of blue chiffon. Their flowers were yellow chrysanthemums.

Little Dorothy Frank, the daughter of Mrs. Lloyd Frank, and Elizabeth Ehrman, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Ehrman, were adorable as flower girls. They were attired in flesh-pink chiffon and carried baskets of flowers in the pastel shades.

Richard A. Shainwald of San Francisco acted as best man. The ushers included Allen E. Meier, Lloyd Frank, William Heller Ehrman and Joseph Ehrman Jr. of San Francisco.

Following the ceremony a beautifully-appointed dinner was given. The dining room was colorful with the decorations of yellow chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Meier, mother of the bride, was beautifully gowned in black velvet and Mrs. M. Heller wore a striking costume of yellow velvet and silver. Later in the evening dancing was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Heller left for a wedding trip in the east, after which they will make their home in San Francisco. Mrs. Heller is a popular and charming at the attractive table. They were assisted by Mrs. Daniel Wilson, Mrs. James Meese, Mrs. Rudolph K. Krausse (Margaret Bronaugh) and Mrs. Neagle Sealy, Harry Sealy, son of Mrs. Sealy, opened the door for the guests.

Mrs. William C. Alvord will entertain at one of the tables at the luncheon to be given next Saturday at the Multnomah hotel in the interest of the campaign for oriental colleges for women. Her guests will include Mrs. George F. Wilson, Mrs. William MacMaster, Mrs. Roy T. Bishop, Mrs. O. A. Lyman, Mrs. Louis Gerlinger, Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur and Miss Isabella Gauld.

Miss Jessie Bass of Seattle has been the house guest of her cousin, Mrs. Folger Johnson, at Alexander court.

Miss Katherine Graham has returned to Portland after filling an engagement as leading woman with the stock company at Wenatchee.

One of the most attractive dinners of the week was that at which Mr. and Mrs. Julius L. Meier entertained Sunday night at their country place on the Columbia highway. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Heller (Jeanette Meier) and the out-of-town guests here for the Heller-Meier wedding were the inspirations for the event.

One of the most beautiful home weddings of the season was that of Miss Jeannette Meier and Walter Heller at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Meier, Tuesday night in the presence of a fashionable assemblage. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Henry W. Metzger sang. Rabbi Jonah B. Wise read the service. The bride, who approached the altar improvised of beautiful pink chrysanthemums, was handsome in a wedding robe of white velvet adorned with pearls and cut on graceful lines with a long train. Her veil was of real lace becomingly arranged with orange blossoms and falling to the length of her train. She carried a shower bouquet of white gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Miss Jean Meier, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She was most attractive in a creation of yellow chiffon and carried an armful of yellow chrysanthemums.

Miss Elsa Meier, another cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Allen E. Meier (Jane Seiler) were her attendants. They wore smart frocks of blue chiffon. Their flowers were yellow chrysanthemums.

Little Dorothy Frank, the daughter of Mrs. Lloyd Frank, and Elizabeth Ehrman, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Ehrman, were adorable as flower girls. They were attired in flesh-pink chiffon and carried baskets of flowers in the pastel shades.

Richard A. Shainwald of San Francisco acted as best man. The ushers included Allen E. Meier, Lloyd Frank, William Heller Ehrman and Joseph Ehrman Jr. of San Francisco.
