grounds over which the course will be run include some of the largest and most open fields in Skagit county and as there will be no shooting, the ranchers have signified their willingness to co-operate with the local enthusiasts in order to make the affair a success. On account of the large territory and the number of birds, there will be no necessity of having two courses of dogs run over the same ground.

There is a great possibility that the international field trial day may be held in Mount Vernon next year and it is intended to have the visitors get a good view of this city and see the good points of the location for such a meet in order that they may wish to come back.

From Lebanon, the All-American club and the California aggregation will come directly to Mount Vernon. From Mount Vernon, the party will go on to Vancouver, B. C. where the British Columbia trials will be run followed by the international championship. Each of the Pacific coast trials there will be a $300 guaranteed purse and all eastern money added.

Chess.

E. H. BRYANT, Editor. Phone 7400. 6213. Contribution of Portland Chess and Checker club, Worcester building, Third and Oak streets, 143 East Thirty-fifth street, near to Vancouver, B. C. where the British Columbia trials will be run followed by the international championship.

PROBLEM NO. 842. This is as thoroughly practical as any we have published and certainly will gratify the solver's expectations on observing the noted author's name above. It is a self-made problem. See key to the arrangement.

BLACK-FIVE PIECES. White king on Q4, queen on Q3, knight on Q4, pawns on K4, K3, K2, K1, B4, B3, B2, B1, R4, R3, R2, R1, P4, P3, P2, P1.

By Dr. W. R. Dalton, Seattle, Wash. The doctor writes that this is an easy one for beginners. It is just a matter of them. Handsonly arranged, and based on sound practical sense, it is sure to please all.

BLACK-NINE PIECES. White king on Q4, queen on Q3, knight on Q4, pawns on K4, K3, K2, K1, B4, B3, B2, B1, R4, R3, R2, R1, P4, P3, P2, P1.

WHITE-SEVEN PIECES. White to move in three moves. White king on Q4, queen on Q3, knight on Q4, pawns on K4, K3, K2, K1, B4, B3, B2, B1, R4, R3, R2, R1, P4, P3, P2, P1.

WHITE-SEVEN PIECES. White to move in two moves. White king on Q4, queen on Q3, knight on Q4, pawns on K4, K3, K2, K1, B4, B3, B2, B1, R4, R3, R2, R1, P4, P3, P2, P1.

WHITE-SEVEN PIECES. White to move in two moves. White king on Q4, queen on Q3, knight on Q4, pawns on K4, K3, K2, K1, B4, B3, B2, B1, R4, R3, R2, R1, P4, P3, P2, P1.

WHITE-SEVEN PIECES. White to move in two moves. White king on Q4, queen on Q3, knight on Q4, pawns on K4, K3, K2, K1, B4, B3, B2, B1, R4, R3, R2, R1, P4, P3, P2, P1.

FIRST BOUNCE IS OUT

J. H. PIERSON RECOUNTS OLD DIAMOND EXPERIENCES.

County Championship in Ohio in 1868 Was Won 75 to 20, Pioneer Tells "Kids."

"We won that day, 75 to 20, taking the championship of Clark county, Ohio. Say, men, the ballplayers don't fight now-a-days like they used to then." John H. Pierson, father of Nick Pierson, was talking. Nick is now managing the Hippodrome theater in Tacoma and is a former Portland theatrical man.

John H. Pierson, years ago, resided in Canton, O., and in May, 1868, organized what was known as the Stark baseball club. There was an aggregation in Massillon, O., called the Slipper club and in the game which Canton won 75 to 20, Mr. Pierson played shortstop, making nine runs, one of them being a home run.

"We used no mitts or masks in those days and first bounce to the catcher after the batter struck at the ball was out," said Mr. Pierson last night in a fanning bee. "The rules haven't varied very much. The pitcher had to throw a shoulder, neck and knee ball."

Mr. Pierson lives at the Norton hotel, Twelfth and Morrison streets. He does not attend games at Twenty-fourth and Vaughn streets, for, as he puts it: "I'm getting old and as I become extremely excited watching the youngsters play it does me no good physically and for a while I remain away from the ball park."

