young woman and will be greatly missed by her many friends here.

Many society folk attended the Portland symphony concert Wednesday night. This was the first of the series to be given this year. Among the box holders for the season are Dr. R. C. Coffey, Mrs. Sigmond Frank, Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur, Mrs. H. C. Wortman, Dr. Charles Edwin Sears, Miss Isabella Gaud, Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Walter Babson, Mrs. Mary Scarborough, Walter J. Burns and Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox.

Mrs. A. S. Kerry of Seattle, who has been greatly interested in the development of the Portland symphony orchestra, was in the city Wednesday to attend the concert.

Miss Harriet Griffith gave an informal bridge party Monday afternoon for Miss Dorothy Metchan, a popular bride-elect, and Miss Ruth Bruner's house guest, Miss Dorothy Cockran of Washington, D. C.

One of the largest line parties at the Portland symphony orchestra Thursday night was that of the Hill Military academy.

General and Mrs. Richard M. Blatchford now are residing at Alexandria court.

This afternoon Mrs. Evelyn Rigler Walker will give a tea for Mr. and Mrs. Orville M. Rankin at her home on Willamette heights. No formal invitations have been issued, but they will be at home to all their friends from 4 until 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville M. Rankin will play the wedding march. An informal reception will follow the ceremony, and the supper table will be presided over by Mrs. Arthur C. Spencer, Mrs. Rufus Holman, Mrs. George L. Baiser and Mrs. Cassius Barlow of Piedmont, Cal., an aunt of Mr. Hawley. Assisting in the dining room will be Miss Louise Pullman, Miss Mary Helen Spaulding, Miss Ruth Bryers and Miss Harriet Griffith.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Montgomery Rankin (Mrs. Frank Rigler) have returned from British Columbia and are residing at their home on Humphrey boulevard, in Portland Heights.

One of the most brilliant social events of the fall season at Vancouver Barracks was the masquerade ball given Friday night at the Service club by Captain and Mrs. William F. Rehm and Lieutenant and Mrs. Caryl R. Hazeltine. The ball was given in honor of the new officers of the post and their wives. Masses of autumn leaves and baskets of chrysanthemums made a proper background for the gay costumes of the dancers. Prizes were awarded for the most clever costumes. Just before midnight the dancers unmasked. A number of Portland people were among the guests.

Miss Irma Yates of Corvallis is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Caryl R. Hazeltine.

An attractive dancing party was given Friday night, when Miss Mary Louise Zan and Miss Elizabeth Zan entertained the sub-debutantes dancing club at their home.

Miss Mary Louise Feldenheimer departed last week for New York to continue her work in sculpturing under the direction of Lentelle, the world-famed sculptor. She will also take advantage of the operatic season there.

The Arts and Crafts society will give the first of its series of teas for this season at the home of Mrs. Walter M. Cook Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 6. Anthony Euwer will be the honor guest. He is well known both at home and abroad as an artist, illustrator and poet. His drawings have appeared in Scribners, Harpers, Life and other publications. His pastels and water-colors of Oregon have added greatly to his fame as a painter. Many of these, as well as book plates, black and white line drawings will be on exhibit on this occasion. As a poet he has been to the northwest what Robert Service has meant to Alaska. "Rhymes of Our Valley," "Christopher Crofut on Cats," "Wings and Other War Rhymes" and "Limericks" are among his well-known books. He will give a talk at 5 o'clock which will be of interest to the society. Everyone who would enjoy this opportunity is urged to come. December 5 at the art museum the society presents Frank Louis Schoell of the University of Chicago, who will lecture on "Applied Arts in France." Sidney Bell will be honor guest at a tea in January. The work of craft members and loan exhibits will be featured.

Mrs. James F. McIndoe entertained a number of young matrons at a bridge party Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Clayton A. Sharp and Mrs. Howard C. Sharp were joint hostesses at a bridge luncheon of six tables Saturday, November 11, at the former's home in Irvington. Bridge honors went to Mrs. W. Munsey and Mrs. L. A. Menton.

A wedding of interest to their many friends was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Huntington, 119 Miriam place, Laurelhurst, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Miss Frances Huntington became the bride of Ralph Norenberg of Spokane, Wash. Dr. Harold Rowman officiated. Preceding the ceremony Miss Leola Green sang "Oh, Promise Me," and "I Love You." The bride wore a suit of fawn duvet de laine. Following the ceremony a reception was held and a buffet lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Norenberg are graduates of the Washington State college. Miss Huntington was a member of the Sigma Kappa society. Mr. Norenberg is of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. They left immediately for a honeymoon trip to the sound cities. They will be at home in Olympia, Wash., where Mr. Norenberg is engaged in business.

Miss Mary Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adams Hill and Kenneth Churchill Goodall will be married next Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock in Daniels hall of the Hill Military academy, 175 North Twenty-fourth street. Dr. A. A. Morrison will perform the ceremony. Mrs. Walter Gerke will be matron of-honor, and Robert Slesky will attend the bridegroom. An aisle for the bridal party will be formed by ten girls carrying shepherd's crooks and streamers of ribbon. They are Misses Georgia Jacobs, Harriet Malcolm, Polly Harris, Marjorie Joy and Hazel Sanders, sorority sisters of the bride from the Oregon Agricultural college. Miss Ruth Hopkins, Mrs. Elmer Ramsey and Marie Schulerman of Portland, Miss Viola Watkins of Sumner, Wash., and Miss Gertrude Lee of Tacoma, Wash. Little Dick Knight, a cousin of the bride, will be train-bearer. Mrs. Alice Price Moore will sing and will
