ISSUED EVERY SATURDAY, IN AEBANY, LINN COUNTY, OGN. JAS. O'MEARA, PUBLISHER AND EDITOR.

TERMS:

SPEECH OF THE HON. GEORGE built wholly within State limits, powers

The subjoined remarks made by the which their charters have expressly de-The Powers of the Federal Consti-tution and the Rights of States.

have assured to them. As if legislative action were too slow or Hon. George H. Pendleton, of Ohio, at too regular, we have Federal officers-the the celebration on the 8th of January, at subordinates of the President-some im-Columbus, like all said by that distinsponse to the toast, "The Constitution:" erating prisoners under their indictment; and woe, little virtue and great vice: MR. PRESIDENT: You ask me to speak others - freedmen's-bureau-men -estab-

LIFE IN NEW YORK.

A New York correspondent of the Chicago Times gives the following interesting poorer sort, sneak thieves, juvenile pimps, A DEMOCRATIC CELEBRATION LETTER FROM MRS. JEFFER-New York Women-Skating-Pret-ty Waiter Girl Salsons-Vice in Silks and Palaces-Mock Philan-thropy-Cheap Tenement Houses --Want and Misery and Beath.

letter from that great city of wealth and 10 by 6, full ten feet below the street; no of the day—to General Jackson—was reguished gentleman, are full of sound doctrine and good sense. They are in response to the toast, "The Constitution:"

only by refusing to obey writs which they pretended were suspended, but by rescubing or other ventilation; bare stone was responded to by the Hon. Allen G. Thurburg and ostentations pride, of luxury sponse to the toast, "The Constitution:"

only by refusing to obey writs which they pretended were suspended, but by rescubing or other ventilation; bare stone was responded to by the Hon. Allen G. Thurburg and ostentations pride, of luxury sponse to the toast, "The Constitution:"

only by refusing to obey writs which they pretended were suspended, but by rescubing or other ventilation; bare stone was responded to by the Hon. Allen G. Thurburg and ostentations pride, of luxury sponse of the Lagrangian and woe, little virtue and great vice:

only by refusing to obey writs which they pretended were suspended, but by rescubing the following or other ventilation; bare stone was responded to by the Hon. Allen G. Thurburg and ostentations pride, of luxury standard and the pretended were suspended, but by rescubing the following or other ventilation; bare stone was responded to by the Hon. Allen G. Thurburg and ostentations pride, of luxury standard and the following or other ventilation; bare stone was responded to by the Hon. Allen G. Thurburg and ostentations pride, of luxury standard and the following or other ventilation; bare stone was responded to by the Hon. Allen G. Thurburg and the following or other ventilation; bare stone was responded to by the Hon. Allen G. Thurburg and the following or other ventilation; bare stone was responded to by the Hon. Allen G. Thurburg and the following or other ventilation; bare stone was responded to by the Hon. Allen G. Thurburg and the following or other ventilation; bare stone was responded to by the Hon. Allen G. Thurburg and the following or other ventilation; bare stone was responded to by the Hon. Allen G. Thurburg and the following or other ventilation; bar an open Democratic Celebration of Janu- by Mrs. Jefferson Davis to the Secretary ary 8th, as General Andrew Jackson's and Agent of the Ladies' Southern Association: One of the subordinate officers thus degala day. This year it was celebrated scribes one or two of these lodging-houses: with more than usual spirit. The toast T. B. Clark, Esq., Secretary and Agent

One of the "Institutions" of Ohio, is The following letter has been addressed

MFLL VIEW, Ga., Dec. 4, 1865.

" for its object the purpose of placing

The control of the co