FOR PRESIDENTIAL EXECTORS. O. JACOBS, of Jackson. WILSON BOWLBY, of Washington. A. B. MEACHAM, of Union.

Legal tenders in San Francisco, 70@ Gold in New York, 1441.

The Hartford Post says Horatio Seymour is not a parent now, nor will he be apparent after the election.

cotton in that country, the present season, as enormous.

An old but never-failing Democratic argument: "How would you like to have your daughter marry a nigger?"

The Grand Lodgo of the I. O. of O F. will hold its annual session for 1869 at San Francisco, Cal.

" Keep the ball rolling," is the cry of Democratic journals. Yes, keep it rolling until November, and then it will resemble another rolling ball, in one respect, it will be "flattened at the polls-"

The Louisville Journal is on the war path once more, and pompously declares: "The Democratic party are no lambs." True as preaching; they are sheep in wolves' clothing.

A CENTRE SHOT .- The Raleigh, (N C.) Standard, says: "The Democratic party deliberately sacrificed thousands of white men in order to save their slaves, and yet it calls itself a white man's party !"

In some fashionable city churches programmes of the music are printed and distributed in the pews. Opera glasses will probably come next, and the ladies may take it into their heads to encore the sermon of some pet parson.

Virginia, on the 27th ult., caused the death of four persons and severely injur-Police had both thighs broken, and a policeman was instantly killed in endeavoring to enter the burning building.

the appropriate name of "tanneries." They have the Fourth Ward Tannery, the Seventh Ward Tannery, etc. At all these meetings Grant holds the place of may deny this interpretation, becau-e Chief Tanner and Colfax is Chief Clerk.

The cost of putting down a democratic rebellion was some $3,000,000,000. The rebels done some good fighting, and the Copperheads gave moral aid, and now benefit of all the offices!

RUSSIAN OPINION .- The editor of the Moscow Gazette, the most popular He assures the latter of the sympathies of the enlightened classes of the Russian people.

NATIONAL AFFLICTION.-It is report-Francisco, thus described our worst nabelongs to the 'irrepressible Blair fam- that could befall the country.' ily.' Egypt had her locusts and her frogs, and other nations have had their calamities, but the United States only have been afflicted with the Blair family."

DISGUISING THEMSELVES .- The Sac. ramento Bee says that during the war the rebels often fought in disguise, bearing the national flag and dressing in the national uniform, in order to surprise the national troops. A Copperhead journal day that it was not the "profession of a advises the revival of somewhat similar him." They accepted his apology, of tactics. "Let us," it says, "meet the enemy with clean hands, with truth, with Mr. Wells and the rest to be slurred so candor, with fairness." When the De- by the President. mocracy adopt this suggestion, look out for the millenium.

Charles Seymour, of the La Cross Republican, who is one of the greatest wags | consequence of the nomination of Valout of Congress, had a big banner printed, "Vermont goes 10,000 better," and on the Democracy by the trickery of his strung it across the street, from his office to Epperson's Block. The Democratic tle through the streets of Lacrosse was must get out every Democratic voter. obliged to pass under this banner. As Can't do it, for most of 'em are in too they did so, Doolittle lifted up his voice long. and wept.

The New York World is laboring hard to prove that Grant is not a soldier. Isn't this rough on Lee and other rebel Generals that the Democracy are want to boast of, all of whom were out-fought, ping you; to prove our sorrows we have out-generaled and outrageously and theroughly thrashed by him?

The "g-r-e-a-t Democratic statesman of the nineteenth century," Horatio Seymour, asked for and obtained from the war Department, the suspension of a Union officer from duty, as a special favor. The officer called upon the great statesman, then Governor of New York, and demanded the cause of his suspension, when this would be President, after blushing and stammering in conscious shame for a few moments, asked his visitor if he had not, in a private letter, written without the remotest idea of influencing any one against the Governor, spoken of him as a Copperhead! And this is the great Democratic statesman, Horatio Seymour!