Checkers.

E. H. BRYANT, Editor. Phone 7400. 6213. Portland Chess and Checker club, Worcester building, Third and Oak streets, room 210, East Thirty-fifth street, near to Vancouver, B. C. where the British Columbia trials will be run followed by the international championship.

PROBLEM NO. 913. Mr. Tschelt writes that the solution corrects the checker's mistake, variation at the 21st move, page 110. A contribution from this noted analyst should attract the attention of every checker on the Oregonian staff. There is an abundance of variations and they are given below.

WHITE, 14, 19, 21, 22, 23, 31, 32. White to play and win.

By L. M. Stearns. This great analyst who was loved by the checker profession the world over, has now accomplished what many felt he did to promote the study of the silent game.

PROBLEM NO. 914. Black 5, 9, 10, 11, 12, 23, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 27, 29, 30, 32. White to play and win.

PROBLEM NO. 915. Black 7, 9, 10, 11, 14, 15, 16, 18, 20, 21, 22, 24, 25, 27, 29, 30, 32. White to play and win.

PROBLEM NO. 916. Black 7, 9, 10, 11, 14, 15, 16, 18, 20, 21, 22, 24, 25, 27, 29, 30, 32. White to play and win.

PROBLEM NO. 917. Black 7, 9, 10, 11, 14, 15, 16, 18, 20, 21, 22, 24, 25, 27, 29, 30, 32. White to play and win.

LETTERMAN PICK

U. OF W. GRID LEADER

Coach Hunt Favors Allowing Students to Make Choice.

PRACTICE TO START SOON

Lack of Finances May Retard Some Veterans From Quick Return to Moleskins.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON. Seattle, Wash., Sept. 12.—(Special.) Just who will captain the University of Washington football team this fall has not yet been decided. At least such is the opinion of Coach C. Hunt, athletic director, Dean Arthur R. Priest, chairman of the athletic committee and Darwin M. Meisner, graduate manager of the associated students. All three of these are convinced that the only fair way to settle the matter will be to have the lettermen who are candidates for this year's team meet before the first game and elect their own leader.

First Call Sounded. Piskins will soon be in the air at the university and lovers of football can once more follow a purple and gold eleven through a heavy pre-war schedule. The big college sport will again be in its own. Coach C. J. Hunt sent out his prospective varsity candidates last week, calling for the first turnout Monday, September 22 at 4 o'clock. His squad is scattered to the four winds and several members of the team in Seattle, the majority of whom will not drop work until next Saturday, and then use Sunday for traveling to the university, just reach here by Monday afternoon.

The early summer forecasts looked as though Washington ought to have quite a few letter men, but the rumors have circulated that perhaps some who were in service have not yet caught up with their finances. Sandy Wick, center in 1918, is supposed to be one of those who is doubtful. Wick played in service last year and from the showing it is reported that he made on the Franklin field in Pennsylvania, he was a tower of strength. Wick has been working in the shipyards all summer.

It is not at all certain whether Ray Gardner, halfback, will be back. His friends are anxious to see him don a suit again and miss graduation when he only lacks a few hours. A third letterman is Dave Logg. Logg left last spring to fly in the air-mail route between Seattle, Portland and Washington, and it is feared by some that he will be so taken up with the work that he will not be back.

Smith May Take Field. George Smith, end, who would have captained the 1917 team, is still in the city and according to reports is planning to finish his course. Smith went through some hard work in France though, but he is not in the excellent physical condition that he used to be when he made letters regularly in football, basketball and baseball.

Most of the boys who have been in town all summer have been at jobs which have been carrying on. Blakely, tackle and punter, has been tossing lumber in Ballard; Jimmie Gilluly, end, has been mixing concrete; Ross Williams, quarter, has been carrying painters' ladders; Arthur Theisen, end, has been in the shipyards; Bob Abel, end 1918, attended summer school and is spending September in France, while Lawrence Smith, center 1918, and Irving Dailey are working downtown. Word has come from Ted Paulk, who is in Aberdeen, that he will be back this week, while Bill Grimm, guard 1918, came last night. Both Faulk and Grimm were recently discharged and both will work on the side. Ted Paulk has been in Bellingham all summer and plans to be down in time to answer the first call. Don Albert, star end for Double in 1915 and 1917 will return, but seems to think that he will not have time to turn out and get a law degree by December.

