KIDNAPED BOY BACK HOME

LAD TELEPHONES TO PARENTS FROM HOTEL ROOM.

loney Demanded as Ransom I Placed by Father in Garbage Can but Not Called For.

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 27 .- Paul Little, 12-year-old son of E. R. Little, a local capitalist, was safe at home last night while the authorities were searching in several states for two men who kidnaped the boy Wednes day afternoon.

day afternoon. The lad was returned to his parents this morning after he had telephoned to his home from a hotel room, where he said he had been imprisoned in the bathroom for 38 hours. Often he said the kidnapers threatened his life, sometimes showing him a revolver. He said his only food was a little fruit and a piece of cake. Mis captors left the bathroom un-locked with morning and Paul said he emerged into the room to find its door locked. Then he telephoned and, his sister answering the call, the boy door locked. Then he telephoned and, his sister answering the call, the boy screamed with delight. Soon his father was at the hotel and burst into the room and the boy rushed into his arms. The boy said he had been lured to the hotel by one of the kidnapers on a promise of a dollar for deliver-ing a box of candy. A note demanding a ransom of $25,-000 had been received by Mr. Little 000 had been received by Mr. Little and, although he announced he had the money Thursday night in a gar-bage can as directed, the kidnapers failed to appear, supposedly, the po-lice say, through fear of arrest.

20 years. Back in the nineties Mr. Swan came to Portland as a young man looking for employment. He went first to the A. M. C. A., where Mr. Stone met him and got him a position in the city. A fow years later Mr. Swan had occa-sion to so to New York where he was induced to stay. During the war Mr. Stone happened to meet Mr. Swan 'or the street and recognized him after 20 years' absence. Swan was wearing a Y. M. C. A. uniform and was giving a half day's work every day in the week to the Y. M. C. A. He casually remarked about his membership in the Portland association and his check arrived last week. The only qualification as to use was that it should be used to help worthy young men get started in the city. The money has been added to the endow-ment fund for such purposes. Back in the nineties Mr. Swan came

HAVE my own ideas about running a man's shop. And chief among these ideas is this one: That I am paid by the community ▲ I serve, to use the utmost discrimination in selecting merchan-dise, and not to take the first thing that is handed to me unless it is the last word on the subject.

That is why I carry Hickey-Freeman clothes for men.

I have to carry them to keep faith with you.

I have to carry them to keep faith with myself.

They are a part of the unwritten agreement between us-

TRUSTIES FLEE PRISON Young Men Convicted of Larceny

Escape at Salem.

SALEM, Or., March 27.-(Special.)-Robert Grant, 20, and John Price, 23, escaped from the Oregon penitentiary here this morning while employed as trusties. An automobile belonging to P. M. Varney, state parole officer, was also missing from the prison gar-age and it is believed the convicts stole the machine before making their get-away.

Telegrams containing descriptions of the men have been sent to all of-ficers within a radius of 100 miles of Salem in hope that they may be apprehended. Both men were committed to the penlientiary from Umatilla county last September on charges of larceny. Grant was serving a maximum term of 10 years and Price a maximum term of five years.