THE TRUE ISSUE -The late address issued to the Germans of New York strikes the key note of the campaign in Letters from Egypt report the yield of the following paragraph : Strip the kernel of the coverings in which sophistry has disguised it and you will find the naked question to be simply: Shall peace and prosperity come to the Republic from the election of November next, or reaction and a new civil war?

> "We vote as we fight," yell Butcher Forest, Pirate Semmes, Bully Hampton, Howell Cobb, Wise, Vance, and the whole rebel crew. "So do we," shout the "Boys in Blue" And again, in next November, will victory, as it always has in the past, perch "upon the banner on which is inscribed, Grant and Colfax.

A Seymour demagogue recently got off the following in a speech at the town of Truckee, State of Nevada. Said he: "Rain is what we want. More rain, more fertility; more fertility more corn; more corn more whisky; more whisky more Democrats." That is the frankest and most logical Democratic speech ever

At a Seymour and Blair rally at Jackson, Miss., on the 25th of August the bill gave notice: "Front seats reserved for freedmen!" What do you think of your negro-associating Copperheads of the South, Democrats of Oregon? Front seats are reserved for the negroes by the Democracy in Mississippi, A terrible conflagration at Wheeling, but to the Democracy of Oregon they are only known as "brutes," "baboons' who are not entitled and who are unfit ed a number of others. The Chief of for the ballot. "Whar's your white man's government?"

with their carpet-bags stuffed with combustible materials, to burn the city. He they were all Democrats, and he will now expect their vote."

New York, Sept. 22d, says: A letter from Gen. Dix to a friend in this city, ask as a reward that they be given the just published, says: "I have been acquainted with Seymour more than a quarter of a century. He is an amiable gentleman of unexceptionable private character, and of respectable talents, but you know as well as I do that he has not paper in Russia, says that the people of a single qualification for the successful the United States owe it to their honor execution of the high official trust which and dignity to elect Grant and Colfax. he has been nominated to. He is especially deficient in that firmness of purpose which in critical emergencies is the only safeguard against public disaster and calamity. He has been tried, at different times, Governor of the State of New York, and has in neither case had ed that Senator Williams of this State, the talent or tact to keep the Democratic in his great speech at Platt's Hall, San party of the State together more than two years. I should regard his election tional affliction: "To describe Frank decision and self-control are so much Blair it is orly necessary to say that he needed, as one of the greatest calamities

> All the Democratic campaign documents omit Frank Blair's Broadhead letter, and in many of the States that gave large Republican majorities the Democratic State committees decline to publish his letter accepting the nomination to the Vice Presidency.

> President Johnson told the delegation of tailors that waited on him the other man, but his associations, that degrade course. But how mad it must make old

Samuel W. Leffingwell, Esq., has severed his connection with the Lebanon (Ohio) Patriot, a Democratic organ, in landigham, who, he claims, was forced peculiar friends.

A Democratic paper says, that in orprocession escorting the renegade Doolit- der to secure Seymour's election, they

> If the people should elect Seymour, it would be saying to the rebels : " We are sorry we whipped you, and as a proof of our repentance, we have elected a man who was sorry all the time we were whiprepudiated the leader of the armies by whom you were whipped.

If the war was "a failure" as the Democratic party declared in 1864, why are they so anxious to prove that Seymour was in favor of it?

The New York Commercial thinks the Democratic ticket may be regarded as the metallic ticket, Governor Seymour furnishing the copper and General Blair the brass.

down Admiral Farragut. That naturally follows the failure of the attempt of the rebel Democracy to shoot him down, is disorganized, and little dependence is which occurred some years ago.

EMIGRANTS .- Some thirteen or fourteen wagons, with eight families, arrived in Boise City on Sept. 18th, from Missouri. They were bound, says the Boise Democrat, for Oregon. Let them come -plenty of room.

A distinguished savant alluding to New York, remarked that he was a form- twen: y minutes after the attack. er resident of Pompeii, and had recently been exhumed by a party of American antiquaries.

Some fellow informs the general public that Mr. Seymour is a descendant of the nobility of England, and has bright aristocratic blood in his veins. Whereupon every Irishman is expected to go into aristocracy! .

