

TONE OF EASTERN APPLIES WEAKER

Markets Have Slowed Down in All Sections.

FEW SALES IN NORTHWEST

Shipments From Boxed Districts in Past Week 618 Cars, or 51 Cars Less Than Previous Week.

The week closed with the local apple market quiet and prices showing a declining tendency. Apples, extra fancy, were generally quoted at $2.50 per bushel...

Shipments of Oregon apples on Friday were 54 cars. At the eastern auction sales during the day the movement was slow with prices ranging from weak to steady.

During the past week the apple markets of the country have ruled slow. At northern shipping points the apples have been reported except rollers. The western section quoted steady. There was a sale up to $2.75 a bushel. There was irregularity in the consuming markets and a wide variation in condition and price.

In the barreled apple sections the markets were drab and somewhat weaker. Western New York shipping points reported the demand for movement.

WHEAT IS NOT PRESSED FOR SALE

Eastern Cash Market Is Again Lower. Coarse grain market at Minneapolis was 3 to 10 cents lower, there was a change in the wheat situation at this end. The only buyers from coast mills and buyers found the sellers were not disposed to make concessions.

CORN FIRM AT CLOSE

FLUCTUATIONS ONE OF WEEK-END CHARACTERISTICS. Resumption of Trade With Russia Arouses Interest, but Does Not Affect Prices.

CORN FIRM AT CLOSE

There is a scarcity of cabbage on the coast and prices are climbing. It is between seasons and jobbers find it difficult to get supplies anywhere except in southern California.

POTATO PRICES TEND DOWNWARD

Weaker Feeling in Local and in Shipping Markets. A slightly weaker tendency was reported in the local potato market. The best Idaho banks were held at $4.50 per 100 lbs.

STOCK MARKET RALLIES

Substantial Buying Orders Turn Prices Upward. Bonds Are Irregular With Lighter Trading—Banks Show Increase in Actual Reserves.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—Flushed with their recent success, short interests in the stock market made further efforts to unsettle prices today.

Substantial buying orders set in while the list was under pressure and most losses were largely retrieved. Sales amounted to $25,000,000.

Merchandise authorities reported mixed conditions in many lines of trade, the situation in the northwest pointing to further expansion at distributing centers.

NEW BELGIAN LOAN IS SUCCESS. Low Grade Stock Issues Forced Down by Short Interest.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—In the absence of constructive developments, the securities market was strikingly illustrated by another period of liquidation, the decline receiving substantial assistance from an emboldened short interest.

Partly because of the latest and more menacing conditions in eastern Europe, but mainly because of continued delay in effecting remedial measures, foreign exchange once more moved strongly against London and European centers. The sterling rate received the attitude of American investors and bankers toward foreign offerings was strikingly illustrated in the success which attended the $25,000,000 Belgian loan.
