THE OREGON LEGISLATURE. There are 60 representatives, 51 republicans and 9 democrats; 30 senators, 25 republicans and 5 democrats.

LACKS INFORMATION. Mr. Julius Gradwall has shown a private letter from a friend in Springfield, Missouri.

TACOMA. The smallest man is said to live in that city. He lost his wife a few days ago, and closed his store till after the funeral was over.

THREE ITEMS. Here are three items from the Benton Leader, each to the point: "The county school superintendents have committed an outrage."

FLAT. Mr. R. D. Wilson, of Pendleton, passed through the city a day or two ago. While in Oregon City, Mr. Wilson, who has been head miller at the Pendleton mill, which shut down for want of wheat, reported in town Saturday.

ANOTHER PIONEER. Mr. Isaac Heyden died at his home in this city Thursday at the age of 62 years.

How Nango. A Stayton correspondent of an exchange says: "The O. P. railroad is still pushing ahead and the end of the track is now within ten miles of Reitenbach Fork."

A FORTUNE. Several days ago we mentioned the story in "Frank Leslie's" about the young man finding $50,000 worth of ambergris at the mouth of the Columbia.

THEY KICK. Pomona Grange, of Marion county, has resolved as follows, on the school book question: "Resolved, that we condemn the action of the school superintendents as making an unnecessary expense, and we ask the intervention of the legislative assembly to arrest this proposed change."

OUT AGAIN. Ed. Davidson Saturday donned a completely clean suit of clothes from top to bottom and stepped out into the world again after a residence at Mrs. East's of just four weeks.

SHE DIED SUDDENLY. The Salem Journal, in speaking of the death of Mrs. Mary A. Long, who died in Salem on the 17th at the age of 60 years, says: "Last night she retired in common health and slept soundly until about 12:30, when she was taken suddenly ill and died in less than an hour."

LEVEL HEADED. Albany is one of the bright and most prosperous cities of Oregon and in time it promises to be the leading city of the interior of the State.

THE YOUNGEST. Hon. Jeff Meyers, of Scio, Linn county, is probably the youngest member of the coming general assembly, as he is but 24 years old.

HEAVY LOSS. Last Saturday afternoon Mr. Pres Bowman, who lives at Spring Hill, in Benton county, was so unfortunately to lose his fine horse, "Shakespeare."

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN. The Man About Town, who has talked with divers people on the subject of the next Legislature is prepared to recommend laws on the following subjects:

AN OLD GAME. A couple of Pendleton gentlemen have made a peculiar, and in some ways laudable, bet. The one who first takes a drink of "malt or spirituous liquors" will thereby forfeit $250 in coin and property to the other.

A SAMPLE. "Will you please send me a sample copy of the Democrat and any pamphlets that describe your State. I shall go there in a few months."

FOR FILES. Being Files as known by many like "F. J. M.," producing a very desirable looking article, which will sell as well as Bill, blending with the ordinary File, and is applicable to Dr. Bonk's File remedy, which acts directly on the system, clearing the system, staying intense itching and exciting a permanent cure.

THINGS THAT SHOULD BE DONE. Editors Democrat: Now that the Legislature is in session it would be well for its members to bear in mind that there are some things that should be done and some that should not be done.