Dem.) tells the Northern Democracy that they may rely on the fact that in the seven reconstructed States, Grant electors will be chosen without any exception dieations of a disposition to resist any whatever. It says: "It is better that the Democracy of the North should realize the truth as to the Southern Presidential vote."

"GROUNDSWELLS."-The Sacramento Record says: "It is well known that heretofore Shingle Springs, El Dorado county, has east but six Union votes Thursday evening a Grant and Colfax Club was formed, and thirty persons signed the roll. The leader of this Grant movement was Mr. Davidson, a heretofore well known Democrat."

Howell Cobb, after his fiendish speech at Atlanta, Ga., a few days ago, anathematizing and denouncing the Union men of the South should remember Andrew THE REAL CARPET-BAGGERS .- There Johnson's scathing rebuke delivered in is some curiosity to know who Frank the Senate in 1860. In referring to the TANNERIES .- The Union clubs in St. Blair referred to in his letter as "carpet- seceding members of Buchanan's Cabi-Louis, Mo., call their meeting places by baggers." The Syracuse Journal says: net, Mr. Johnson said: "Cold remained with the Shoshones, Bannocks and Sheep- Col. Bankhead's command which sleft We presume he meant the fellows who in the cabinet until the Treasury was two or three years ago, visited New York bankrupt and the national credit disgraced at home and abroad, and then be man who sets himself up as a censor of ed by one who is at present his bosom DIX ON SEYMOUR.-A telegram dated Democratic party? A man who, if he had persisted in his course three hours longer, Old Hickory would have hung ing the railroad track, near the painted on the nearest tree in Washington. It post, the express train came along fightwas John C. Calhoun. You well recollect that the Senate and House were The sister of the deceased was literally both strongly Democratic when he brought forth the resolutions in the Senate declaring slavery protected in the hooted out of a Democratic Senate. But Jefferson and Jackson principles have feat is said to be unparalelled. been abandoned, and the man who did not escape the rope by three hours is the author of all to which the Democratic Harlan. party of the present day subscribes."

> FRANK BLAIR ON HIS PARTY .- On the 3d February, 1850, in a speech at Concord, N. H., Frank Blair gave his with, as follows:

WHO WAS NOMINATED .- The New York Sun is authority for saying that a half dozen different Blairs are up for the Vice Presidency. Probably, having adopted the entire Blair family, the Democracy propose to be impartial toward Steamship and Land Company. One them all. At present there are flying from hundred thousand dollar bonds constitute mast head of prominent Democratic newspapers, the names of Francis P. Blair; Francis P. Blair, Junior; Frank P. Blair, Junior; Frank Preston Blair; Francis through using these bonds, besides a Preston Blair; General Blair, etc. The number of Eastern and Western States. name of the father of all the Blairs is Francis P. Blair. It may be that it is a labor party for political purposes, to understood he is a candidate as well as advance the interests of the workingmen the whole family of boys.

Says the New York Tribune: The World figures up a lovely prospect for Seymour and Blair, and thereupon exclaims: "No wonder Radicalism is in al Labor Union. the damps, and down in the very valley of the shadow of death."

Certainly not! It is as natural as with such a "dead sure thing" for Seymour, nobody ventures to cover the $10,of thousands put up by George Wilkes to bet on Grant?

Prince Napoleon employs six cooks al Jubilee reported in favor of holding dalusia the telegraph wires have been figures you get on the paper the less is and spends $20,000 a year on his table. a semi-centennial anniversary of the escut and the railroads have been cut up. the represented value."

Spain are to the 28th. The city of Carthagena had joined the rebels; the royal troops were retreating before the insurgents; the revolution had extended to a majority of the provinces, and the rebels were daily gaining strength, while the efforts of the Government to stand the storm was evidently weakening. The The Richmond Dispatch is writing the rebels. Public opinion favors the ers revolution. The portion of the army which still remains faithful to the Queer, placed upon it. It is thought the Queen's case is hopeless.