Many men who have been barred in the past by the freshmen rule will now be eligible. Of this class many are former Seattle lettermen of quite a reputation. Frank Townsend used to play for Franklin, Ray Eckman was a broken field runner for Lincoln, Harold Glen and Jimmie Tevis were the mainstays of the line at Lincoln in the past; Dick Clark and Warren Benson and Willis Benson used to be Franklin ends and Eddie Porep was at Broadway.

S. D. HERRON IS VETERAN Amateur Golf Champion Player Since He Was 8 Years Old. Since comparatively little is known about S. Davidson Herron, the recently crowned amateur golf champion, the following facts concerning him are interesting: He will be 22 years of age in October. He has been playing golf since 1905, or thereabouts, and when he lived just across the way from the Oakland Country club, Pittsburg, where he won the championship. He weighs 205 pounds. He was graduated from Princeton last year, where he played football in his freshman year and played on the university golf team for four years. In the 1915 national amateur golf championship at Detroit Herron tied with Ned Sawyer in the preliminary qualifying round. He is the third Pittsburg golfer to win the amateur title, the others being W. C. Fowles Jr., also of Oakland, and Eben M. Byers of Allegheny.

Sport Day Planned. NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C., Sept. 13.—Bowlers and trapshooters of the Pacific northwest are to gather in this city October 2, American day of the annual provincial exhibition, when an international registered trap shoot will be staged, together with an Elks' bowling congress, which will include teams from as far south as Portland. Prizes to the value of $500 have been guaranteed by the local lodge of Elks, the bowling to take place on the lodge alleys.

FIELD TRIAL PLANS LAID

WASHINGTON CLUB EVENT WILL OPEN SEPTEMBER 22.

Bird Dog Fanciers Expect Mount Vernon Competition to Attract Entries From Whole Country.

MOUNT VERNON, Wash., Sept. 13.—Plans are being made by Dr. Henry D. Brown of Mount Vernon, for the annual meet of the Washington Field Trial club, starting September 22 in this city. Bird dog fanciers of the Pacific coast as well as the members of the All-American Field Trial club are looking forward to the meeting.

In the contest to be held here, there will be the greatest dog show in America and a large number of sportsmen from all over the United States and Canada will be in attendance. These trials will be as large, if not larger than any that have ever been held in the United States.

The grounds over which the course will be run include some of the largest and most open fields in Skagit county and as there will be no shooting, the ranchers have signified their willingness to co-operate with the local enthusiasts in order to make the affair a success. On account of the large territory and the number of birds, there will be no necessity of having two courses of dogs run over the same ground.

There is a great possibility that the international field trial day may be held in Mount Vernon next year and it is intended to have the visitors get a good view of this city and see the good points of the location for such a meet in order that they may wish to come back.

From Lebanon, the All-American club and the California aggregation will come directly to Mount Vernon. From Mount Vernon, the party will go on to Vancouver, B. C. where the British Columbia trials will be run followed by the international championship. Each of the Pacific coast trials there will be a $300 guaranteed purse and all eastern money added.

Chess.

E. H. BRYANT, Editor. Phone 7400. 6213. Contribution of Portland Chess and Checker club, Worcester building, Third and Oak streets, 143 East Thirty-fifth street, near to Vancouver, B. C. where the British Columbia trials will be run followed by the international championship.

PROBLEM NO. 842. This is as thoroughly practical as any we have published and certainly will gratify the solver's expectations on observing the noted author's name above. It is a self-made problem. See key to the arrangement.

BLACK-FIVE PIECES. White king on Q4, queen on Q3, knight on Q4, pawns on K4, K3, K2, K1, B4, B3, B2, B1, R4, R3, R2, R1, P4, P3, P2, P1.

By Dr. W. R. Dalton, Seattle, Wash. The doctor writes that this is an easy one for beginners. It is just a matter of them. Handsonly arranged, and based on sound practical sense, it is sure to please all.

