

WEST IS UNDAUNTED BY HOOVER REFUSAL

Presidential Petitions Continue in Circulation.

REPUBLICANS ARE ACTIVE

Club Organized in Oregon Seeks to Get ex-Food Administrator's Name on Ballot.

While the Hoover Republican club of Oregon is circulating petitions to have Mr. Hoover's name placed on the republican primary ballot, Oswald West has practically completed his petition to put the name of Mr. Hoover on the democratic ballot. The refusal of Mr. Hoover to permit democrats in various states to inject his name into their primaries, and the increasing activity among republicans to bring Mr. Hoover to the fore, has not discouraged Mr. West.

"The petitions to place Mr. Hoover on the democratic ballot are practically filled," declared Mr. West yesterday. "I have received more than the 1000 signatures necessary, and am now checking them over to see that they comply with the requirements of the law. Some of the people who circulated the petition were not informed as to the requirements, so today I sent out a couple of blanks, which had been requested, to gather the few names necessary to offset the mistakes which crept into some of the petition papers. This, of course, always happens in every petition that is circulated.

Petition to Be Ready Soon.

"I expect to have the Hoover petition ready for filing with the secretary of state about the middle of the coming week. Thus far everything has gone along swimmingly."

Meanwhile, the McAdoo petitions for the democratic ballot are drifting along. Newton McCoy, who was first in the field with these documents, frankly admits that they are moving somewhat slow. George Lovejoy, of the McAdoo club, on the other hand, asserts that his petitions for Mr. McAdoo are piling up in an eminently satisfactory manner.

There is a possibility of three other democrats having their names on the ballot in the primaries. At least, State Chairman Starkweather has received that number of inquiries, one from the Owen-for-President club and two inquiries from the McAdoo club in Ohio, possibly one of them from the managers of Governor Cox. These correspondents wanted information from Chairman Starkweather regarding the final date for filing in the presidential primaries, costs, and similar matters.

Work Petition Active.

Although Mr. West says the Hoover petition is about ready to drop into the lap of the secretary of state, with the declaration that Mr. Hoover is a democrat, the Hoover Republican club of Oregon, launched at the University club a few days ago, started with several scores of names on the republican petition. It appears, however, to be a foregone conclusion that Mr. Hoover's name will be on both primary tickets.

There are two other names which are even considering the prospect of becoming candidates for delegates to the republican national convention with the slogan "I am Hoover."

April 16 is the last day for filing for the presidential primaries, or for filing for all offices to be voted for by the state at large, or in a district composed of one or more counties. By that time there may be at least five names on the republican ticket, and from two to five names on the democratic ticket, for the popular choice for the presidential nomination.

SHRIVER CONCESSION GOES TO CONCERN HERE.

Portland Organization Is Planning to Engage in Picture Production on Big Scale.

An award of exclusive motion-picture rights during the Shrine convention in Portland, including the right to film all the parades, the imperial officers and nobility and other features of the convention, was made yesterday by the Continental Producing company.

With the announcement of this award, made by the concessions committee of the Shrine, it became known that the Continental Producing company, an organization financed with Portland capital but having connections in several eastern cities, is preparing to enter the motion-picture industry in Portland on a large scale. Not alone will the organization confine its efforts to the film industry.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat If You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Trouble.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular intake of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison. Also you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.—Adv.

but in addition a vaudeville booking division will be operated for the purpose of developing amateur talent and furnishing acts for the stage.

Frank Coffinberry, veteran theatrical man, heads the organization as general manager and Captain Herman Kline has been elected secretary and treasurer of the company.

Production of comedies, reels and "fillers" for the silver screen will be featured by this company. Portland headquarters has been opened in a suite of rooms in the Buchanan building, it was announced.

Captain Kline will leave Portland Tuesday for New York and other eastern points, where he will arrange for the distribution of releases of the Portland concern and engage expert cameramen for the company.

It is estimated that more than 30,000 feet of film will be produced in the transfer of the Shrine activities to the screen, and all features of the big celebration will be handled exclusively by the new organization.