Suppen DEATH .- On the evening of the 28th, as we learn from the Portland Oregonian, the wife of W. W. Nelson of that city died suddenly, in the Good Templars hall, while acting as an officer of the lodge, baving just finished reading Governor Seymour's birth, at Pompey, a part of the ceremony. She died in Telegraphic Summary.

A dispatch dated Washington, Sept. 25th, states that a delegation of the Alabama Legislature have arrived. They neglected to bring an authorized copy of the resolution under which they act, and will await its arrival before officially visiting the President. Governor Smith accompanies the delegation by request of The Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser, his own ability to maintain the peace of in one or two localities, there are no inlegitimate officer in the discharge of this duty. The Governor is apprehensive that during the excitement of the coming election imprudent parties may commit acts which will lead to serious disturbances unless restrained by some assurance from the President that they will be put down by the Federal authorities. Beyond this assurance, Governor Smith is inclined to think that no Federal interference is necessary at present. From Nashville, Sept. 26th, we learn that the municipal election passed off quietly. Mr. Alden, the present Mayor, was re-elected by 250 majority. Nearly all the aldermen and councilmen supported Alden. Thornburg only carried one ward. Both candidates are Republicans and supporters of Grant and Colfax. The Democrats and Conservatives united on Thornburg. The Press and Times, the leading Radical organs, supported Thornburg, who was sustained by a large part of the negro votes.

A peace treaty has been concluded Idaho and Montana.

bark Sunnyside, with a cargo of coaloil, was his horses. The Indian loss was not behind. conscientiously secoded." Such is the struck by lightning and an explosion for from eighty killed and wounded. followed. The bark burned up. The The Indians were the Sioux, Cheyennes, men and morals at the South, as describof the crew scalded but saved.

pilot was blown overboard, and several six and Arrapahoes. They number between six and seven hundred. It is estimated from Chicago, a political question was rounds, besides a quantity of arrows. raised in the Cabinet at Washigton. The | The ground was thickly strewn with the session lasted three hours. Secretary latter. Col. Forsyth's wounds are doing Welles and McCulloch declared in favor well. The fight on the first day was the of Seymour and Blair; Secretary Seward worst and most terriffic that has ever came out unequivocally for Grant and taken place on the plains. The Indians opinion of the party he is now training Coltax. Schofield and Evarts expressed no preference, deeming their position "Who was the father of the present understood as consistent Republicans.

On the 23d ult., at Elmira, as the fuperal procession of Mrs. Carr was crossening the horses to one of the carriages.

cut to peices. Telegrams from New York state that: A gelding, owned by john Stewart, Territories by the Constitution of the at the Fashion Course, yesterday, trotted United States. You know then he was twenty miles to wagon in 59 minutes and 25 seconds. The trot was accomplished those who were then so reluctant to sanc- easily. The horse showed no signs of tion this principle have been manipu- fatigue. The last mile was made, apparlated until they have fallen in. The old ently without exertion, in 3.02. This

Robert Lincoln will be married on Minister McMahon sailed to-day for the Argentine Republic. A dispatch received to-day annouces the completion of another section of the Union Pacific Railroad, making eight hundred and twenty miles. A stupendous swindle has been detected here by a company organized entitled, Brooklyn the funds in circulation in all parts of the country, many having gone to California. Many persons in Virginia have been extensively swindled by land speculators, At the National Labor Congress to-day, a resolution was adopted to form a nationin the country. A committee of three was appointed to issue an address, calling upon the working men to use their influence and vote for no man for office who is not pledged to sustain the Nation-constitution. The committee on Nation- for the protection of the Queen. In Au-

Spain.—The latest accounts from tablishment of Odd Fellowship, in Philadelphia, April 20th. Adopted.

The largest political demonstration ever seen in the West was going on the night of the 22d Sept. Fifteen thousand tanners of Chicago and neighboring counties are out in an immense torchlight procession. A hundred thousand people are out in the streets; Court Square is completely filled. The meeting was addressed by Generals Palmer, Logan, last ship of the Spanish navy had joined Bates, Cox and other prominent speak-

By Cable we have the following: PARIS. Sept. 22.—The Patrie publishes the following from Spain: Madrid is quiet, though the people are excited, and the troops faithful at Cadiz. The troops and citizens are faithful, but the garrison has been reinforced as a precautionary measure. The other towns are quiet.

