

The New Year's Compliments

TODAY the personnel of SKAGGS STORES acknowledge with grateful thanks a very large patronage from this community in 1922.

Our merchandising area has grown very large this year. Every kind of income and industry represented in the great northwest was served by our stores.

Farming, railroading, stock-raising, mining, fruit-growing, lumbering, fishing, and even the commerce on the seas, have all played their part in helping SKAGGS STORES give to each community uniform low prices, based on a general low overhead cost.

We enter the New Year with the determination that our stores will be stores of continued service—and to merit in every way the patronage we hope to receive.

Here's wishing a Happy and Prosperous New Year to all.

More Hillsboro people attended the dance at the auditorium Saturday night than since the 4th of July, and all had a good time. The Portland crowd, naturally, was not large, it being a stormy night.

Wm. A. Goodin, the Guernsey breeder of Cornelius, was a city caller Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Deck and children spent Christmas with relatives of Mrs. Deck, at Brooks, Ore., returning Wednesday.

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS

County Official Paper

L. A. Long, Editor

Subscription, $1.50 per annum.

Issued every Thursday by Mrs. E. C. McKinney and L. A. Long. Entered at the Post Office at Hillsboro, Oregon, as second class mail matter.

Thirty years ago there were newspaper men in the northwest who passed ribald jokes to the Argus because it maintained that it was only a question of time until Portland became the foremost port on the north coast. Today that prediction is beginning to live in reality. Maritime history has for hundreds of years shown that ships that "pass in the night" will go as far inland as it is humanly possible and today cargoes out of the Willamette are bound for every port of importance in the shipping world. It took a Geo. Chamberlain to impress congress with the necessity of decent appropriations for the Columbia river and we can now see the fruits of his statesmanship.

Payrolls are what make a town go, for people who work must spend money, and spending money means trade and work for others.

The Argus extends to its hundreds of readers the greetings of the New Year.

Breaking of resolutions will start full time about next Friday, Jan. 5, 1923.

Here's hoping the world will get settled down to peace in 1923.

DASHING TOM MIX

Dashing Tom Mix, with his horse, "Tony," will be at the Liberty Theatre, Friday and Saturday evenings, with a matinee Saturday, in an entirely new setting. The producers stage the horseman in "Tom Mix in Arabia," a new departure for the dashing hero of boots and saddles. In his new cast, Tom outrides Arabs—and when a man can outride one of the sons of the desert, he is going some. It is not generally known that Tom Mix, while a genuine cowboy, is also a soldier, and that he was injured in the Boxer uprising. While convalescing Tom read the Arabian Nights and so delighted with it was he that he has always wanted to film something that had the Arabian bouquet in it—and in this new film he is given his chance.

It will be worth your while to go and see Tom with his Arabian turban sitting encrown, and to see him chasing and being chased by Bedouins—to see him rescue his girl, and to witness how he and his horsemanship overcome all dangers.

And right here be it remembered that "Tony," Tom's horse, is to carry a half million dollars of insurance henceforward.

The public mess camp at Astoria, under charge of the Oregon National Guard, has closed. Ray Dillon, who has been with the mess as one of the cooks, will soon be home. The kitchen served something like 18,000 meals between Dec. 8 and Tuesday of this week.

Edw. Boge, of Farmington, was a city caller Wednesday afternoon.

LEE—WHITMORE

A very pretty wedding was celebrated December 23, 1922, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Whitmore, of near Laurel, when Miss Olive Whitmore was united in marriage to Leslie M. Lee, Rev. H. A. Deck, of Hillsboro, officiating, reading the beautiful ring services. The ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives and a few invited friends.

The bride was charming in a gown of white crepe de chine.

Immediately after the wedding the party enjoyed an elaborate dinner. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Lee will be at home to their friends at Mr. Lee's home near Cherry Grove.

For Sale—Driving or riding mare. She is a clean looking animal and comes from good stock.—Wm. Raeter, 4 miles south of Hillsboro. Phone 5R4. 44
