MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

The election for city officers took place last Monday, and resulted in the election of a who have a predilection for "tripping the COOK, PARLOR AND BOX STOVES! Democratic Mayor, Recorder, Treasurer, light fantastic" could desire. Arrangements and four out of the six Councilmen. Owing to some dissatisfaction with a portion of the Democratic ticket, the Radicals elected the Marshal and two Councilmen. The average vote of the successful Democratic candidates shows a slight increase over the Democratic BITTERS has no parallel in the history of majorities of last year; and there is no medicine. The thousands upon thousands question that the city of Albany is decidedly of bottles that are made and sold daily is Democratic. We can carry it when we try.

It was one thing that helped defeat two of our candidates for Councilmen, and to elect their opponents. The citizens here -a good majority of them-want immediate steps taken for the purchase of a fireengine; and as one cannot be had without we had had a good fire engine and fire com- where else. pany, it would have been saved without much difficulty. Not only so, but give us fire engine and every one who insures his property, whether goods or houses, can get them insured at greatly reduced rates of in surance. There is scarcely a business man in town but would be benefitted, to a greater or less degree, by a fire company and fire engine. There is plenty of good material here for a Fire Company; -now let us have a fire engine.

ALBANY LEGISLATURE. - The third regular were introduced; some of which, if successful, will undoubtedly inaugurate a reign of terror in Ochoco, the Goose Lake country, and perhaps in Patagonia and other foreign ports. Mr. Arnold, of Washington county, introduced a school bill, which, among other der stxteen years of age, to attend school at least three months every year. Mr. Flinn, of Multnomah, introduced a bill making murder in the first degree punishable by incarceration in the Penitentiary for life. Mr. Wadsworth, of Marion, gave notice that oh Norcross, and Councilmen Carter, Driggs, next Saturday evening he would introduce Vining and Cheadle. an appropriation bill; and Mr. Whitney, of Yamhill, gave notice that at the same time amended and approved. he would introduce an amendment to the Conposed measure.