LONDON, Sept. 22 .- The telegraph in pain has been destroyed in every direction. The news is uncertain and contradictory. Gens. Prim and Doceda are at the head of the insurgents. Their forces are marching on the capital.

LONDON, Midnight Sept. 22 .- The following additional is received from Spain: Conchas is at the head of the Queen's troops. Prime Minister Bravo, has fled. The Queen is at St. Sebastian or on the road between that place and Madrid. Martial law has been proclaim-

Advices from Marshall county, Texas, state that the country in that neighborhood is overrun with robbers. A body of freebooters, numbering 119 men, well armed and equipped, are roaming through raptures for this representative of British the Legislature. He does not fully sym- the country. On the 5th they captured pathize with the Legislature in asking forty Government wagons loaded with for troops, and expresses confidence in supplice. Sulphur springs, guarded by a small company of Infantry, had sent an the State. The people desire peace. express for aid, stating that if not rein-He has the assurance of men of both forced the garrison, which was surroundparties of support in his efforts. Except ed, would be slaughtered. Gen. Hayden, in command at Marshall, had sent rein-

The Republicans of the fifth district. Massachusetts, have nominated B. F. Butler as their candidate for Congress.

At Helena, on the evening of the 27th, Gen. J. C. Hindman, late of the Confederate army, was assassinated while sitting in his house. A man forme ly serving under him has been arrested for the deed. Central American news to the 19th is to the effect that the prospect for peace is not very bright. Discontent with the new government prevails. The cereal crops in Gautemala and Nicaragua are seriously affected by winter rains. No further news of the earthquake. Dispatches state that it is generally believed in France that the revolutionists in Spain will be successful, and will result in the expulsion of the Bourbons, and probably in the accession of the Duke de Montpensier to the Spanish throne.

Gen. Prim, with a fleet of ironclads was expected at Barcellona on the 26th. A telegram, dated Fort Wallace, Sept. 28th, reports that Col. Carpenter reached Forsyth on the morning of the 25th inst. eater Indians. They are to be located in here with provisions, Atc., arrived soon after Col. Carpenter. Col. Forsyth lost From Chester, (Pa) we learn that the five killed and twelve wounded, and all it is not known that he leaves a relative On the 23d ult., according to telegram that they fired not less than 10,000 made charge after charge, sometimes coming within fifty feet of our men. The island on which they were, had a few bushes and a small amount of grass. Our men only defense was a small sand breastwork, which was thrown up with no tools and by working between the attacks of the Indians who rode around, charging down on > digging while the rest fought. Dispatches from Victoria to the 28th state that a new coal mine had been discovered at Saanich, about fifteen miles from Victoria. Quality of the coal good; seam about four and a half feet thick.

The mortality among the Indians in the vicinity of Victoria was causing considerable alarm. Fifty deaths had occurred during the last month; nature of shoals at Cromwell, Connecticut, killed the disease unknown. The authorities were making every preparation against the spread of the disease, and had sent away hundreds of Indians from the city. The number of deaths, at latest dates, were on the decrease. A dispatch from London on the 27th, says: No official dispatches have been received from Madrid since Friday.

The following account comes from other sources: The revolution in Spain is the result of constitutional, moderate and liberal parties in an effort to overthrow the reigning dynasty- The fleet has joined the movement because the sailors are unpaid and the greater part of the army revolt because they are indignant at the exile of their favorite Generals. The Church, which is bound by every tie to the Queen, resists and holds the masses in check. As far as can be ascertained from various reports received to the present hour, insurrection extends throughout the provinces of Cadiz, Seville, Cordova, Huilva, Grenada, Valencia, Alicante, Caseras, Malaga, Vigo, Ferral, Corruna, La Grand, Almeria and Oviedo. Many armed bands have appeared It says: A dispatch from General Reynolds, at in the provinces of Huesca, Sarogossa, Austin, Texas, announces that a detach- Truel and Navarre. Gen. Porua has arment of Federal cavalry overtook two rived in the vicinity of Cordova, but his life! But isn't it a wonder, now, that, hundred Apaches, killed 20 and wounded troops are deserting in large numbers. an equal number, and recaptured two He was obliged to stop his march and ocratic ticket it is the other way. There captives. They destroyed the Indians' wait for reinforcements fram Culdad, the cipher comes first and the number 000 left at the St. Nicholas, and the tens of thousands put up by George Wilkes The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows to-Real and Badajos, which at last accounts,

CLIPPINGS.

