An experienced observer in charge of a large office said it was a waste of words to tell most people to eat plain food. They prefer the food that delights the eye. Checking up on the after effects the usual distresses of gassiness, sour risings, water brash, loginess and so on may be avoided by following the meal with one or two Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. These supply the stomach belies with an alkaline effect thus premoting normal conditions as in health food. Men and women are but children of a larger growth when it comes to eating the foods that satisfy, even though they may cause information.

Indigestion is not necessarily confined to those who live high, it may follow so simple a process as the flavor of a bay leaf, thyme, garlic, without a protest.—Adv.