BLACK-NINE PIECES. White king on Q4, queen on Q3, knight on Q4, pawns on K4, K3, K2, K1, B4, B3, B2, B1, R4, R3, R2, R1, P4, P3, P2, P1.

WHITE-SEVEN PIECES. White to move in three moves. White king on Q4, queen on Q3, knight on Q4, pawns on K4, K3, K2, K1, B4, B3, B2, B1, R4, R3, R2, R1, P4, P3, P2, P1.

WHITE-SEVEN PIECES. White to move in two moves. White king on Q4, queen on Q3, knight on Q4, pawns on K4, K3, K2, K1, B4, B3, B2, B1, R4, R3, R2, R1, P4, P3, P2, P1.

WHITE-SEVEN PIECES. White to move in two moves. White king on Q4, queen on Q3, knight on Q4, pawns on K4, K3, K2, K1, B4, B3, B2, B1, R4, R3, R2, R1, P4, P3, P2, P1.

WHITE-SEVEN PIECES. White to move in two moves. White king on Q4, queen on Q3, knight on Q4, pawns on K4, K3, K2, K1, B4, B3, B2, B1, R4, R3, R2, R1, P4, P3, P2, P1.

WHITE-SEVEN PIECES. White to move in two moves. White king on Q4, queen on Q3, knight on Q4, pawns on K4, K3, K2, K1, B4, B3, B2, B1, R4, R3, R2, R1, P4, P3, P2, P1.

FIRST BOUNCE IS OUT

J. H. PIERSON RECOUNTS OLD DIAMOND EXPERIENCES.

County Championship in Ohio in 1868 Was Won 75 to 20, Pioneer Tells "Kids."

"We won that day, 75 to 20, taking the championship of Clark county, Ohio. Say, men, the ballplayers don't fight now-a-days like they used to then." John H. Pierson, father of Nick Pierson, was talking. Nick is now managing the Hippodrome theater in Tacoma and is a former Portland theatrical man.

John H. Pierson, years ago, resided in Canton, O., and in May, 1868, organized what was known as the Stark baseball club. There was an aggregation in Massillon, O., called the Slipper club and in the game which Canton won 75 to 20, Mr. Pierson played shortstop, making nine runs, one of them being a home run.

"We used no mitts or masks in those days and first bounce to the catcher after the batter struck at the ball was out," said Mr. Pierson last night in a fanning bee. "The rules haven't varied very much. The pitcher had to throw a shoulder, neck and knee ball."

Mr. Pierson lives at the Norton hotel, Twelfth and Morrison streets. He does not attend games at Twenty-fourth and Vaughn streets, for, as he puts it: "I'm getting old and as I become extremely excited watching the youngsters play it does me no good physically and for a while I remain away from the ball park."

Checkers.

E. H. BRYANT, Editor. Phone 7400. 6213. Portland Chess and Checker club, Worcester building, Third and Oak streets, room 210, East Thirty-fifth street, near to Vancouver, B. C. where the British Columbia trials will be run followed by the international championship.

PROBLEM NO. 913. Mr. Tschelt writes that the solution corrects the checker's mistake, variation at the 21st move, page 110. A contribution from this noted analyst should attract the attention of every checker on the Oregonian staff. There is an abundance of variations and they are given below.

WHITE, 14, 19, 21, 22, 23, 31, 32. White to play and win.

By L. M. Stearns. This great analyst who was loved by the checker profession the world over, has now accomplished what many felt he did to promote the study of the silent game.

PROBLEM NO. 914. Black 5, 9, 10, 11, 12, 23, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 27, 29, 30, 32. White to play and win.

PROBLEM NO. 915. Black 7, 9, 10, 11, 14, 15, 16, 18, 20, 21, 22, 24, 25, 27, 29, 30, 32. White to play and win.

PROBLEM NO. 916. Black 7, 9, 10, 11, 14, 15, 16, 18, 20, 21, 22, 24, 25, 27, 29, 30, 32. White to play and win.

PROBLEM NO. 917. Black 7, 9, 10, 11, 14, 15, 16, 18, 20, 21, 22, 24, 25, 27, 29, 30, 32. White to play and win.