There are four Grant clubs in Union county. Bully for Union county.

.The grain crop of Russia is reported as an entire failure this season.

The heavy fires in the Sound country, (W. T.) are causing the farmers much anxiety by driving immense numbers of wild animals out of the forests into the open lands, who " waltz " into their sheep and hogs at a fearful rate.

They have experienced heavy frosts along the Sound, (W. T.) destroying late vegetation subject to its ravages.

The latest scientific invention at nounced is one for making water answer the purpose of wood and coal in propelling steam engines.

All the mills in the lumber trade on the Sound are reported as running night and day, and yet are unable to supply the demand made upon them.

It is estimated by competent authorities that the yield of breadstuffs in the United States for the current year, will be about 365,000,000 bushels; more than the most truitful year we have ever

Thirty-two pounds instead of thirtyfive are to constitute a bushel of oats in St. Louis in future.

Czar Alexander has pledged his Alaskan money in payment of a loan from a Hamburg banking house.

A rich Weisbadener gave 40,000 florins to educate poor children on the day the Luther monument was dedicated.

Fifty dollars will hereafter be charged to the soldier who loses or disposes of the Springfield breech-loading musket.

Queen Isabella of Spain, according to the ill natured gossips, drinks a pint of brandy every week day, and a quart on The revenue Department has declared in favor of the adoption of the Tice metre for the prevention of frauds in liquor distilleries. It takes seven men one week to dust the great organ in Boston. Their wages for the week are over $100. Mr. Parton asks, "Will the coming man drink wine?" If he's a good Demcrat he'll prefer whisky. The other day Edward Williams, of Scranton, Pennsylvania, swam 9 miles in 150 minutes, or 21 hours. In Yarmouth, Maine, a town of 2,500 inhabitants, there are 60 persons above

Thad Stevens never was married, and Princess Elizabeth of Spain has thirtysix million reals marriage portion. Small monkeys are the fashionable pets of fashionable ladies in Paris now. A brother of the late N. P. Willis is said to be a bootmaker at Melbourne. The New York Tribune says it is rumored that Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton is to be made a deacon in Henry Ward Beecher's church.

The Queen asks Parliament to vote a pension of £2,200 per annum to Gen. Sir were almost entirely exposed. Their Robert Napier for his distinguished services in Abyssinia. England has mosquitoes for the first time. The little insects find the weather them. At some points, one party were admirable, and English blood very wholesome. An act of the Legislature of Tennessee now makes habitual drunkenness a > cause for divorce on the part of either A large number of dead shad were lately picked up on the Connecticut > by the hot weather. Fish eggs are an Alaskan dainty. The Indians collect them by sinking pine branches in the water where the fish > spawn, and eat them raw. The young gentleman who stands highest this year on the roll at the Naval Academy is Midshipman Kelley, a neph> ew of Mr. Barney Williams. Somebody has paid $300 for a million cancelled postage stamps, collected by a lady of Yenkers, and she has given the money to a church.

> Russia works energetically sometimes. It is now building a railroad from Koursk to Tagarog, and has 40,000 workmen on the line to do it up quickly.

> SPLITS ITS TICKET .- The New York Herald of the 5th of August, splits its ticket and supports Grant and Blair. That's riding the fence very judiciously.

In the Republican ticket the efficient quantity stands in its proper place-the figure is before the cipher, the man leads. the nonentity comes after. In the Demstands behind it, so that the Democracy begin their campaigning with a start in day disposed of the amendment to the Biccay sent troops from San Sabastian inverse order and are likely to go on as if it were a sum in fractions-