PORTLAND society has been honored with a number of visitors who have been the motifs for many affairs. Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Louis Abell (Crystal Hyland) was the honored guest at a tea at which her sister, Mrs. Harry P. Edwards, entertained. Mrs. Abell, who has been living in Bolivia, South America, for several years, was a former Portland girl, and is being widely feted during her visit here. Mrs. Elvira Cartwright of London, who is the house guest of Mr.

and Mrs. Vernon A. Cartwright, was the inspiration for a large tea Friday afternoon, when Mrs. John Raymond Holman and Mrs. Lawrence Holman entertained.

Of interest to society folk will be the dramatic impersonations to be given by "Sara Truax," Mrs. Charles Albert of Spokane, at the Trinity parish house on Monday, November 26, December 4, 11 and 18. Sarah Truax will be remembered with Guy Bates Post in the "Garden of Allah." Her selections will include "Ann Christie," "Loyalities," "The Circle" and "Enter Madam." Tea will be served following these interpretations. The proceeds will go to the art and architectural department of the University of Oregon. A number of matrons who are on the committee of arrangements are Mrs. Frederick P. Moray, Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mrs. Edwin E. Parsons, Mrs. Max S. Hirsch, Mrs. F. E. Hart and Mrs. Donald Spencer.

The marriage of Miss Gladys Mac-

Swiney and John C. Banks occurred last Saturday morning at the Unitarian chapel in the presence of a few relatives and friends. Rev. W. G. Eliot officiated. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was given at the Hotel Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Banks left immediately for a trip to California. After Thanksgiving they will be at home here at the Trinity Place apartments. The bride is the sister of Major and Mrs. G. M. MacSwiney and for-