Plans have been formulated for the establishment of a studio in Portland next fall, to be kept in constant operation. It is planned to work in the studio during the rainy season, and when weather permits to "shoot" outdoor scenes.

Mr. Coffinberry, who will direct the activities of the company, is well known in the theatrical and other circles of the northwest. He was formerly manager of the Orpheum theater in Portland and during the progress of the war was in charge of distribution of films by the government in Oregon, Washington and Idaho, having thus handled all the films distributed by the committee on public information.

Captain Kline was formerly efficiency expert for the American mills, is a graduate of the school of economics of the University of Pittsburgh and is a postgraduate of Harvard university. He is well known in amateur and intercollegiate sporting circles.

SALVATION ARMY IS NEXT

ORGANIZATION WORK IS GOING FORWARD RAPIDLY.

Convention Call to Be Issued in Short Time—Etheridge Tells of Movement and Purpose.

Organization work is going forward rapidly for the county convention to be held by the advisory boards and financial campaigners of the Salvation Army home service programme of 1920.

The convention call will be issued soon in at least a dozen counties where field representatives working under John L. Etheridge, director-general of the financial phase of the home service programme, are organizing for the rescue week collection feature, May 1 to 10.

Mr. Etheridge's headquarters have been selected in seven counties. T. G. Montgomery of Baker will handle Baker county; H. L. Kuhl of Canyon City, Grant county; Fred E. Smith of Eugene, Lane county; J. E. Brown of Albany, Linn county; Judge R. E. Miller of Toledo, Lincoln county; Jack Pelton of Roseburg, Douglas county; and Eugene L. Coburn of Grants Pass, Josephine county.

The county organizations have been selected in Douglas, Josephine and Lane counties as follows:

Douglas—Jack Pelton, president; A. C. Marston, vice-president; J. E. McClintock, secretary; Joseph Mitchell, treasurer; O. F. Cochran, chairman of the advisory board; organization committee: J. E. McClintock, publicity; J. E. Brown, financial; J. O. Watson in charge of speakers, and J. O. Watson in charge of the advance committee.

Josephine—Eugene L. Coburn, president; Wilford Allen, vice-president; A. J. Martindale, secretary; L. Lundberg, treasurer; E. W. Clark, F. S. Braunsell, publicity; J. E. Brown, financial; organization committee: C. H. Ernst, P. P. Proctor, Vallard Truax, publicity committee; Frank C. Bramwell, in charge of speakers, and John Hampshire, I. A. Rolfe and E. B. Gilding, advance gifts committee.

Lane—Fred E. Smith, president; E. O. Pether, vice-president; Russell Calkins, secretary; R. B. Brundage, treasurer; E. O. Linn, P. P. Ernst and H. Brown, organization committee; George McLerran, chairman publicity committee; Barton Veach, chairman advance gifts committee, and C. M. Stevens, chairman speakers committee.

The financial organization to handle the rescue week phase of the home service programme in Oregon is separate from the advisory board organizations. At the county conventions men appointed by the rescue week presidents to represent them in each county school district and community will meet with the advisory boards and the county rescue week organizations to perfect plans for the financial campaign.

"The slogan of the campaign," said Mr. Etheridge yesterday, "is 'Quota Plus,' and it is just that we are going out after. The Salvation Army in its home service programme is planning one of the biggest works Oregon has ever seen in social service. In Portland there will be the White Shield home, opened and converted into a Salvation Army rescue home for unfortunate girls. This is to be a state-wide home where girls from any county in Oregon will be welcomed.

"There will be the central building to be put up on the lot bought at Sixth and Ankeny streets. The industrial home in Portland and the Workingmen's hotel also will take on a state-wide character under the new plan. The Bishop Scott school out at Yamhill, and the lot for the purchase of which the Salvation Army is now paying the way of Oregon boys who are on their way to Lytton home, the California school, after which the Oregon school will be patterned."

SINNOTT TO RUN AGAIN

THE DALLAS MAN WOULD STAY AS REPRESENTATIVE.

