

DRAMATIC

Chauncey Olcott and Neddie West in the Irish Drama "Macushla" at the Heilig Theater.

BY LEONE CASS BAER.

WITH an Irishman named Barney Healey ahead of the company, and an Irishman named John Hogarty back with the show as its manager, a third Irishman, Chauncey Olcott, is coming to Portland. The only non-Irish in the combination is Abraham Erlanger, who is sending the show to us.

The play Mr. Olcott is using this season is a revival of "Macushla," which has been elaborately made over. Mr. Olcott will sing his sweet songs and his company is said to be an excellent one. The play, a comedy, is in four acts, and the action takes place near Dublin. The engagement opens on Thursday night and closes on Saturday night. In the week following "She Walked in Her Sleep," a George Broadhurst farce, will be the Heilig offering.

FARCE COMING TO HEILIG

"She Walked in Her Sleep" to Be Produced December 18.

The association of Mark Swan as author with George Broadhurst, himself a master judge of the art of entertainment as producer, completes the delightful combination responsible for the production of the hilarious and successful farce, "She Walked in Her Sleep," which will be offered for the first time locally at the Heilig theater for three days, beginning December 18, special matinee Saturday, with Miss Norton and Paul Nicholson.

This new farce, from the pen of the co-author of "Farior, Bedroom and Bath," has already been applauded by audiences in New York and Chicago, who found in it much to amuse and delight them. The action of "She Walked in Her Sleep" takes place in a New York apartment hotel. So when a young and beautiful girl, tired in a silken nightgown takes to somnambulating, who was there to deny that many embarrassing and complete situations are apt to make it the more difficult that the young lady is not aware of the fact that she does not sleep calmly through the small, wee hours. It is not very hard to picture what happens when the woman's midnight wanderings takes her into the apartments of a young married couple during the absence of the new and confiding wife. From this point the action assumes a most precarious aspect for all concerned.

ORPHEUM HAS COMEDY BILL

John Hyams and Leila McIntyre in "Maybloom" Are Headliners.

Three nights and four matinees of Orpheum vaudeville as usual will be the schedule this week, the new show to open at the Heilig with the matinee today to close its Portland engagement with the matinee next Wednesday.

A typical big-time vaudeville bill with comedy predominating and national favorites featured is the Orpheum's new offering. John Hyams and Leila McIntyre, who are among the best of the big-time vaudeville and the headliners in their artistic act called "Maybloom," a model playlet built especially for talents of this kind. Mr. Hyams is an ultra comedian and Miss McIntyre is a dainty and delightful as a rosebud. Her impersonation of the Quaker has become her trademark. In "Maybloom" Mr. Hyams has opportunity for his dry, uncious humor and Miss McIntyre includes her famous Quaker number in the songs. "Maybloom" as handled by Hyams and McIntyre is one of the gems of Orpheum vaudeville.

IRISH COMEDIAN IS COMING

Chauncey Olcott Will Appear at Heilig Dec. 11, 12 and 13.

Lovers of clean, wholesome Irish comedy will welcome the engagement at the Heilig Theater next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, December 11, 12 and 13, special matinee Saturday, of Chauncey Olcott in his most noted success, "Macushla."

In the part of Sir Brian Fitzgerald Mr. Olcott has won success for the delightful human touches he gives to the happy-go-lucky Irish character. He makes Sir Brian a part of him, and he lives every minute with the part that has been so closely identified with Mr. Olcott's success. Four new songs will be introduced by Mr. Olcott, and from their titles they are sure of success.

"That's How the Shannon Flows" will be the first one; next will come "Macushla Asthore" (Pulse of My Heart), then "Till Miss You, Old Ireland, God Bless You, Goodbye," and "She's Just Like You," all truly with the green of Ireland in the titles.

It has always been A. L. Erlanger's motto to give to the theater-going public the best that is in him, and the production promised of "Macushla" will excel any in the Orpheum repertoire. A company selected in person will support Mr. Olcott, and all details

"STUBBORN CINDERELLA" NEXT

Alcazar Players to Stage Show After "Nobody Home."

"A Stubborn Cinderella" is the attraction scheduled at the Alcazar theater following "Nobody Home," opening Monday night, December 15. It is a much exploited and highly praised musical comedy and was written by Hough, Adams and Howard, who are the authors of "The Time, the Place and the Girl," which was one of the banner attractions presented by the Alcazar Musical Players.

"FANTANA" CLOSING TONIGHT

Alcazar Players Present Big Hit for Last Time.

The Alcazar musical players will give their last performance of "Fantana" tonight at the Alcazar theater. It was in "Fantana" that Jefferson De Angelo scored his biggest hit, and it is in "Fantana" that the Alcazar musical players are at their best. "Fantana" is worth white teeth.

OLD FARCE TO BE REVIVED

"The Private Secretary" Will Follow "Cheating Cheaters" at Baker.

In sharp contrast with the story of crooks pitted against crooks will be "The Private Secretary," which will follow "Cheating Cheaters" at the Baker theater. The farce, which is one of the most mirthful of all laugh plays, is built up of irresistibly funny lines and situations, and will afford

THRILLS FILL BAKER BILL

"Cheating Cheaters" Will Be Presented by Stock Company.

Traps set for crooks and sprung by crooks, the wholesale plotting of robberies and the operation of a band of thieves cloaked as detectives in a scheme to halt the operation of another band of thieves are incidents artfully combined in "Cheating Cheaters," the underworld drama by Max Marcin, which will open at the Baker theater this afternoon.
