

COYE COMMITTEES OF SENATE FRAMED

Lieutenant Governor - Elect Has Organization.

PLAN TO BE SUBMITTED

Upper House of Washington State Legislature Will Be Asked to Confirm Programme.

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 11.—(Special.)—W. J. Coye, lieutenant-governor, has completed the first draft of the senate committees, and says he feels confident that the organization proposed by him will prove satisfactory to the senators.

Confident of Satisfaction. "I feel confident that the committees made up by me will give satisfaction to the senators," said Coye yesterday.

Work Will Be Very Heavy. "It is probable that this committee will draft other legislation recommended by the governor," said Coye.

Personnel of Committees. Only 18 of the old committee will be members of the new house, as follows: Eastern Washington—Hubbell, Kittitas, chairman; Mansfield, Lincoln, Wolf, Pennington, Lewis, Franklin, Miller, Klickitat, Trumble, Whitman; Sawyer, Yakima; Stratton, Spokane.

Traffic Fines $22,091. 5142 CONVICTED IN POLICE COURT IN 1920.

Report Filed With Chief Jenkins Shows Patrolmen Will Lead Squad.

Speeders and other traffic violators have paid a total of $22,091 in police court fines during the present year, according to the annual report of Frank Ervin, police lieutenant in charge of motorcycle patrolmen.

PAWBROKERS ARE HELD. Alleged Purchase of Government Property Causes Arrest.

SENATE DEBATES FARM AID

VOTE TO REVIVE WAR FINANCING TO BE TAKEN TOMORROW.

Request for More Liberal Credits by Federal Reserve Board Causes Delay.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Debate prevented a vote in the senate today on the joint resolution directing revival of the war finance corporation as a relief measure for farmers.

Senator Smoot, Utah, gave notice he would move to strike out the section and Senator Thomas, Colorado, said he would ask for a separate vote.

Senator Pomeroy, Ohio, said he would not "help wreck the federal reserve board," and Senator Glass, Virginia, declared that section was a direct and unjust criticism of the board and not based on facts.

2 Hurt in Traffic Accidents. SALEM, Or., Dec. 11.—(Special.)—Frank Sharp, local contractor, while crossing a street here late last night, was run down by an automobile and suffered a broken leg and other less serious injuries.

Part-time men who apply a definite part of their time to life insurance work each year, who are agents in general life insurance business, who are training for full-time work during a period not to exceed three months, or who are employing business from part-time men and requesting general agents of all life insurance companies operating in the city to take a definite stand in regard to employment of part-time agents was postponed until the next regular session.

Elimination of the part-time life insurance man as a means of safeguarding the profession and developing a higher type of salesmanship was discussed by the Life Underwriters' association of Oregon at its regular monthly luncheon, held yesterday at the Benson hotel.

A resolution placing the association on record as opposed to accepting business from part-time men and requesting general agents of all life insurance companies operating in the city to take a definite stand in regard to employment of part-time agents was postponed until the next regular session.

Requisition Papers Asked. SALEM, Or., Dec. 11.—(Special.)—W. W. Gage, sheriff of Coos county, was in Salem today in quest of requisition papers for the return to Oregon of Lewis Harper, who is under arrest at Billings, Mont., on a charge of forgery.

Hold-Up Men Operating at Eugene. EUGENE, Or., Dec. 11.—(Special.)—Two students of the university reported to the Eugene police that two men with revolvers held them up Thursday night. They ran and the highwaymen fired several shots at them.

New Paper to Start. CHEHALIS, Wash., Dec. 11.—(Special.)—Napaivine, a five sawmill town seven miles south of Chehalis, will have a newspaper the coming week, with G. E. Parks as editor and publisher.