Heating Stoves

In Wood, Coal and Combination Patterns. The serviceable and reasonable priced kind.

Sanico Combination Ranges

25-Year Guarantee Porcelain-Finish Rust-proof as a mirror. No Blacking—No Polishing No Chipping—No Cracking No Discoloration

A full-sized range not skimped to cut the price but built to give a life-time of satisfactory service. Call and examine its many good features.

CLARK-JEWELL and RELIABLE GAS RANGES

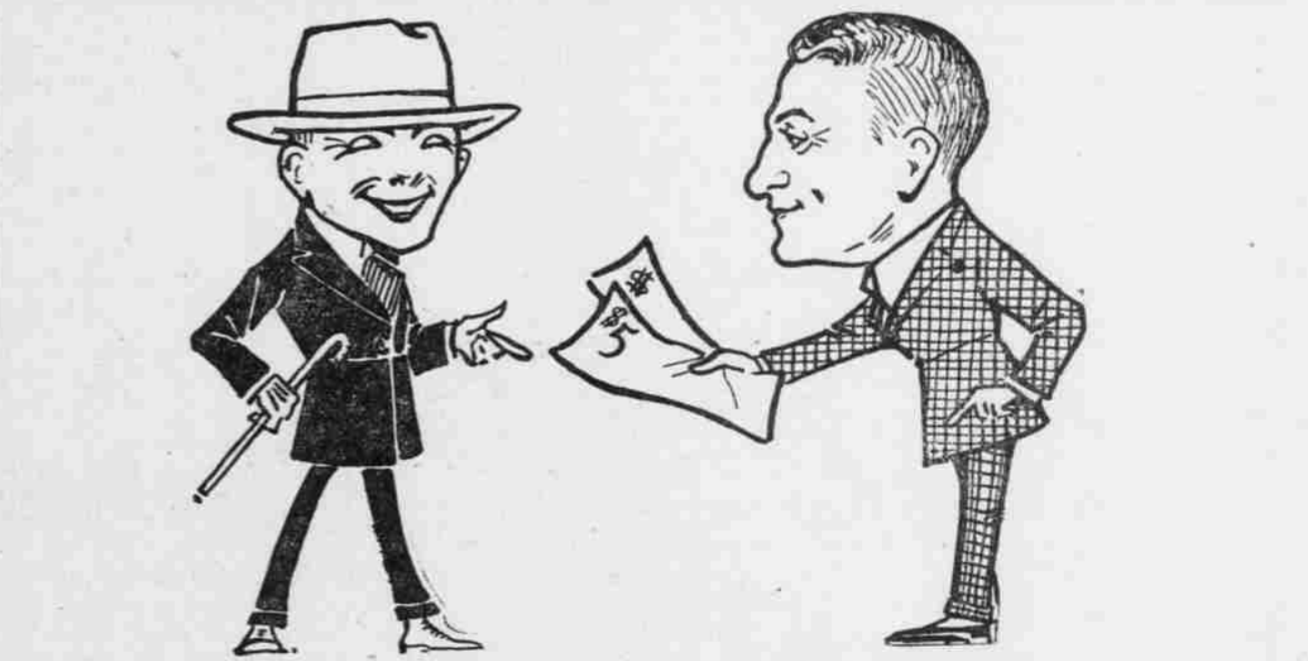

Things for the Fireplace Basket Grates Andirons Fire Sets Fire Screens Spark Guards Coal Hods, Etc.

Our stock offers a wide range of choice.

Honeyman Hardware Company

Fourth at Alder

Phone your want ads to The Oregonian. Main 7070, A. 6095.

Your Dollars and My Values

Soon Come to an Agreement There's no mystery about my prices on Suits and Overcoats. They're below the "high price level" because my store is above the "high-rent level." My low-rent plan puts dollars in your pocket when you buy here, so come up and save on your new fall outfit.

Suits and Overcoats $25 to $45

They fit your figure and the prices fit your pocketbook.

JIMMY DUNN

Original Upstairs Clothier UPSTAIRS Broadway Near Alder

Cat-ty Corner From Pantages Theater