J. D. Lee of Portland Files Declaration of Candidacy to Represent 18th District.

SALEM, Or., March 27.—(Special).—"Americanism, incumbent and continued effort for the state's development," is the slogan of N. J. Sinnott of The Dalles, who today filed with the secretary of state his declaration of candidacy for re-election as representative in congress for the second congressional district. Mr. Sinnott is a republican and asks that his name be placed on the ballot at the primary election in May.

In his platform he says: "During my term of office I will advocate Americanism, the supremacy of the law and maintenance of our institutions; just recognition of the personal and financial sacrifices of the soldiers, sailors, marines and nurses who served in the great war; recognition of the respective rights of the public labor and capital in industrial disputes, and suppression of profiteering.

"If re-elected I will continue my efforts to secure reclamation of the arid lands and the full development of the other resources of my district and state. I will serve no interest but the public interest."

Representative Sinnott filed his declaration with the secretary of state in person, and passed the remainder of the day visiting with Justice Bennett of the supreme court and other dignitaries in the vicinity.

Frank Sloan of Stanfield, has filed with the secretary of the state his declaration of candidacy for representative in the 23d representative district. He has neither platform nor slogan.

Piano Points for Consideration

SO IMPORTANT is the purchase of a piano that it should never be undertaken unless one has a vivid conception of the qualities that make for piano values. Primarily, the piano is a musical instrument; incidentally, of course, it is an ornament. Its main function, therefore, is to give music.

THE PURCHASER should next consider the durability of the piano. He should be well aware of the construction of the pianos offered for his use. Unless a piano can maintain its tone, stand up under hard usage for years after the newness has worn off, it is unworthy of consideration.

IN COMPARING the merits of various pianos the purchaser should first determine which piano gives the very finest music. Without the proper tone, a piano is little more than a piece of furniture; but with a QUALITY OF TONE that is PURE, CLEAR and PLEASING to the ear, it becomes the greatest aid in the development of musical talent in the young, and of the appreciation of the best in music in every member of the family.

THE design and finish of a piano should make a strong appeal to the eyes. Tastes differ as to what is the most beautiful in piano-case designs, so the line offered should have sufficient variety to permit a satisfactory choice. A selection based on the points given: MUSICAL QUALITY, DURABILITY OF CONSTRUCTION, THE UTMOST BEAUTY OF DESIGN, will result in—SATISFACTION.

FOUR MEN INVITE PEDESTRIAN TO RIDE TO CITY.

Poor Description of Assailants Secured and Number of Automobile Cannot Be Ascertained.

Four young men in an automobile strong-armed and robbed G. H. Quarstrom, blacksmith, in the employ of the Pacific Bridge company, after they had lured him into their machine on the pretext of giving him a lift to the city, according to a report which Quarstrom made to the authorities yesterday afternoon.

After robbing him, Quarstrom said the men threw him out of the car at Columbia boulevard and East Fifty-sixth street and made their escape.

Quarstrom said that the men took $20 in cash and two pay checks for $51 and $45 respectively. Ten dollars which he had concealed in a vest pocket they overlooked.

Donkey Engines Make Trouble.

KELSO, Wash., March 27.—(Special).—The Mountain Timber company, which is putting its logging road up the Kalama river in shape for operations, has had two expensive accidents with donkey engines. One broke loose while being hauled up a steep grade and piled up at the foot of the hill. Another went through a weak trestle. The company plans to start logging operations as soon as its railway can be put in shape. It is stated that a small mill will also be built to get out timbers.

SENTENCE TO BE TUESDAY

Eleven I. W. W. to Be Allowed to Address Court.

ABERDEEN, Wash., March 27.—(Special).—Eleven I. W. W. members, recently found guilty of criminal syndicalism in a trial before Judge Sheeks of Montesano, will appear in court for sentence next Tuesday. Prosecuting Attorney Stewart announced today.

With Defense Attorney Ralph S. Pierce's motion for arrest of judgment overruled, the only legal procedure left to the convicted men lies in an appeal for a new trial. The men to be brought into court Tuesday may not be sentenced on that day, in the opinion of some. Judge Sheeks, it is said, will allow each of the convicted I. W. W. to address the court in his own behalf, and will then take a few days for further consideration of the case.
